Redistribution Or Recognition A Political Philosophical Exchange:

Redistribution Or Recognition? Nancy Fraser, Axel Honneth, 2003 A debate between two philosophers who hold different views on the relation of redistribution to recognition

Justice of Marxism Zhang Xiaomeng, 2023-10-11 This book analyzes Marxian theories of justice within the context of contemporary political philosophy and intellectual history Transcending perspectives from classical Marxism the author analyzes how Western Marxism has engaged with critically and responded to the theories of justice especially since the 1970s The nine chapters cover major intellectual movements and multi dimensional frameworks of thought that critique and understand anew the idea of justice including anglophone debates on Marxism and justice global distributive justice and viewpoints from analytical Marxism radical egalitarianism the Frankfurt School Marxian feminism and ecological Marxism The second part of the book returns to the classical texts of Marxism with a focus on historical materialism and a critique of capitalism to reinterpret basic tenets of justice in Marxism and to reconstruct Marxian theory of justice This title will be of value to scholars and students interested in theories of justice Marxian philosophy and political philosophy

The Politics of Misrecognition Majid Yar, 2016-02-24 The past several decades have seen the emergence of a vigorous ongoing debate about the politics of recognition The initial impetus was provided by the reflections of Charles Taylor and others about the rights to cultural recognition of historically marginalized groups in Western societies Since then the parameters of the debate have considerably broadened However while debates about the politics of recognition have yielded significant theoretical insights into recognition its logical and necessary counterpart misrecognition has been relatively neglected The Politics of Misrecognition is the most meticulous reflection to date on the importance of misrecognition for the understandings of our political and personal experience A team of leading experts from a range of disciplines including philosophy political theory sociology psychoanalysis history moral economy and criminology present different theoretical frameworks in which the politics of misrecognition may be understood They apply these frameworks to a wide variety of contexts including those of class identity disability slavery criminal victimization and domestic abuse In this way the book provides an essential resource for anyone interested in the dynamics of misrecognition and their implications for the development of political and social theory

The Oxford Handbook of Political Theory John S Dryzek, Bonnie Honig, Anne Phillips, 2008-06-12 Long recognized as one of the main branches of political science political theory has in recent years burgeoned in many different directions Close textual analysis of historical texts sits alongside more analytical work on the nature and normative grounds of political values Continental and post modern influences jostle with ones from economics history sociology and the law Feminist concerns with embodiment make us look at old problems in new ways and challenges of new technologies open whole new vistas for political theory This Handbook provides comprehensive and critical coverage of the lively and contested field of political theory and will help set the agenda for the field for years to come Forty five chapters by distinguished political theorists look at the state of the field where it has been in the recent past and where it is likely to go in future They examine political theory's edges as well as its core the globalizing context of the field and the challenges presented by social economic and technological changes In From the Margins ,2006-01-01 This book focuses at the margins of adult education work and civil society Rather than focusing on active participants and active participation the objective is to scrutinize the whole adult population in terms of participation and to pay special attention to those who are so easily left out of studies concerning adult education learning at work or active participation in civil society The aim of the book is to bring into the discussion the views of those who do not find attending adult education possible and who thus form a challenge for the promotion of active citizenship In the collection of articles researchers from various disciplines and with cross disciplinary interests in adult education and marginalisation meet and discuss with each other within and beyond their own disciplines Constructing Marxist Ethics ,2015-02-04 Does Marxism possess an ethical impulse Is there a moral foundation that underpins the Marxist critique of capitalism and the vision for social progress The essays collected in Constructing Marxist Ethics Critique Normativity Praxis argue that there is such an ethical grounding for Marxist theory The essays each from different vantage points construct what a Marxian ethics should look like what kind of values should be at the heart of the Marxian enterprise Contributors are Dan Albanese Paul Blackledge Bob Cannon Tony Burns Ian Fraser Ruth Groff Wadood Hamad Christoph Henning Peter Hudis Lauren Langman George E McCarthy Sean Sayers Michael J Thompson and Lawrence Wilde The 'Postmodern Turn' in the Social Sciences Simon Susen,2015-07-23 Simon Susen examines the impact of the postmodern turn on the contemporary social sciences On the basis of an innovative five dimensional approach this study provides a systematic comprehensive and critical account of the legacy of the postmodern turn notably in terms of its continuing relevance in the twenty first century Habermas and Giddens on Praxis and Modernity Craig Browne,2017-01-02 In Habermas and Giddens on Praxis and Modernity Craig Browne investigates how two of the most important and influential contemporary social theorists have sought to develop the modernist visions of the constitution of society through the autonomous actions of subjects Comparing Habermas's and Giddens's conceptions of the constitution of society interpretations of the social structural impediments to subjects autonomy and attempts to delineate potentials for progressive social change within contemporary society Browne draws on his own work which has extended aspects of the social theorists approach to modernity Despite the criticisms developed over the course of the book Habermas and Giddens are found to be two of the most important theorists of democratization and social democracy the dynamics of capitalist modernity and their paradoxes social practices and reflexivity and the foundations of social theory in the problem of the relationship of social action and social structure The Right against Rights in Latin America Leigh A. Payne,Julia Zulver,Simón Escoffier,2023-03-02 The book examines a new wave of anti rights movements in Latin America devoted to blocking rolling back and reversing the rights of historically excluded groups Critique and Resistance in a Neoliberal Age Charles Masquelier,2017-02-08 This book lays the conceptual groundwork for a coalition of struggles under the neoliberal age In doing so the author demonstrates that despite talk of fragmentation divisions and conflicts the present situation offers fresh opportunities for connecting diverse solidarities Critique and Resistance in a Neoliberal Age explores what connects individuals not only between neoliberal conditions of economic cultural and environmental domination but also in resistance It also highlights the transformative power of human action by grounding neoliberal processes in human action and demonstrating the relevance of and opportunities for emancipatory politics today Offering a critique oriented towards social change informed by a broad range of theoretical traditions and empirical research the book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of sociology politics and philosophy as well as those interested in the possibilities for social change
