Redeeming The Dream Feminism Redemption And Christian Tradition:

Redeeming the Dream Mary C. Grey,1999 Redeeming the Dream Mary Grey,2000 Feminism, Redemption, and the Christian Tradition Mary C. Grey,1990 Controversies in Feminist Theologies Lisa Isherwood,Marcella Althaus-Reid,2013-02-12 Controversies in Feminist Theologies is a clear and accessible analysis of the current controversies within feminist theologies It uses many of the themes of systematic theology to examine whether feminist theology has a future or whether its discourse and praxis has become bankrupt The authors expand this question through an examination of whether the whole project of systematic theology has become outmoded The book is the first to expose the myth of homogeneity and some of the common stereotypes and myths surrounding Feminist Theologies from a methodological and thematic perspective It addresses current stereotypes built around North Atlantic and Third World feminist theology including issues concerning Mariology the use of the Bible and the centrality of women s experiences in feminist praxis while highlighting the richness of different and at times opposite positions in the debates of theology gender and sexuality

Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder,2025-10-01 What has Luce Irigaray s statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray s work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray s critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray s thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray s restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray s thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject The Resurrection of Peace Mary Grey,2012-11-15 Mary Grey takes the reader on a contemporary Lenten journey through a series of profound theological reflections on the search for peace and reconciliation in Israel Palestine Along the way she explores the core Christian concepts of redemption atonement and resurrection from the perspective of justice making in the real world pursuing a spirituality of perseverance and steadfastness sumud deriving from her work with Middle Eastern Christians The book draws on all four Gospels and the book of Revelation providing biblical inspiration for the quest for peace Leave Her Alone Megan, McKenna ,2014-07-30 Representation and Substitution in the Atonement Theologies of Dorothee Sölle, John Macquarrie, and Karl Barth Jeannine Michele Graham,2005 How does what happened 2000 years ago in the life death resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ radically alter the human nature and life situation of men and women in every generation up to the present day Pursuit of this question provided the initial impetus for this book a study of two vital themes pertaining to the doctrine of atonement representation and substitution The author explores their meaning and role within the theologies of three significantly diverse contemporary theologians Dorothee S lle John Macquarrie and Karl Barth concluding with a comparative analysis of all three perspectives in relation to each other God in our Nature Peter Kenneth Stevenson,2007-09-01 Arguably the leading Scottish theologian of the nineteenth century John McLeod Campbell s theology is much criticized and often misunderstood Previous accounts have tended to overlook both his sermons and his Christology This reassessment of his thought breaks new ground by offering a detailed study of his sermons and by identifying the distinctive Christology which contributes to a clearer understanding of his doctrine of atonement Drawing upon the full range of Campbell s work God in our Nature brings to light a trinitarian theologian whose pilgrimage represents a journey within evangelicalism rather than a departure from the evangelical fold Feminist Theology and Contemporary Dieting Culture Hannah Bacon,2019-08-08 Hannah Bacon draws on qualitative research conducted inside one UK secular commercial weight loss group to show how Christian religious forms and theological discourses inform contemporary weight loss narratives Bacon argues that notions of sin and salvation resurface in secular guise in ways that repeat well established theological meanings The slimming organization recycles the Christian terminology of sin spelt Syn and encourages members to frame weight loss in salvific terms These theological tropes lurk in the background helping to align food once more with guilt and moral weakness but they also mirror to an extent the way body policing techniques in Christianity have historically helped to cultivate self care The self breaking and self making aspects of women s Syn watching practices in the group continue certain features of historical Christianity serving in similar ways to conform women s bodies to patriarchal norms while providing opportunities for women s self development Taking into account these tensions Bacon asks what a specifically feminist theological response to weight loss might look like If ideas about sin and salvation service hegemonic discourses about fat while also empowering women to shape their own lives how might they be rethought to challenge fat phobia and the frenetic pursuit of thinness As well as naming as sin principles and practices which diminish women s appetites and bodies this book forwards a number of proposals about how salvation might be performed in our everyday eating habits and through the cultivation of fat pride It takes seriously the conviction of many women in the group that food and the body can be important sites of power wisdom and transformation but channels this insight into the construction of theologies that resist rather than reproduce thin privilege and size ist norms Religion and Knowledge Mathew Guest,Elisabeth Arweck,2016-04-15 Religions have always been