Penguin Polish Phrase:

The History and Philosophy of Polish Logic K. Mulligan, K. Kijania-Placek, T. Placek, 2016-01-26 The book presents the state of the art of research into the legacy of interwar Polish analytic philosophy and exemplifies different approaches to the history of philosophy It contains discussions and reconstructions of aspects of Polish philosophy and logic as well as reactions to and developments of this tradition

Hiking Guide to Poland and Ukraine Tim Burford, 1994 The hiking trails and mountain huts of Poland are well established but Ukraine has only just opened up to adventurous travelers This guide not only details mountain walks and treks but includes much practical information on the main towns of Ukraine and those in the mountain regions of Poland This handy volume also includes information on each country's history politics wildlife and local culture as well as sightseeing and accommodation tips

Polish, 1983

A Memoir of the Warsaw Uprising Miron Bialoszewski, 2015-10-27 A blow by blow ground level account of the 1944 Warsaw Uprising the 2 month Polish Resistance effort to liberate Warsaw from Nazi occupation Poland's most famous post war poet offers the finest book about the insurrection of 1944 an essential read for fans of WW2 history John Carpenter On August 1 1944 Miron Bialoszewski later to gain renown as one of Poland's most innovative poets went out to run an errand for his mother and ran into history With Soviet forces on the outskirts of Warsaw the Polish capital revolted against 5 years of Nazi occupation an uprising that began in a spirit of heroic optimism 63 days later it came to a tragic end The Nazis suppressed the insurgents ruthlessly reducing Warsaw to rubble while slaughtering some 200 000 people mostly through mass executions The Red Army simply looked on First written over 25 years after the uprising Bialoszewski's account gives readers an unforgettable sense of the chaos and immediacy of the final days of World War II He tells of slipping back and forth under German fire dodging sniper bullets collapsing with exhaustion rescuing the wounded and burying the dead This unusual memoir is a major work of literature and a reflection on memory that resists the terrible destruction it records Madeline G Levine has extensively revised her 1977 translation and passages that were unpublishable in Communist Poland have been restored

Memory Speaks Julie Sedivy, 2021-10-19 As immigrants and others are engulfed by dominant societies the connection to their ancestral tongues is routinely severed Julie Sedivy takes on the science and politics of language loss offering lessons for the renewal and preservation of heritage languages alongside her own moving story of language loss and accompanying personal crisis

Polish Cinema in a Transnational Context Ewa Mazierska, Michael Goddard, 2014 The opening up of Poland economically and politically to global influences after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 coupled with the rise of transnational approaches to the study of film presents ideal conditions for examining Polish cinema from a transnational vantage point Yet not only have studies of Polish cinema remained largely within a national framework but Polish cinema as well as many other Eastern European cinemas has been virtually excluded from new research in transnational cinema Polish cinema in a transnational context addresses this lacuna in film studies offering extended analysis of this national cinema's global influence Contributors assess the reception of Polish films in Europe and North America Polish international coproductions the presence of Polish performers in foreign films and the works of subversive migr auteurs like Andrzej u awski and Walerian Borowczyk The collection presents familiar films and filmmakers in a new and revealing light while also focusing on lesser known filmmakers and aspects of Polish cinema The resulting volume moves the discussion beyond the border of Polish national belonging The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979 The Polish Underground and the Jews, 1939-1945 Joshua D. Zimmerman,2015-06-05 Zimmerman examines the attitude and behavior of the Polish Underground towards the Jews during the Holocaust Cross-cultural Deception in Polish and American English in Computer-Mediated Communication Anna Kuzio,2018-09-30 Deception is omnipresent throughout the evolution of life inseparable from the development of various modes of communication By effectively manipulating the behavior of others apparently by taking advantage of recipients own rules communicators are able to gain an advantage while negotiating meaning in a cross cultural environment Even though much research related to deceptive behavior and its detection has been conducted in recent years little of it has concentrated on deception outside of a North American context This monograph addresses that lacuna Consistently most research on deception has examined face to face verbal communication and ignored computer mediated communication In response this book also provides detailed insights into how computer mediated communication and adopted cultural values affect deceptive communication and deception detection across cultures namely in Poland and the USA It focuses on discussing theories about why cues to deception exist theories specific to verbal cues to deception and theories about computer mediation in communication The book also proposes a research model postulating relationships between computer mediated communication media cue detection media familiarity national culture espoused cultural values veracity judgment success and deceptive communicative behavior Conservative revolutionary David Hayton,2019-08-26 A biography of the historian and public intellectual Sir Lewis Namier from his origins in a secular Jewish family in Poland to recognition as the most important historian of his day whose revolutionary method was enshrined in the verb to Namierise The Language of Memory in a Crosslinguistic Perspective Mengistu Amberber,2007 This book offers for the first time a detailed comparative study of how speakers of different languages express memory concepts While there is a robust body of psycholinguistic research that bears on how memory and language are related there is no comparative study of how speakers themselves conceptualize memory as reflected in their use of language to talk about memory This book addresses a key question how do speakers of different languages talk about the experience of having prior experiences coming to mind remembering or failing to come to mind forgetting A complex array of answers is provided through detailed grammatical and semantic investigation of different languages including English German Polish Russian and also a number of non Indo European languages Amharic Cree Dalabon Korean and Mandarin In addition the book calls for a broader interdisciplinary engagement by urging that cognitive semantics be integrated with other sciences of memory
