Reflections Of Messiah Contemporary Advent Meditations Inspired By Handel:

Reflections of Messiah Jim Melchiorre, 2003 Journalist Jim Melchiorre began listening to a recording of Handel's oratorio Messiah as a way to avoid being swept away by consumerism at Christmas. He found familiar music and text a source of comfort and inspiration, a way to find solace in the midst of much seasonal busyness. He also read the scriptures on which the great oratorio is based. He came to fresh understandings of the prophetic mission of the Christ. In short meditations for all the days of Advent plus Christmas Day, Melchiorre reflects a passionate understanding of Jesus. Each day's meditation is based on a portion of scripture included in Handel's Messiah. The meditations call attention to the prophetic understanding of Christianity. Melchiorre invites us to comfort the old, the weak, the marginalized. He reminds us of the relevance of the statement: The work of the Messiah always has and always will be to comfort the afflicted and to afflict the comfortable. Using the words of the prophet Isaiah, Melchiorre reminds us that the Messiah will exalt every valley, bring every mountain low, straighten the crooked paths and smooth over the rough roads. Expecting the Unexpected Blair Gilmer Meeks, 2006. A high unemployment rate, tensions and wars around the world, soaring gas prices, job stress. Are today's anxieties shrinking your Christmas spirit, your sense of joy, your purpose, your song? This Advent, expect the unexpected. Reconnect with the Christmas story, the arrival of Christ's biblical message of hope and healing for this world. Expecting the Unexpected is a spiritual feast for the mind and imagination. Use it each day of the four-week Advent season. Open it and find vivid day-by-day biblical images and reflections on Jesus' life and message, small group discussion themes and prayers, a featured weekly Christmas hymn by Charles Wesley whose lyrics "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing" and others witness to a faith of gusto and courage. I often wonder how we can decorate our tree, haul out the nativity set, sing "Away in a Manger" once or twice, pack it all away again, and think we have celebrated Christmas adequately, writes Meeks. The season holds so much more for us. God's work through Jesus Christ only begins in the manger. Our joy in God's gift of Jesus to us should be part of our lives every day. With Meeks as your companion and guide, reclaim excitement and refreshment. Expect Christ's reign in your life today.

Flewelling, 2025-01-13. These meditations take a verse from one of the lectionary texts not chosen for preaching for a given service and offer a devotional reflection on the verse, often using the context of the entire pericope as prescribed in the Revised Common Lectionary for context as needed. I try to make the meditations worth the while of my readers, having found a fairly broad readership among the congregations I served through the years. This book covers the years 2020 through 2024.
