

Charles H. Alvord, 75, Merchant for 50 Years, Dies After Long Illness

Merchant Tailor, Noted in Youth as a Horse- man, Succumbs Four Months After Wife's Death

Charles H. Alvord, more than half a century engaged in the merchant tailoring trade in Syracuse and noted as a horseman, died early Monday morning after illness of several months. He was 75.

Mr. Alvord's death followed by four months that of his wife, who died Jan. 14. She was dying when he was stricken in December. He had been active in his business until that time.

A native of Syracuse, born Dec. 28, 1861, son of James Dwight Alvord and Caroline Edwards Alvord, Mr. Alvord grew up in the period after the Civil War and represented all his life that school of American thought developed in those years.

His father was a landowner in the Eastwood area, owning practically all the property north of James Street between Old Manlius Street, the Grant Boulevard of today and Thompson Road.

The son grew up with a love of galled horses and at one time owned a stable of 20. He was treasurer of the Amateur Driving Club of Syracuse when it disbanded in 1911. He was a gentleman driver, participating in the ice-racing as well as on the track and he held a record for continuous serving as a judge at the State Fair.

He was an elder in Park Central Presbyterian Church and unfailing in attendance there. Arrangements were made for a church funeral.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Emily Alvord Feigel; two brothers, Grove Alvord, of Kirkville, and Dean Alvord, of Clearwater, Fla.; two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Seitz and Mrs. Wesley Kirkpatrick, of Syracuse; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Friends may see the body at the Park Central Presbyterian Church Wednesday between 12 noon and 2 P. M. Funeral services will be conducted from the church at 2 P. M. The Rev. Dr. Roy Freeman Jenney, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

The Oölogist's Record ,1921 Benjamin Lightbourne/Lightburn of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and His Descendants Robert C Lightburn,2019-03-16 I first became interested in genealogy when I was about twelve It was then that my paternal grandmother first introduced me to a book entitled Genealogy of the Fell Family in America Descended from Joseph Fell This book which was published in 1891 included my grandfather Charles McConnell Lightburn I was struck by the time span covered by the book nearly three hundred years and was fascinated by the fact that all of the people in that book were related to one another and to me either by blood or marriage My grandmother later gave me that book and it became the first book in my genealogical library My grandfather and my great aunt Mary told me that their father had fought for the North during the Civil War by the side of his older brother who was a brigadier general This fascinated me They also told me that there was a town in West Virginia called Lightburn I couldn t wait to find it on a map My own genealogical research did not begin until the late 1970s when I requested the Civil War records of my great grandfather Calvin Luther Lightburn and his brothers from the National Archives During the 1980s I continued my research albeit at a very low level of activity It was not until the early 1990s when I moved to the Washington DC area that I became intensively involved in some might even say addicted to genealogy The resources in the Washington DC area are extensive and I ended up spending many happy and sometimes frustrating hours conducting research in the National Archives Library of Congress and the library of the Daughters of the American Revolution By 1999 I had amassed a great deal of genealogical information most of which was stuffed in cardboard boxes I was encouraged to put what I had on paper by Faye M Brown Lightburn who had published her book Revolutionary Soldier Samuel Brown and Some of his Family in 1993 So after attending several related sessions at the National Genealogical Society Conference in the States which was held that year in Providence Rhode Island I finally screwed up my courage and plunged in I published the original book in 2003 This book is the second and probably last edition Special Reports from the National Vital Statistics Reports ,2004
