Reenvisioning Theological Education Exploring A Missional Alternative To Current Models:

Reenvisioning Theological Education Robert Banks, 1999 A top leadership theorist offers a compelling proposal for renovating the way religious education is practiced today Christian colleges and seminaries have not been immune from the cultural influences shaping contemporary education Challenging the conventional wisdom advanced by the educational debate during the last fifteen years Robert Banks builds an innovative new model of theological education based on how ministry formation took place in biblical times Banks takes full account of key issues raised by our current educational context and shows how a missional model of education is more holistic inclusive and practical than recent versions The Missional Church and Leadership Formation Craig Van Gelder, 2009-10-23 In this volume the third book in the Missional Church series eminent missional church expert Craig Van Gelder continues to track and contribute to the expanding missional church conversation inviting today's brightest minds in the field to speak to key questions concerning church leadership Towards Vital Wholeness in Theological Education Jessy Jaison, 2017-08-14 God's interest in the entirety of our existence and the details of his creation is quite rightly lauded by professing Christians including those involved in theological education But what impact does this biblical truth have on the way in which theological education is conducted Critics are increasingly bringing attention to the shortcomings of theological education in this regard In this thorough examination of the issue of holistic practices throughout the operations of theological institutions Dr Jessy Jaison provides sage and actionable solutions where others have merely observed systemic weaknesses Jaison has applied her expertise and experience of twenty five years in theological education in India to dissect the issues diagnose the symptoms and prescribe a way forward that will lead to stronger leaders practicing healthier ministry in God's Kingdom for those who have ears to hear Theological Education Andrew M. Bain, Ian Hussey, 2018-01-08 This volume draws upon historical and theological sources and empirical research to provide a unique and diverse perspective on theological education in the twenty first century The volume develops and promulgates the best thinking about theological education by drawing upon the breadth of expertise represented by the faculty of colleges within the Australian College of Theology This volume not only produces crucial insights for the future of theological education around the world but gives the Australian theological sector a voice to make its own unique contribution to the global dialogue about theological education Reimagining Christian Education Johannes M. Luetz, Tony Dowden, Beverley Norsworthy, 2018-07-04 This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education comprising works by leading scholars professionals and practitioners from around the globe It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field tested and practice approved It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management theology of business Christian models of teaching in different contexts job preparedness developing different interpretive or meaning making frameworks for working with social justice people with disability non profit community organisations and in developing country contexts It offers graduate students teachers school administrators organisational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life long learning Transforming Theological Education, 2nd Edition Perry Shaw, 2022-01-31 For several decades concern has been expressed about the need for greater integration and contextual significance in the curricular design of theological education In addition there has been a growing awareness of the role theological schools should play in strengthening the missional vision and practice of local churches Drawing on Dr Perry Shaw s experience as faculty member educational engineer and acting academic dean for Arab Baptist Theological Seminary Transforming Theological Education provides theoretical foundations and practical principles for purposeful curriculum design as well as tools for facilitating integrated and contextually significant learning in the classroom This updated second edition has been reorganized for thematic clarity and expanded to provide a stronger foundation for thinking theologically rather than just educationally about theological education It also contains a wider range of curricular examples from innovative theological programs around the world along with practical advice for implementing change in change resistant environments This handbook continues to be a one of a kind resource for theological educators and all those involved in Christian leadership training Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood, 2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

Canonical Theism William Abraham, Jason E. Vickers, Natalie B. Van Kirk, 2008-02-18 The bold thesis of Canonical Theism is that the good and life giving Holy Spirit has equipped the church not only with a canon of scripture but also with an abundant canonical heritage of materials persons and practices However much of the latter has been ignored or cast aside The authors call for the retrieval and redeployment of the full range of this rich legacy Voices from across the spectrum here chart that mine of opportunity and invite the entire church to explore the benefits of their discoveries Ambitious in its scope and agenda Canonical Theism offers insights that will enable the readers to discover anew the faith that has nourished converts created saints and upheld martyrs across the years Contributors William J Abraham Frederick D Aquino Paul L Gavrilyuk Charles Gutenson Douglas M Koskela Mark E Powell Frederick W Schmidt Horace Six Means Natalie B Van Kirk Jason E Vickers David F Watson Diversified Theological Education F.
