Notredames Des Fleurs:

Notre Dame Des Fleurs ,2020 Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle,2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute Georges Perec Jean Genet and Helene Cixous She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,1914 Theory, Aesthetics, and Politics in the Francophone World Rajeshwari S. Vallury,2019-03-25 Theory Aesthetics and Politics in the Francophone World Filiations Past and Future offers a critical reflection on some of the leading figures of twentieth century French and Francophone literature cinema and philosophy Specialists re evaluate the historical political and artistic legacies of twentieth century France and the French speaking world proposing new formulations of the relationships between fiction aesthetics and politics This collection combines interdisciplinary scholarship nuanced theoretical reflection and contextualized analyses of literary cinematic and philosophical practices to suggest alternative critical paradigms for the twenty first century The contributors reappraisals of key writers filmmakers and intellectuals trace an alternative narrative of their historical cultural or intellectual legacy casting a contemporary light on the aesthetic theoretical and political questions raised by their works Taken as a whole the essays generate a series of fresh perspectives on French and Francophone literary and cultural studies Our Lady of the Flowers Jean Genet,1994-01-12 The shattering novel of underground life the New York Times called a cry of rapture and horror the purest lyrical genius Jean Genet's debut novel Our Lady of the Flowers which is often considered to be his masterpiece was written entirely in the solitude of a prison cell A semi autobiographical account of one man's journey through the Paris demi monde dubbed the epic of masturbation by no less a figure than Jean Paul Sartre the novel's exceptional value lies in its exquisite ambiguity The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles Herbermann,1914 Mary in Our Life Nicholas Joseph Santoro,2011-08-12 Mary In Our Life An Atlas of the Names and Titles of Mary The Mother of Jesus and Their Place in Marian Devotion presents the 1 969 names titles and appellations used to identify the Blessed Virgin Mary over the centuries in terms of their history and related events Within these titles and their history can be seen the official and private attitudes and prejudices of the times government pressures conflicts and interdictions internal problems within the Catholic Church and startling examples of dedication devotion and piety Taken together Marian titles are a real life story of the Catholic faith

Flamboyant Fictions Ian Fleishman,2024-12-15 Exposes a stylistic tradition of flamboyantly failed passing in queer literature and film This book posits formal experimentation as an index for evolving expressions of male homosexuality from literary modernism to the German New Wave and the present day Ian Fleishman exposes a tradition of flamingly failed passing that is itself a surreptitious mode of passing the flaunting of queer style as an intentionally unconvincing cover for queer content Exploring a corpus of films and novels by Andr Gide Jean Genet Rainer Werner Fassbinder Werner Schroeter Fran ois Ozon and Xavier Dolan among others Flamboyant Fictions The Failed Art of Passing intervenes in trenchant debates about queer agency visibility negativity and disidentification Mapping queer strategies of storytelling onto queer practices of self invention Flamboyant Fictions wagers that it is precisely in instances of conflict between these auteurs and their inventions that narrative becomes a laboratory for testing the sovereignty and self determination of queer identity