associated with particular forms of knowledge often knowledge accorded special significance and sometimes knowledge at odds with prevailing understandings of truth and authority in wider society New religious movements emerge on the basis of reformulated often controversial understandings of how the world works and where ultimate meaning can be found Governments have risen and fallen on the basis of such differences and global conflict has raged around competing claims about the origins and content of religious truth Such concerns give rise to recurrent questions faced by academics governments and the general public How do we treat statements made by religious groups and on what basis are they made What authorities lie behind religious claims to truth How can competing claims about knowledge be resolved Are there instances when it is appropriate to police religious knowledge claims or restrict their public expression This book addresses the relationship between religion and knowledge from a sociological perspective taking both religion and knowledge as phenomena located within ever changing social contexts It builds on historical foundations but offers a distinctive focus on the changing status of religious phenomena at the turn of the twenty first century Including critical engagement with live debates about intelligent design and the new atheism this collection of essays brings recent research on religious movements into conversation with debates about socialisation reflexivity and the changing capacity of social institutions to shape human identities Contributors examine religion as an institutional context for the production of knowledge as a form of knowledge to be transmitted or conveyed and as a social field in which controversies about knowledge emerge The Place of Story and the Story of Place Ernst M. Conradie, Willie James Jennings, 2025-02-06 This book is the third in a series titled An Earthed Faith Telling the Story Amid the Anthropocene The series aims to offer collaborative constructive contributions to understanding the content and significance of the Christian faith from the perspective of Christian ecotheology given the challenges associated with the Anthropocene The focus of this volume is on creation theology The book addresses the following question What difference does it make to the story of cosmic planetary human and cultural evolution to re describe this as the creative work of God s love Inversely what difference does it make to the story of God s love to describe it in evolutionary terms The ten contributors were selected in order to optimize a diversity of positions in terms of geographical context confessional traditions and theological schools while also taking considerations of gender race age and language into account In Search of Human Dignity Karin Sporre, 2015 Our human dignity can be taken from us in unjust relationships which makes resistance and a search for dignity necessary This search can take place in different ways in this book through academic studies in theology ethics and education Human dignity relates to human rights which are also explored here moreover perspectives from gender and postcolonial theory inform the studies The reflection on human dignity ends in a discussion of education making the book a resource in addressing contemporary value issues in education This collection of lectures articles and papers covers a certain time period In the texts particular themes recur which contributes to continuity and coherence The focus of more recently written chapters takes the discussion in new directions Karin Sporre with a PhD in Ethics from Lund University Sweden is Professor in Education focusing on values gender and diversity at Ume University Sweden Since 2001 she has been actively engaged in co operation with South African colleagues This has inspired comparison between South Africa and Sweden exemplified in some of the chapters in her book In Search of Human Dignity The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Theology Susan Frank Parsons, 2002-07-04 Feminist theology is a significant movement within contemporary theology The aim of this Companion is to give an outline of feminist theology through an analysis of its overall shape and its major themes so that both its place in and its contributions to the present changing theological landscape may be discerned The two sections of the volume are designed to provide a comprehensive and critical introduction to feminist theology which is authoritative and up to date Written by some of the main figures in feminist theology as well as by younger scholars who are considering their inheritance it offers fresh insights into the nature of feminist theological work The book as a whole is intended to present a challenge for future scholarship since it critically engages with the assumptions of feminist theology and seeks to open ways for women after feminism to enter into the vocation of theology Feminist Trauma Theologies

Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2025-01-30 Throughout the study of trauma theology runs a lineage that is deeply feminist As traumatic experience is being more frequently acknowledged in public this book seeks to articulate an explicit understanding of feminist trauma theology for the first time Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between trauma and feminist theologies highlighting methodological theological and practical similarities between the two The MeToo and ChurchToo movements sexual abuse scandals gender based violence pregnancy loss and the oppression of women in church spaces are all featured as important topics With contributions from a diverse team of scholars this book is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism Women in the Greetings of Romans 16.1-16 Susan Mathew, 2013-02-28

