Reformation in the church and in our personal lives The Leader Guide contains everything needed to guide a group through the six week study including session plans activities and discussion questions as well as multiple format options The Reformation's Light Theodore Beza, John Calvin, John Knox, Hugh Latimer, 2007-10-09 The writings of the Reformers demonstrate the marrow and the blessing of the Reformation In this volume are a series of encouraging writings written by four Reformation giants Beza Latimer Calvin and Knox theological powerhouses that have lifted their pens time after time so that you the reader may be able to glean something important from God's mouth These able men have penned some of the most important literature ever written and contained herein are some of the most heavenly pieces they have given to exhort you to a higher understanding of Jesus Christ His Church His discipline and His salvation New Worlds, Lost Worlds Susan Brigden, 2002-09-24 No period in British history has more resonance and mystery today than the sixteenth century New Worlds Lost Worlds brings the atmosphere and events of this great epoch to life Exploring the underlying religious motivations for the savage violence and turbulence of the period from Henry VIII's break with Rome to the overwhelming threat of the Spanish Armada Susan Brigden investigates the actions and influences of such near mythical figures as Elizabeth I Thomas More Bloody Mary and Sir Walter Raleigh Authoritative and accessible New Worlds Lost Worlds the latest in the Penguin History of Britain series provides a superb introduction to one of the most important compelling and intriguing periods in the history of the Western world Nostalgia in the Early Modern World Harriet Lyon, Alexandra Walsham, 2023 How can the concept of nostalgia illuminate the culturally specific ways in which societies understand the contested relationship between the past present and future The word nostalgia was invented in the late seventeenth century to describe the debilitating effects of homesickness Now widely defined as a sense of longing for a lost past initially it was more closely linked with dislocation in space By exploring some of its many textual visual and musical manifestations in the tumultuous period between c 1350 and 1800 this volume resists the assumption that nostalgia is a distinctive by product of modernity It also forges a fruitful link between three lively areas of current scholarly enquiry memory temporality and emotion The contributors deploy nostalgia as a tool for investigating perceptions of the passage of time and historical change unsettling experiences of migration and geographical displacement and the connections between remembering and forgetting affect and imagination Ranging across Europe and the Atlantic world they examine the moments sites and communities in which it arose alongside how it was used to express both criticism and regret about the religious political social and cultural upheavals that shaped the early modern world They approach it as a complex mixed feeling that opens a new window into individual subjectivities and collective mentalities The Division of Christendom Hans Joachim Hillerbrand, 2007-01-01 In The Division of Christendom revered historian Hans J Hillerbrand details the events and ideas of the sixteenth century and contends that the Protestant Reformation must be seen as an interplay of religious political and economic forces in which religion played a major role Hillerbrand tells the fascinating story of the ways in which theological disagreements divided the centuries old Christian church and the roles that leading characters such as Luther Zwingli Anabaptists and Calvin played in establishing new churches even as Roman Catholicism continued to develop in its own ways The book covers all significant aspects of this period and interprets these important events in their own context while reflecting on the consequences of the Reformation for later periods and for today
