Redemption And Utopia Jewish Libertarian Thought In Central Europe:

Redemption and Utopia Michael Löwy, 2017-03-28 Towards the end of the nineteenth century there appeared in Central Europe a generation of Jewish intellectuals whose work was to transform modern culture Drawing at once on the traditions of German Romanticism and Jewish messianism their thought was organized around the cabalistic idea of the tikkoun redemption Redemption and Utopia uses the concept of elective affinity to explain the surprising community of spirit that existed between redemptive messianic religious thought and the wide variety of radical secular utopian beliefs held by this important group of intellectuals The author outlines the circumstances that produced this unusual combination of religious and non religious thought and illuminates the common assumptions that united such seemingly disparate figures as Martin Buber Franz Kafka Walter Benjamin and Georg Lukcs Redemption and Utopia Michael Löwy, 1992 Towards the end of the nineteenth century there appeared in Central Europe a generation of Jewish intellectuals whose work was to mark modern culture Drawing at once on the traditions of German Romanticism and Jewish Messianism their thought was organized around the kabbalistic idea of Tikkoun redemption Redemption and Utopia uses the concept of elective affinity to explain the surprising community of spirit that existed between redemptive messianic religious thought and the wide variety of radical secular utopian beliefs held by this important group of intellectuals The author outlines the circumstances that produced this unusual combination of religious and non religious thought and illuminates the common assumptions that united such seemingly disparate figures as Martin Buber Kafka Walter Benjamin and Georg Lukacs Decolonial Judaism S. Slabodsky, 2014-07-02 Decolonial Judaism Triumphal Failures of Barbaric Thinking explores the relationship among geopolitics religion and social theory It argues that during the postcolonial and post Holocaust era Jewish thinkers in different parts of the world were influenced by Global South thought and mobilized this rich set of intellectual resources to confront the assimilation of normative Judaism by various incipient neo colonial powers By tracing the historical and conceptual lineage of this overlooked conversation this book explores not only its epistemological opportunities but also the internal contradictions that led to its ultimate unraveling especially in the post 9 11 world Men of Silk Glenn Dynner, 2008-12-30 Hasidism a kabbalah inspired movement founded by Israel Ba al Shem Tov c1700 1760 transformed Jewish communities across Eastern and East Central Europe In Men of Silk Glenn Dynner draws upon newly discovered Polish archival material and neglected Hebrew testimonies to illuminate Hasidism s dramatic ascendancy in the region of Central Poland during the early nineteenth century Dynner presents Hasidism as a socioreligious phenomenon that was shaped in crucial ways by its Polish context His social historical analysis dispels prevailing romantic notions about Hasidism Despite their folksy image the movement s charismatic leaders are revealed as astute populists who proved remarkably adept at securing elite patronage neutralizing powerful opponents and methodically co opting Jewish institutions The book also reveals the full spectrum of Hasidic devotees from humble shtetl dwellers to influential Warsaw entrepreneurs

Power/knowledge/pedagogy Dennis Carlson, 2018-03-05 The essays in this volume explore the educational implications of unsettling shifts in contemporary culture associated with postmodernism These shifts include the fragmentation of established power blocs the emergence of a politics of identity growing inequalities between the haves and the have nots in a new global economy and the rise in influence of popular culture in defining who we are In the academy postmodernism has been associated with the emergence of new theoretical perspectives that are unsettling the way we think about education These shifts the authors suggest are deeply contradictory and may lead in divergent political directions some of them quite dangerous Power Knowledge Pedagogy examines these issues with regard to four broad domains of educational inquiry state educational policy and curriculum reform student identity formation the curriculum as a text and critical pedagogy The book contributes to the dialogue on the forging of a new commonsense discourse on democratic educational renewal attuned to the changing times in which we live Salvation and Hell in Classical Islamic Thought Marco Demichelis, 2018-07-12