Susan Mathew examines the structures of mutuality in Romans to shed light on the issue of women's leadership in Pauline theology Mathew begins by analyzing the general form of greetings in the Pauline letters to shed light on the specific form of the greetings in Rom 16.1-16 Mathew then couples this with analysis of the leadership of women in the Greco Roman world showing that women's leadership roles in the Pauline churches were part of this wider culture This provides a basis from which to show that the women named in Romans 16.1-16 display Paul's acknowledgment of some women associates and point to relationships of mutuality in the greetings A study of Romans 12.13 helps to apprehend the model of mutuality exemplified in the greetings Finally the contextual application of mutuality in the community as mutual welcoming and mutual up building Romans 14.15 is brought into focus This enables Mathew to draw together the strands of the Pauline ethos of mutuality which encourages the leadership roles of women in the greetings at the end of Romans T&T Clark theology The final section explores key dogmatic questions and concerns related to the doctrine of sin e g original sin sin and the question of evil and providence sin and the freedom of the will

Christianity Stephen Hunt,2017-05-15 For two millennia Christianity has embraced fairly consistent views of human sexuality Today there exist more varied outlooks on the subject This volume on Christianity in the The Library of Essays on Sexuality and Religion series overviews the contrasting Christian perceptions of sexuality Part 1 includes a number of previously published articles that are theological in nature and present biblical interpretations of sexuality Here several Christian voices are permitted to speak from their varied perspectives both conservative and liberal Part 2 features contributions focusing on the Christian tradition of celibacy and asceticism Part 3 surveys scholarly work emphasising the relationship between sexuality gender and patriarchy Part 4 offers academic interpretations of Christian expressions of sexuality through the mediums of worship ritual and the sacraments The final part peruses contemporary contestations of conventional Christian views This is undertaken by presenting articles examining views of gay sexuality assisted human reproduction and priestly celibacy

Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D. Kamitsuka,2007-07-20 In the early years of contesting patriarchy in the academy and religious institutions feminist theology often presented itself as a unified front a sisterhood The term feminist theology however is misleading It suggests a singular feminist purpose driven by a unified female cultural identity that struggles as a cohesive whole against patriarchal dominance Upon closer inspection the voice of feminist theology is in fact a chorus of diverging perspectives each informed by a variety of individual and communal experiences and an embattled scholarly field marked by the effects of privilege and power imbalances This complexity raises an important question How can feminist theologians respect the irreducible diversity of women s experiences and unmask entrenched forms of privilege in feminist theological discourse In Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D Kamitsuka urges the feminist theological community to examine critically its most deeply held commitments assumptions and goals especially those of feminist theologians writing from positions of privilege as white or heterosexual women Focusing on women s experience as portrayed in literature biblical narrative and ethnographic writing Kamitsuka examines the assumptions of feminist theology regarding race and sexuality She proposes theoretical tools that feminist theologians can employ to identify and hopefully avoid the imposition of racial or sexual hegemony thus providing invaluable complexity to the movement s identity and ultimately contributing to current and future Christian theological issues Blending poststructuralist and postcolonial theoretical resources with feminist and queer concerns Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference makes constructive theological proposals ranging from sin to christology The text calls feminist theologians to a more rigorous self critical approach as they continue to shape the changing face of Christian theological discourse

God, Order, and Chaos Stephen Finamore,2009-04-01 The ideas of Rene Girard are having a profound effect on Christian theology This book offers a critical introduction to his thought and then uses it to interpret the Book of Revelation The result is a reading of extraordinary relevance for the contemporary world Readers of the Apocalypse are often disturbed by the images of destruction in the book and are unsure why these are unleashed after the exaltation of Jesus This study examines past approaches to these texts and uses Girard s theories to revive some old ideas and propose some new ones Seen in this light the Apocalypse becomes the story of the ultimate vindication of the victim a source of hope and a resource that can be used both to encourage resistance to the destructive forces within culture and to help the church and the poor to engage constructively with the issues of our day
