Redeeming The Time A Political Theology Of The Environment:

Redeeming the Time Stephen Bede Scharper, 1998-06-01 A thoughtful and interesting contribution to environmental theology literature Choice Richly informative and provocative Review for Religious Stephen Bede Scharper has added a significant new book to the growing collection of Christian ecotheological offerings an admirable job of summarizing the main strands of Christian environmental theologies and highlighting the most valuable contributions of each heartfelt There is much to celebrate in this book presents a comprehensible and accessible guide to the major varieties of what Scharper calls Christian ecological theology In this book he succeeds not just in coherently summarizing a number of the most important voices in ecotheology but also in giving us a blueprint for the changed consciousness necessary to motivate a conversion from our destructive earth damaging behavior to a more earth friendly way of living Worldviews Redeeming the time : a political theology of the environment Stephen B. Scharper, 1998 Various current paradigms and remedying or redeeming their inadequacies Redeeming the Time Stephen Bede Scharper, 1998-06-01 This is an examination of environmental theology from 4 major viewpoints Scharper explores the viewpoints of process theology the new cosmology of Thomas Berry ecofeminism and liberation theologians A Political Theology of Nature Peter Scott, 2003-03-06 This book argues that the modern separation of humanity from nature can be traced to the displacement of the triune God Locating the source of our current ecological crisis in this separation Peter Scott argues that it can only be healed within theology through a revival of a Trinitarian doctrine of creation interacting with political philosophies of ecology Drawing insights from deep ecology ecofeminism and social and socialist ecologies Scott proposes a common realm of God nature and humanity Both Trinitarian and political the theology of this common realm is worked out by reference to Christ and Spirit Christ s resurrection is presented as the liberation and renewal of ecological relations in nature and society the movement of the Holy Spirit is understood as the renewal of fellowship between humanity and nature through ecological democracy and the Eucharist is proposed as the principal political resource Christianity offers for an ecological age Environment Glenn Adelson, James Engell, Kevin P. Van Anglen, Brent Ranalli, 2008-01-01 This major anthology is the first to apply a fully interdisciplinary approach to environmental studies A comprehensive guide to environmental literacy the book demonstrates how the sciences social sciences and humanities all contribute to understanding our interrelationships with the natural world Though not specialized Environment is a book that even specialists can learn from Ten innovative case studies climate shock species endangerment nuclear power biotechnology sustainable development deforestation environmental security globalization wilderness and the urban environment are followed by readings from specific disciplines These can be integrated with the case studies to shape individual interests and teaching strategies The volume presents an imaginative array of texts from scientific papers to poetry legal decisions to historical accounts personal essays to economic analysis Taken together these selections provide a balanced authoritative and up to date treatment of key issues in environmental studies The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self-appropriation to a Mystical-political Theology Ian B. Bell, 2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years. The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established. Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment's particularities, mystical experience is no longer relegated to so-called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love. With this connection in place, mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political. The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality Arthur Holder, 2011-04-27 The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality is a comprehensive single volume introduction to Christian spirituality and represents the most significant recent developments in the field. Offers a thoroughly interdisciplinary, broadly ecumenical and representative overview of the most significant recent developments in the field. Comprises essays combining rigorous academic scholarship with accessible and elegant writing. Reflects an understanding of the field as the study of the lived experience of Christian faith and discipleship. Provides material on biblical, historical and theological foundations along with treatment of contemporary issues. Border Studies Thomas M. Wilson, 2025-08-11 This multidisciplinary book provides a diverse overview of social science approaches to geopolitical borders, social boundaries and cultural frontiers. An array of esteemed specialists examine political imaginaries of border security and identify methodological innovations that will enhance future scholarly work in the field. They also discuss the multiplicity of borders with a view to addressing the question: how far have we come. The Green Bible Stephen Bede Scharper, 2002 The Green Bible seeks out the word of God for our diminished planet. Its sources range from the Hebrew and Christian scriptures to religious and political leaders, scientists and environmentalists today. Their voices bring home the urgent task we face to mend our household, which is Creation, and to inspire hope that life will continue and flourish for all Earth's beings. The Tao of Liberation Mark Hathaway, Leonardo Boff, 2009 Drawing on insights from quantum physics, deep ecology and the new cosmology, they articulate a new vision of liberating action. Hathaway and Boff lay out a path of spiritual renewal, ecological transformation and authentic liberation.
