Reflections Pro Of 150 Women Who Helped Make Western Australia's History:

Reflections Daphne Popham, 1978 Trailblazing Women of Australian Public Broadcasting, 1945-1975 Kylie Andrews, 2022-07-05 Trailblazing women of Australian Public Broadcasting 1945-1975 offers a compelling new perspective of Australian radio and television history. It chronicles how a group of female producers defied the odds and forged remarkable careers in the traditionally male domain of public affairs production at the ABC in the post-war decades. Kay Kinane, Catherine King, Theresa Denny and Joyce Belfrage were ambitious and resourceful producers, part of the vanguard of Australian broadcasters who used mass media as a vehicle for their social and political activism. Fiercely dedicated to their audiences, they wrote, directed and produced ground-breaking documentaries and current affairs programs that celebrated Australian life while also challenging its cultural complacency, its racism and sexism. They immersed themselves in the ABC's many networks of collaboration and initiated a range of strategies to expand their agency and authority. With vivid descriptions of life at the ABC, it traces their careers as they crossed borders and crossed mediums, following them as they worked on location shoots and in production offices in television studios, control rooms and radio booths. In doing so, it highlights the barriers, both official and unofficial, that confronted so many women working in broadcasting after World War II.

Women in Western Australian History Patricia M. Crawford, 1983 The Magnificent Life of Miss May Holman: Australia's First Female Labor Parliamentarian Leckie Hopkins, 2016-01-01 Throughout the 1930s, May Holman was a household name and an inspiration to the women of her generation. She made history in 1925 when, at age thirty-one, she became Australia's first female Labor parliamentarian, holding the seat of Forrest until her untimely death on the eve of the 1939 elections. A woman who fought tirelessly for the rights of those in her electorate, her accidental death received national coverage, with thousands of Western Australian mourners lining the streets to pay tribute. May Holman charted new territory for women, but the barriers she encountered and her methods of overcoming them still resonate today. Liberal Women Margaret FitzHerbert, 2004 In 2004, Liberal Women was shortlisted for the NSW Premier's History Awards. When Menzies formed the modern Liberal Party out of the squabbling rabble of the UAP in 1944, he had to cede to the women's organisations formal representation and real power. Liberal Women is the story of why. It is a tale of strong, vocal, persistent women who carried the liberal flame across Australia in the first half of the 20th century, while the men split and merged and talked and merged and split again. It is the story of women who grasped the implications of the female suffrage that followed Federation in a way that no others did: winning elections meant winning the female vote, and delivering the female vote gave political power. The Liberal women formed some of the most effective political organisations in the country. Liberal Women is the first detailed account of these women as political pioneers, as power brokers and factional warriors, as candidates for office and as members of parliament. Relying on extensive primary research, much of it previously unpublished, Margaret Fitzherbert describes their political organisations and activity amidst a wealth of biographical detail on women such as Enid

Lyons Elizabeth Couchman Ivy Deakin Lady Margaret Forrest and Irene Longman Sisters in Peace Kate Laing, 2023-11-03 Is preparing for war the best means of preserving peace In Sisters in Peace Kate Laing contends that this question has never been solely the concern of politicians and strategists She maps successive generations of twentieth century women who were eager to engage in political debate even though legislative and cultural barriers worked to exclude their voices In 1915 during the First World War the Women s International Congress at The Hague was convened after alarmed and bereaved women from both sides of the conflict insisted that their opinions on war and the pathway to peace be heard From this gathering emerged the Women s International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF which to this day campaigns against militarism and nuclear weapons In Australia the formation of a section of WILPF connected political women to a worldwide network that sustained their anti war activism throughout the last century In examining the rise of WILPF in Australia Sisters in Peace provides a gendered history of this country s engagement with the politics of internationalism This is a history of WILPF women who committed to peace activism even as Australia s national identity and military allegiances shifted over time a history that has until now been an overlooked part of the Australian peace movement

Child Sexual Abuse Reported by Adult Survivors Sinéad Ring,Kate Gleeson,Kim Stevenson,2022-04-28 Child Sexual Abuse Reported by Adult Survivors is a wide ranging and timely critical history and analysis of legal responses to historical or non recent child sexual abuse NRCSA in England and Wales Ireland and Australia each of which represents an evolving and progressive approach to this important and complex issue The book examines the emergence of NRCSA as a distinctive social political and legal phenomenon in each country and explores the legal responses developed to address its unprecedented challenges Courts and parliaments in each country have reformed existing doctrine and practice and have created new ways of holding state and private actors accountable and new ways of addressing survivors injuries Criminal law tort law public inquiries and state reparations have all been to the forefront of these new legal responses which have transformed law s engagement with NRCSA survivors and understandings of justice itself However despite this undeniable progress the book identifies ways in which the legal responses developed in each country fail to deliver accountability and recognition to NRCSA survivors and argues that such failures betray the law s inherent ambivalence to delivering justice for these survivors Creating new insights into legal responses to this complex contemporary legal social and political problem this book will be of great interest to academic lawyers political scientists and historians as well as those working on related topics in criminology sociology social policy cultural studies and gender studies State and Religion Renae Barker,2018-09-03 With its increasingly secular and religiously diverse population Australia faces many challenges in determining how the state and religion should interact Australia is not unique in facing these challenges States worldwide including common law countries with shared legal and religious heritages have also been faced with the question of how the state and religion should relate to one another Countries such as the United Kingdom Canada New Zealand and the United States have all had to grapple with how to manage the state religion relationship in the present day This book provides a comprehensive historical review of the interaction of the state and religion in Australia It brings together multiple examples of areas in which the state and religion interact and reviews these examples across Australia s history from settlement through to present day The book sets this story within a wider theoretical context via an examination of theories of state religion relationships as well as a comparison with other similar common law jurisdictions The book demonstrates how the solutions arrived at in Australia is uniquely Australian owing to Australia s unique legal system religious demographics and history However this is just one possible outcome among many that have been tried in common law liberal democracies
