Reflections From Canoe Country:

Reflections from Canoe Country Christopher Angus, 1999 Reflections from Canoe Country Christopher Angus, 1997-04-01 When Christopher Angus and two friends were canoeing a stretch of the Grass River in the Adirondacks in 1986 they were cited by the Department of Environmental Conservation for trespassing on the timberlands of the Champion Paper Company Amazed to find that the law protects corporate rather than environmental interests in a publicly owned state park Angus joined the decades long battle to reopen Adirondack waterways In this collection Angus a columnist and lifelong resident of the Adirondack region writes with the discerning eye of a poet and the ear of a political commentator He treats the reader to descriptions of his many canoeing experiences and to his thoughts on environmental protection As Paul Jamieson writes in the Foreword Reading these short pieces in rhythmic sequence is like riding the waves in a kayak off the Nova Scotia coast Angus s strong ties to Canada s maritime provinces and to the St Lawrence River expand the focus of the book to include the larger Northeastern wilderness It is here he maintains in the most densely populated region of North America that we will finally learn whether man can coexist with the natural world Canoe Country Reflections Larry Rice, 1993 On Foot in Canoe Country Nicholas J. Faber, 1998 Canoe Country Roy MacGregor, 2016-05-10 One of our favourite chroniclers of all things Canadian presents a rollicking personal photo filled history of the relationship between a country and its canoes From the earliest explorers on the Columbia River in BC or the Mattawa in Ontario to a doomed expedition of voyageurs up the Nile to rescue Khartoum from the author s family roots deep in the Algonquin wilderness to modern families who have canoed across the country kids and dogs included Canoe Country is Roy MacGregor s celebration of the essential and enduring love affair Canadians have with our first and still favourite means of getting around Famous paddlers have been so enchanted with the canoe that one swore God made Canada as the perfect country in which to paddle it Drawing on MacGregor s own decades spent whenever possible with a paddle in his hand this is a story of high adventure on white water and the sweetest peace in nature s quietest corners from the author best able and most eager to tell it

Rooted in Rock Jim Gould, 2001-06-01 In the past twenty years the Adirondacks have inspired a resident population of writers who have gained regional and national prominence using the Adirondack region as their primary setting and subject matter or at least as a significant point of departure Rooted in Rock is the first collection of its kind in more than twenty years since Paul Jamieson s Adirondack Reader What makes the volume unique though is the number of contributors who not only make the Adirondacks their subject but who make their homes in these mountains The works in this volume include contemporary essays literary nonfiction poetry short fiction and excerpted fiction and are a mix of new and previously published writings by forty three authors established as well as emerging including Bill McKibben Sue Halpern Russell Banks Alex Schoumatoff Chase Twichell Curt Stager Amy Godine and Jim Gould to name a few Flypaper Chris Angus, 2014-09-02 Ebola Coronavirus and SARS have frightened the world How would we fight a deadly disease that comes from beyond planet Earth When a 2 000 year old mummy is unearthed in central China investigators from all over the world fly in to Washington DC for a top secret meeting hoping to find an answer to its mysterious genetic anomalies But the scientists may have mistakenly released a new deadly disease of extraterrestrial origins in the process of examining the genetic markers of the ancient mummy The devastating human error causes a worldwide plague one that penetrates the barriers of the human immune system Sino expert Eric Logan and archaeologist Dr Marcia Kessler lead an expedition back to the icy glaciers of China to extract a much older 20 000 year old mummy which could help them formulate a cure Even as they embark on their mission the strange illness afflicts the people around them turning men into mindless monsters The team retreats to a remote Buddhist monastery and must hold off a vicious army of victims As they wrestle with the possibility that they may be the last living humans on earth someone finds an ancient burial object that may hold the key to ending the apocalyptic epidemic Skyhorse Publishing under our Night Shade and Talos imprints is proud to publish a broad range of titles for readers interested in science fiction space opera time travel hard SF alien invasion near future dystopia fantasy grimdark sword and sorcery contemporary urban fantasy steampunk alternative history and horror zombies vampires and the occult and supernatural and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller a national bestseller or a Hugo or Nebula award winner we are committed to publishing quality books from a diverse group of authors
