Foundations of Pastoral Counselling Neil Pembroke ,2017-04-30 Foundations of Pastoral Counselling offers a completely new approach to its subject through an integration of philosophical ideas theological thought and psychotherapeutic psychology Using the work of philosophers including Martin Buber Simone Weil and S ren Kierkegaard to begin the conversation in each chapter the author then draws on relevant theologians and psychotherapeutic thinkers to enrich the dialogue The result is a rich multi faceted and often surprising round table discussion about the fundamental issues in pastoral counselling Introduction 1 Part 1 Fundamental Attitudes and Skills 1 Respect for the Uniqueness of the Counsellee or Resisting the Totalizing Tendency 2 Empathy and the Body or the Quest for Participatory Sense Making 3 Deep Listening or Being Formed in the Discipline of Attention 4 Conditions for Genuine Dialogue or It s the Relationship that Heals 5 Relational Humanness and Relational Justice or Caring for Two Worlds Part 2 Fundamental Interventions and Strategies 6 Revising Faulty Thinking or a Socratic Approach to Healing Belief Sickness 7 Facilitating Self Challenge or Learning the Art of Indirection 8 Working with Counsellee Images or Exploring the Metaphors We Live By 9 Connecting with a Community of Hope or Pastoral Rituals that Shine a Light Concluding Reflection It s Also about Personal Spirituality

Practicing Faith Lisa Spriggins,Tim Meadowcroft,2022-05-17 The integration of theology and social vocation invites scholars and practitioners to reach outside their discipline and into relationship with others Out of these relationships new ways of enacting faith and informing practice can emerge This book brings together a collection of essays engaging with the integration of theology and social vocation Designed to reflect and invite dialogue these authors engage with the relationship between faith and practice as it is expressed in their own area of interest and speciality Arranged in five themed dialogues wellbeing formation hospitality therapy and theology each essay reflects the unique dynamics of its author s integrative process and offers something new to the ongoing conversation between theology and social vocation This set of essays will be of interest to practitioners and students concerned to infuse their faith with their practice of vocation to develop a practicing faith

The Passion-Driven Sermon James Shaddix,2003-05-01 Seasoned pastor and educator James L Shaddix presents a philosophical and theological argument for the practice of biblical exposition as the pastor s primary approach to preaching ministry in the local church Shaddix emphasizes listening for God's voice in the sermon God centered vs man centered preaching and or preaching for real life change

Practical Theology and Pierre-André Liégé Nicholas Bradbury, 2016-03-03 Pierre André Liégé one of the foremost French theologians of the 20th century influenced John XXIII and Paul VI and sat on Vatican II committees with both the future John Paul II and Benedict XVI Fifty years on from Vatican II is a good time to remember the decade of dramatic struggle and pioneering work that preceded it and review what it accomplished This book explores the life and work of Pierre André Liégé presenting it to an English speaking readership for the first time Discussing the impact and profound challenges Liégé's work raises for spirituality and church life today Bradbury tackles issues including the organisation of parish life rooted in theological criteria cradle to grave corporate Christian formation a compelling vision of what the church is for and why and how should this be expressed in practice Bradbury argues that for faith to match real life the church today needs to let go of much baggage align its talk to its action and radically re-examine the question of what the church needs to do to conform to the Gospel This book takes critical issues confronting practical theology and the church breaking them open in a lively and accessible style

Personhood and Presence Ewan Kelly, 2012-03-08 The greatest asset which people in pastoral care offer in a caring relationship is themselves or to be more precise the aspects of self which they have reflected upon Offering oneself to other people in order to provide companionship along the road of life especially when the particular stage on the journey is one of anticipated or actual loss is an act which is both challenging and yet potentially life enhancing for a carer The purpose of this book is to offer an aid to those who seek to understand themselves better with a view to enhancing the quality of spiritual and pastoral care they offer Here the reference point for reflexivity is the caring relationship Yet as we are fundamentally the same beings in personal and professional relationships readers may also find stimulus to reflect on what they bring to a variety of relationships including that with the Sacred and indeed themselves

Resilient Pastors Justine Allain-Chapman, 2013-01-23 How can I help others to be strengthened during difficulties in life How can I cope when I'm overwhelmed with the demands of helping others Pastors including clergy need to be able to provide the right kind of circumstances teaching and care to enable people to face crisis and come through difficulties stronger as human beings and as Christians They also need the quality of resilience to be involved in Christian ministry Justine Allain Chapman's thoughtful book draws on the stories and themes of Christian theology and tradition on contemporary research into resilience and the insights of psychology to help people make sense of the personal costs of pastoral care This book is an important resource for pastors written to help them recognize the dynamics of developing their own resilience as well as enabling them to strengthen others It is an essential guide to understanding how what is preached and taught in churches prepares people for life's difficulties

Changing Worlds Robin Gill, 2002-09-15 Churches everywhere are experiencing change In his thought provoking book Professor Robin Gill identifies the main challenges facing the church and reflects on how Christians should respond He first studies the immense moral challenges of our rapidly changing world religion and the environment the arms trade including reflection on the global situation since the attack on New York on 11 September 2001 media ethics and the Lambeth Conference and sexual ethics The second part focuses on the changing patterns of churchgoing and addresses anxieties about churchgoing decline in the West which run parallel with claims about rapid church growth elsewhere The third part looks at changes in theological education The author argues for greater honesty in the church and for a judicious use of both theology and sociology which would equip Christians to face the enormous challenges of our world today The New Guidebook for Pastors James W. Bryant, Mac Brunson, 2007-06-01 Church leaders young and old will find professional advice and inspirations worth revisiting time and again throughout their ministry career in The New Guidebook for Pastors