Phantom Communities Scott Durham,1998 Phantom Communities reconsiders the status of the simulacrum sometimes defined as a copy of a copy but more rigorously defined as a copy that subverts the legitimacy and authority of its model in light of recent debates in literature art philosophy and cultural studies The author pursues two interwoven levels of analysis On one level he explores the poetics of the simulacrum considered as a form that internalizes repetition through close readings of a number of exemplary literary texts paintings and films from both the Anglo American and French traditions including works by Jean Genet Pierre Klossowski Ren Magritte Andy Warhol J G Ballard Balthus and Ra l Ruiz Through his readings of these works the author follows the transformations of the simulacrum showing how its vicissitudes provide an optic for remapping the postmodern canon On another level the author offers an account of the role played by the simulacrum as a theoretical concept that assumes varying analytical and ideological valences in the writings of such theorists as Jean Baudrillard Fredric Jameson Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze In so doing Phantom Communities intervenes in ongoing interdisciplinary debates concerning the historical and ideological limits of postmodernism as well as the utopian possibilities of art literature and philosophy in a postmodern context Moving between these debates and the interpretation of individual works the author shows how they converge on the fundamental aesthetic and ideological problem raised by the postmodern culture of the simulacrum imagining the virtual communities that at the margins of postmodern culture are at once figured and eclipsed by its proliferating images poems and a fully linked index to their major themes and images Together with the ICS Publications editions of Th r se of Lisieux s Story of a Soul Last Conversations Letters Plays and Prayers this is an indispensable work for all those who love the life and spiritual message of the greatest saint of modern times Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jiminez, Joanna Banham, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company La marque de Caïn Shlomo Giora Shoham, Giora Rahav, 1991 Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando, Pamela A. Pears, 2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the inter war period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume s essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one s home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Ta a Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Ta Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabile Far s Franco Algerian Leila Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda L How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference i can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present The Rites of Passage of Jean Genet Gene A. Plunka, 1992 In this book Gene A Plunka argues that the most important single element that solidifies all of Genet s work is the concept of metamorphosis Genet s plays and prose demonstrate the transition from game playing to the establishment of one s identity through a state of risk taking that develops from solitude However risk taking per se is not as important as the rite of passage Anthropologist Victor Turner s work in ethnography is used as a focal point for the examination of rites of passage in Genet s dramas Rejecting society Genet has allied himself with peripheral groups marginal men and outcasts scapegoats who lack power in society Much of their effort is spent in revolt or direct opposition in mainstream society that sees them as objects to be abused As an outcast or marginal man Genet solved his problem of identity through artistic creation and metamorphosis Likewise Genet s protagonists are outcasts searching for positive value in a society over which they have no control they always appear to be the victims or scapegoats As outcasts Genet s protagonists establish their identities by first willing their actions and being proud to do so Unfortunately man s sense of Being is constantly undermined by society and the way individuals react to roles norms and values Roles are the products of carefully defined and codified years of positively sanctioned institutional behavior According to Genet role playing limits individual freedom stifles creativity and impedes differentiation Genet equates role playing with stagnant bourgeois society that imitates rather than invents the latter is a word Genet often uses to urge his protagonists into a state of productive metamorphosis Imitation versus invention is the underlying dialectic between bourgeois society and outcasts that is omnipresent in virtually all of Genet s works Faced with rejection poverty oppression and degradation Genet s outcasts often escape their horrible predicaments by living in a world of illusion that consists of ceremony game playing narcissism sexual and secret rites or political charades Like children Genet s ostracized individuals play games to imitate a world that they can not enter Essentially the play acting becomes catharsis for an oppressed group that is otherwise confined to the lower stratum of society Role players and outcasts who try to find an identity through cathartic game playing never realize their potential in Genet s world Instead Genet is interested in outcasts who immerse themselves in solitude and create their own sense of dignity free from external control Most important these isolated individuals may initially play games yet they ultimately experience metamorphosis from a world of rites charades and rituals to a type of sainthood where dignity and nobility reign The apotheosis is achieved through a distinct act of conscious revolt designed to condemn the risk taker to a degraded life of solitude totally distinct from society s norms and values Book Jacket Twentieth-Century Countertenor Repertoire Steven L. Rickards,2008-08-11 This significant reference of over 600 entries compiles and catalogues information about repertoire composed specifically for the countertenor from 1950 to 2000 Representing more than 350 composers it provides a resource for countertenors and voice teachers to identify and become more familiar with contemporary works for countertenor A Journey Into Matisse's South of France Laura McPhee,2007-01-01 For more than 50 years the passionate pursuit of color led Henri Matisse to visit some of the most enchanting villages in southern France Travelers and art lovers will delight in this mix of art history biography and travel guide that covers southern France and explores the teal skies emerald hills red soil and indigo seas beloved by the artist The journey begins in Paris and then moves to the fashionable port of St Tropez the fishing village of Collioure chic and voluptuous Nice and the rustic refuge of Vence and ends in the luxurious resort of Cimiez The author identifies the villas and studios where Matisse lived and worked in each location and discusses how his art responded to the palette and ambience of each local landscape Cacaphonies Annabel L. Kim,2022-04-05 Exploring why there is so much fecal matter in literary works that matter Cacaphonies takes fecal matter and its place in literature seriously Readers and critics have too long overlooked excrement s vital role in the twentieth and twenty first century French canon In a stark challenge to the tendency to view this literature through sanitizing abstractions Annabel L Kim undertakes close readings of key authors to argue for feces as a figure of radical equality both a literary object and a reflection on literature itself without which literary studies is impoverished and sterile Following the fecal through line in works by C line Beckett Genet Sartre Duras and Gary and the contemporary authors Anne Garr ta and Daniel Pennac Kim shows that shit far from vanishing from the canon after the early modern period remains present in the modern and contemporary French literature that follows She argues that all the shit in the canon expresses a call to democratize literature making literature for all just as shit is for or of all She attends to its presence in this prized element of French identity treating it as a continually uttered desire to manifest the universality France aspires to as encapsulated by the slogan Libert galit fraternit but fails to realize In shit there is a concrete universalism that traverses bodies with disregard for embodied differences Cacaphonies reminds us that literature and the ideas to be found therein cannot be separated from the corporeal envelopes that create and receive them In so doing it reveals the aesthetic political and ethical potential of shit and its capacity to transform literature and life

Queer French Denis M. Provencher, 2016-05-23 In this book Denis M Provencher examines the tensions between Anglo American and French articulations of homosexuality and sexual citizenship in the context of contemporary French popular culture and first person narratives In the light of recent political events and the perceived hegemonic role of US forces throughout the world an examination of the French resistance to globalization and Americanization is timely in this context He argues that contemporary French gay and lesbian cultures rely on long standing French narratives that resist US models of gay experience He maintains that French gay experiences are mitigated through gay French language that draws on several canonical voices including Jean Genet and Jean Paul Sartre and various universalistic discourses Drawing on material from a diverse array of media Queer French draws out the importance of a French gay linguistic and semiotic tradition that emerges in contemporary textual practices and discourses as they relate to sexual citizenship in 20th and 21st century France It will appeal to an interdisciplinary readership in gender and sexuality studies cultural studies linguistics media and communication studies and French studies

Encyclopedia of Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, 2013-11-05 First Published in 2000 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future
