Redemptions A Costa Rican Novel By Gagini:

Redemptions Carlos Gagini, 1985 First published in 1918 this is the first English translation and one of the few Central American novels available in English Set in and around San Jos during the first years of the twentieth century when the influence of the United States economic political military and cultural was intensifying rapidly Redemptions tells the story of the seduction and betrayal of a young Costa Rican woman and symbolically of her country and region by a North American entrepreneur In the same genre as novels and essays by Uruguayan Jos Enrique Rod and Mexican Jos Vasconcellos Redemptions is a work of cultural nationalism which urges Costa Ricans to value their autonomy to resist the encroachment of outside forces led by the ubiquitous for the region Uncle Sam and to recognize and solve their own problems Originally published in 1985 it appears now in a second printing trade paperback from the original publisher San Diego State University Press with the original translation and introduction by E Bradford Burns and a new afterword by the Costa Rican contemporary novelist and literature professor Daniel Quir s

Dividing the Isthmus Ana Patricia Rodríguez, 2009-08-17 In 1899 the United Fruit Company UFCO was officially incorporated in Boston Massachusetts beginning an era of economic diplomatic and military interventions in Central America This event marked the inception of the struggle for economic political and cultural autonomy in Central America as well as an era of homegrown inequities injustices and impunities to which Central Americans have responded in creative and critical ways This juncture also set the conditions for the creation of the Transisthmus a material cultural and symbolic site of vast intersections of people products and narratives Taking 1899 as her point of departure Ana Patricia Rodríguez offers a comprehensive comparative and meticulously researched book covering more than one hundred years between 1899 and 2007 of modern cultural and literary production and modern empire building in Central America She examines the grand narratives of anti imperialism revolution subalternity globalization impunity transnational migration and diaspora as well as other discursive historical and material configurations of the region beyond its geophysical and political confines Focusing in particular on how the material productions and symbolic tropes of cacao coffee indigo bananas canals waste and transmigrant labor have shaped the transisthmian cultural and literary imaginaries Rodríguez develops new methodological approaches for studying cultural production in Central America and its diasporas Monumental in scope and relentlessly impassioned this work offers new critical readings of Central American narratives and contributes to the growing field of Central American studies