Salvation and Hell in Classical Islamic Thought uses classical Islamic sources to trace the development of Islamic eschatology during the formative centuries of Islamic intellectual history Marco Demichelis draws on classical Islamic scholars including Ibn Sina al Ghazali Ibn Taymiyya and Ibn Qayyim al Jawziyya to bring together concepts from Islamic philosophy theology and mysticism including proto Sufism to examine the interplay of these concepts between these traditions The doctrines of salvation from Hell are examined in depth in particular the theory of the annihilation of Hell which proposes the idea that there will be a time when Hell will be empty and no longer inhabited This is the first book to examine Islamic eschatology in the classical period and adds to the growing scholarship on Islamic views on salvation and the eternity of Hell It will be essential reading for scholars of Islamic intellectual history theology and comparative religion Skepsis and Antipolitics: The Alternative of Gustav Landauer, 2022-12-12

Gustav Landauer was an unconventional anarchist who aspired to a return to a communal life His antipolitical rejection of authoritarian assumptions is based on a radical linguistic scepticism that could be considered the theoretical premise of his anarchism The present volume aims to add to the existing scholarship on Landauer by shedding new light on his work focussing on the two interrelated notions of skepsis and antipolitics In a time marked by a deep doubt concerning modern politics Landauer's alternative can help us to more seriously address the struggle for a different articulation of our communitarian and ecological needs Religion and European Philosophy Philip Goodchild, Hollis Phelps, 2017-04-13

literary the Jews have retained a close association with the positive transformation of the world Across the past four centuries the Jewish Purpose Question has been central to the attempts of both Jews and non Jews to make sense of cultural particularity in relation to a wider vision of collective purpose in history The deep and intricate layering of this question demands careful attention as it remains extremely resonant in contemporary global politics and culture polarized universalistic and particularistic conceptions of Jewish purpose have become emblematic of the most fundamental divisions over the meaning of peoplehood and collective purpose for all of us Splinters in Your Eye Martin Jay,2020-07-14

Assessing the legacy of the Frankfurt School in the twenty first century Although successive generations of the Frankfurt School have attempted to adapt Critical Theory to new circumstances the work done by its founding members continues in the 21st century to unsettle conventional wisdom about culture society and politics Exploring unexamined episodes in the School s history and reading its work in unexpected ways these essays provide ample evidence of the abiding relevance of Horkheimer Adorno Benjamin Marcuse L wenthal and Kracauer in our troubled times Without forcing a unified argument they range over a wide variety of topics from the uncertain founding of the School to its mixed reception of psychoanalysis from Benjamin s ruminations on stamp collecting to the ironies in the reception of Marcuse s One Dimensional Man from L wenthal s role in Weimar s Jewish Renaissance to Horkheimer s involvement in the writing of the first history of the Frankfurt School Of special note are their responses to visual issues such as the emancipation of color in modern art the Jewish prohibition on images the relationship between cinema and the public sphere and the implications of a celebrated Family of Man photographic exhibition The collection ends with two essays tracing the still metastasizing demonization of the Frankfurt School by the so called Alt Right as the source of cultural Marxism and political correctness which has gained alarming international resonance and led to violence by radical right wing fanatics Nationalism, Zionism and Ethnic Mobilization of the Jews in 1900 and Beyond Michael Berkowitz,2004-02-01 This volume engages diverse topics such as art music and radio broadcasting in the development of modern Jewish nationalism by leading scholars in their respective fields It contains richly detailed studies that challenge existing historiography from personal struggles with nationalism to the lesser known origins of the Balfour Declaration from boisterous demonstrations on the streets of pre World War I Galicia to skirmishes between Jews in present day Jerusalem It examines how nationalism has worked in theory and practice for Jews and at times been fiercely resisted Beginning with the memory of Theodor Herzl and his cohort at the London Zionist Congress of 1900 this book revisits the wider scene of Zionism s emergence as we explore the imagination of and the attempted national mobilization of Jewry throughout the twentieth century Contributors include Delphine Bechtel Nachman Ben Yehuda Michael Berkowitz Inka Bertz Philip Bohlman John M Efron Richard A Freund Francois Guesnet Michael L wy Barbara Mann Derek Penslar James Renton Aviel Roshwald Joshua Shanes Archaeology of the Unconscious Alessandra Aloisi,Fabio Camilletti,2019-07-10 In reconstructing the birth and development of the notion of unconscious historians of ideas have heavily relied on the Freudian concept of Unbewussten retroactively projecting the psychoanalytic unconscious over a constellation of diverse cultural experiences taking place in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries between France and Germany Archaeology of the Unconscious aims to challenge this perspective by adopting an unusual and thought provoking viewpoint as the one offered by the Italian case from the 1770s to the immediate aftermath of WWI when Italo Svevo's La coscienza di Zeno provides Italy with the first example of a psychoanalytic novel Italy's vibrant culture of the long nineteenth century characterised by the sedimentation circulation intersection and synergy of different cultural philosophical and literary traditions proves itself to be a privileged object of inquiry for an archaeological study of the unconscious a study whose object is not the alleged origin of a pre made theoretical construct but rather the stratifications by which that specific construct was assembled In line with Michel Foucault's Archéologie du savoir 1969 this volume will analyze the formation and the circulation across different authors and texts of a network of ideas and discourses on interconnected themes including dreams memory recollection desire imagination fantasy madness creativity inspiration magnetism and somnambulism Alongside questioning pre given narratives of the history of the unconscious this book will employ the Italian difference as a powerful perspective from whence to address the undeveloped potentialities of the pre Freudian unconscious beyond uniquely psychoanalytical viewpoints Derrida's Marrano Passover Agata

