A Scholar's Guide to Getting Published in English Mary Jane Curry,Theresa Lillis,2013-11-25 In many locations around the globe scholars are coming under increasing pressure to publish in English in addition to other languages However research has shown that proficiency in English is not always the key to success in English medium publishing This guide aims to help scholars explore the larger social practices politics networks and resources involved in academic publishing and to encourage scholars to consider how they wish to take part in these practices as well as to engage in current debates about them Based on 10 years of research in academic writing and publishing practices this guide will be invaluable both to individuals looking for information and support in publishing and to those working to support others publishing activities

Literacy Autobiographies from the Global South Shizhou Yang,2022-12-30 Drawing on autoethnographic research on literacy autobiographies from a Chinese EFL writing context this book provides unique insights into literacy voice translingualism and critical pedagogy from a Global South perspective The book presents literacy autobiographies as a cultural tool for analyzing and refashioning learners and teachers sense of self in ever expanding dialogical spaces In addition to highlighting teachers own stories around autoethnographies and translanguaging it showcases literacy autobiographies from Chinese students themselves The book theorizes the Global South as an ontological positioning that challenges colonial mindsets and practices concerning literacy language learning and narratives It argues that literacy autobiographies from a Global South perspective can be reimagined as critical pedagogy for EFL writing teaching and learning as well as teacher development Validating and expanding student voices by presenting these literacy autobiographies this book will be of great interest to researchers and students in the fields of TESOL applied linguistics English language teaching second language writing and literacy studies

Graduate Studies in Second Language Writing Kyle McIntosh,Carolina Pelaez-Morales,2015-08-15 Authors in this proposed collection approach issues like academic literacy socialization and professionalization from their individual positions as mentors and mentees involved with graduate study in the field of second language L2 writing

Color, Race, and English Language Teaching Andy Curtis,Mary Romney,2019-08-07 The unique contribution of this book is to bring together Critical Race Theory and narrative inquiry and apply them specifically to a largely overlooked area of experience within the field of TESOL What does it mean to be a TESOL professional of color To address this question TESOL professionals of color from all over the world representing a wide range of racial ethnic and cultural backgrounds offer accounts of their own experiences responding to two related questions Can you identify critical events or conditions in your personal or professional life that are the result of you being a person of color that affect who you are now and what you do as a TESOL professional of color What have you learned from these events or conditions that have had a bearing on your life as a TESOL professional of color Color Race and English Language Teaching Shades of Meaning is intended for researchers professionals and students in the field of English language teaching The book is designed as a text for MATESOL programs and courses that deal with issues of language culture and teaching The introduction presents a brief overview of relevant aspects of Critical Race Theory narrative inquiry and educational research Focus questions for each chapter are included to help readers apply aspects of the narratives to their own experience

Demystifying Career Paths after Graduate School Ryuko Kubota,Yilin Sun,2013-01-01 This edited book offers concrete information and useful suggestions to graduate students who are seeking employment at institutions of higher education in North America and other parts of the world This book also targets entry level faculty members who are exploring increased participation in professional activities The book features critical turning points in career trajectories demystifies hidden institutional structures and illuminates blind spots that are critical for career success The authors are scholars from nonnative English speaking and or racially minority backgrounds in the fields of applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages The firsthand suggestions offered by these authors are also applicable to non minority professionals and those in other related disciplines Furthermore the book assists faculty mentors and administrators to understand the unique challenges and issues faced by minority professionals Distinctive features of the book are 1 theme based approach with concrete examples and specific advice 2 focus on victory narratives of success and strategies rather than victim narratives of struggles 3 accessible style and 4 wide range of experiences narrated by both novice and established scholars This guidebook can be read independently or adopted as a resource book for graduate seminars Risk in Academic Writing Lucia Thesen,Linda Cooper,2013-11-15 This book brings together a variety of voices students and teachers journal editors and authors writers from the global north and south to interrogate the notion of risk as it applies to the production of academic writing Risk taking is viewed as a productive force in teaching learning and writing and one that can be used to challenge the silences and erasures inherent in academic tradition and convention Widening participation and the internationalisation of higher education make questions of language register agency and identity in postgraduate writing all the more pressing and this book offers a powerful argument against the further reinforcement of a northern Anglophone understanding of knowledge and its production and dissemination This volume will provide food for thought for postgraduate students and their supervisors everywhere
