Skogen,2025-11 From 1900 to 1909 Indian school educators gathered at annual meetings of the National Educational Association s Department of Indian Education The papers they delivered were later published in the Journal of Proceedings and Addresses of the National Educational Association but strict guidelines often meant they were heavily edited before publication In this second volume of Department of Indian Education papers Larry C Skogen presents selected complete papers from the years 1905 to 1909 and provides historical context During this period educators promoted the belief that Natives could never be fully integrated into white society and argued instead for vocational and practical education near or on reservations a clear break from earlier years when prominent Indian school administrators advocated education far removed from Native communities Indian school educators at these annual meetings also shared their methods with other educational thinkers and practitioners who were seeking alternative pedagogies as new immigrants arrived in U S cities and challenges arose from new island territories These selected writings reveal how the NEA influenced Indian school educators and how those educators in turn affected mainstream educational thinking The Angler's Guide Wainwright Randall,1909 The Outdoorsman's Handbook (formerly The Angler's Guide) Wainwright Randall,Reuben Johnson Held,Edward Baldwin Rice,Warren Hastings Miller,1909 Colonial Proximities Renisa Mawani,2010-01-01 Real and imagined encounters among Aboriginal peoples European colonists Chinese migrants and mixed race populations produced racial anxieties that underwrote crossracial contacts in the salmon canneries the illicit liquor trade and the white slavery scare in late nineteenth and early twentieth century British Columbia Colonial Proximities explores the legal and spatial strategies of rule deployed by Indian agents missionaries and legal authorities who aspired to restrict crossracial encounters By connecting genealogies of aboriginal European contact with those of Chinese migration this book reveals that territorial dispossession and Chinese exclusion were never distinct projects but two conjunctive processes in the making of the settler regime Drawing on archival documents and historical records Colonial Proximities historicizes current discussions of multiculturalism and pluralism in modern settler societies by revealing how crossracial interactions in one colonial contact zone inspired juridical racial truths and forms of governance that continue to linger in contemporary racial politics It is essential reading for students and practitioners of history anthropology sociology colonial postcolonial studies and critical race and legal studies Military Law Review ,1985