Bielik-Robson, 2022-12-15 In this first ever monograph on Jacques Derrida's Toledo confession where he portrayed himself as sort of a Marrano of the French Catholic culture Agata Bielik Robson shows Derrida's marranism to be a literary experiment of auto fiction She looks at all possible aspects of Derrida's Marrano identification in order to demonstrate that it ultimately constitutes a trope of non identitarian evasion that permeates all his works just as Marranos cannot be characterized as either Jewish or Christian so is Derrida's universal Marranism an invitation to think philosophically politically and last but not least metaphysically without rigid categories of identity and belonging By concentrating on Derrida's deliberate choice of marranism Bielik Robson shows that it penetrates deep into the very core of his late thinking constantly drawing on the literary works of Kafka Celan Joyce Cixous and Valéry and throws a new light on his early works most of all Of Grammatology Dissemination and Differance She also offers a completely new interpretation of many of Derrida's works only seemingly non related to the Marrano issue like Glas Given Time Counterfeit Money Death Penalty Seminar and Specters of Marx In these new readings this book demonstrates that the Marrano Derrida is not a marginal auto biographical figure overshadowed by Derrida the Philosopher it is one and the same thinker who discovered marranism as a literary trope of openness offering up a new genre of philosophical story telling which centers around Derrida's Marrano auto fable Speaking to Our

Condition Anthony Winterbourne, 2000 As well as offering new insights into the way in which Wagner's intellectual debts are reflected in the ethical superstructure of the Ring the author suggests a provocative connection between the intervention of Siegfried into the action and a neglected corner of late nineteenth century post Kantian romantic messianic thought BOOK

Gordon, 2020-11-24 A beautifully written exploration of religion s role in a secular modern politics by an accomplished scholar of critical theory Migrants in the Profane takes its title from an intriguing remark by Theodor W Adorno in which he summarized the meaning of Walter Benjamin s image of a celebrated mechanical chess playing Turk and its hidden religious animus Nothing of theological content will persist without being transformed every content will have to put itself to the test of migrating in the realm of the secular the profane In this masterful book Peter Gordon reflects on Adorno s statement and asks an urgent question Can religion offer any normative resources for modern political life or does the appeal to religious concepts stand in conflict with the idea of modern politics as a domain free from religion s influence In answering this question he explores the work of three of the Frankfurt School's most esteemed thinkers Walter Benjamin Max Horkheimer and Theodor W Adorno His illuminating analysis offers a highly original account of the intertwined histories of religion and secular modernity
