Reformed Faith And Economics:

Reformed Faith and Economics Robert L. Stivers, 1989 Churches in the Reformed tradition have historically sought to bring the gospel of Jesus Christ into dialogue with social institutions on ethical issues These papers on economic justice seek to bring this dialogue into the late 20th century by relating the Bible and Reformed theology to contemporary problems These thirteen essays share a distinctly Reformed Presbyterian perspective and stress the contributions of John Calvin and a long line of Reformed witnesses on contemporary issues Sections include Introduction Reformed Faith and Economic Justice Part I Biblical Perspectives Part II The Reformed Tradition on Economic Justice Part III Contemporary Policy Issues Part IV Church Responses Co published with the Presbyterian Church USA

Economic Shalom John Bolt, 2013-11-01 This Reformed Christian primer on work and faith champions the glory of God in all of life's endeavors by tracing four key themes of economics in Christian confession and commitment and examining markers for human flourishing in the real world of economics commerce and markets With scholarly passion and pastoral wisdom tempered by the insight of economists John Bolt presents a winsome case for how God uses the market economy to meet human needs Written to raise questions and invite further discussion Bolt offers a robust Reformed perspective on stewardship property capital and morality From this he explores a variety of issues including the human need for liberty the challenge of consumerism concerns about fairness and justice and evangelicalism's mixed history in applying Christian compassion in politics and economics What stands in the way of the human quest for improvement How does the reality of sin affect the degree to which we can achieve economic shalom today And despite every good intention how do we avoid the horrific track record of failed utopias that have spilled oceans of blood and created mountains of misery Read learn and respond as Bolt leads a rousing Reformed discussion of faith work and economics

God and Business Robert R. Richards, 2002

Religious Ethics in the Market Economy Karl G. Jechoutek, 2018-04-03 This book aims to go beyond merely confrontational or complementary treatments of the relationship between market participation and business ethics Reviewing the attitudes towards the market embedded in religious ethics and scholars it explores the symbiotic relationship between the economy ethics and morals Moving the discussion beyond a static and traditional economy envisaged by scripture it explores the impact of an evolving and globalised economy based on the value systems of moral philosophy and religious ethics The Author aims to expand the conventional view of business ethics encouraging readers to interpret markets and morality as intertwined concepts and use them to inform further research

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

exists in relation to and interacts with its cultural environment in a number of ways In this volume authors from a wide variety of backgrounds explore various facets of the relationship and interaction of Christianity with its cultural environment politics society esthetics religion and spirituality and with itself Divided into three main sections Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture looks at the interaction of Christianity with culture in the first section with other religions and spiritualities in the second and finally with itself in the third The contributions engage in a critical examination of not only the culture in which Christianity finds itself but also in a critical examination of Christianity itself and its interaction with that culture The editors hope that teachers students and readers in general will profit greatly from the critical articles contained in this book

Between Two Rivers Ronald H. Stone, 2015-07-16 Between Two Rivers chronicles the life of noted scholar of religion politics and philosophy Ronald H Stone From his childhood between the East and West banks of the Des Moines River through graduate work in New York between the Hudson and the East Rivers through his scholarly career and retirement in Pittsburgh between the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers the book highlights Stone's focus on Christian social ethics and his prolific writing in the area The book includes unique insights into some of the renowned scholars Stone worked with closely including Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich and it discusses Stone's scholarship on the relationship between religion and politics

The Market Economy and Christian Ethics Peter H. Sedgwick, 1999-10-07 Peter Sedgwick explores the relation of a theology of justice to that of human identity in the context of the market economy and engages with critics of capitalism and the market He examines three aspects of the market economy first how does it shape personal identity through consumption and the experience of paid employment in relation to the work ethic Second what impact does the global economy have on local cultures Finally as manufacturing changes out of all recognition through the impact of technology and global competition what is the effect in terms of poverty Drawing on the response of the Catholic Church both in the United States and in papal encyclicals to the market economy from 1985 1991 Sedgwick argues that its involvement deserves to be better known Moreover he recommends that the Churches remain part of the debate in reforming and humanizing the market economy

International Handbook of Ecumenical Diakonia Godwin Ampony, Martin Büscher, Beate Hofmann, 2021-08-10 This book was developed to join key resources on biblical theological foundations regional and confessional expressions new themes trends educational approaches and curriculum models for diakonia and Christian social services which can enrich current training courses and widen the horizon by inter contextual and inter cultural perspectives

Economics of Faith Esther Chung-Kim, 2021 Economics of Faith addresses the multiple ways that leaders of the European Reformation sought to inspire new attitudes toward poverty and wealth to reform the institutions of poor relief and to create new organizations for aiding religious refugees Guided by biblical ideals and values religious reformers became some of the major contributors in the effort to address poverty one of the most vexing social problem in early modern Europe By examining the connections between religion politics and community it highlights the crucial role that religion had in the promotion of social responsibility and the development of social welfare systems

Reforming the Morality of Usury David W. Jones, 2004 In the early years of the sixteenth century the Church experienced a dramatic shift in its moral perception of the practice of usury Leaders of the continental Protestant Reformation Lutheran Calvinist and Anabaptist all grappled with the Roman Catholic Church's moral teaching on the practice of lending money at interest Although these three theological streams addressed the same moral problem at relatively the same time they each responded differently Reforming the Morality of Usury examines how the leaders of each major stream in the continental Protestant Reformation adopted a different approach to reforming moral teaching on the practice of usury

Poverty in the Theology of John Calvin Bonnie L. Pattison, 2006-11-01 It is the thesis of this study that in Calvin's theology poverty and affliction not splendor and glory mark and manifest the kingdom of God on earth Poverty makes the kingdom visible to the eyes and therefore recognizable as divine Poverty acts to reveal or disclose that which is spiritual or that which is of God in the Christian faith This does not mean that Calvin sees the condition of physical poverty as revelatory in and of itself Rather poverty and affliction function as agents of divine revelation They are a condition or a chosen instrument God uses to disclose to humanity the nature of true spirituality godliness and poverty of spirit How this is demonstrated in Calvin's thought depends upon the specific doctrine under examination This study explores three particular areas in Calvin's theology where his theological understanding of spiritual poverty and physical poverty or affliction intersect his Christology his doctrine of the Christian life and his ecclesiology

The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside. The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity. Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC. Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards, Horace Bushnell, and Lawrence Richards. Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC. Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions, and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence. Chapter 6, Whither the AAEC, concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty-first century.

Spirit of Liberality George Newlands, 2017-03-31. Written between 2005 and 2014, George Newlands's essays span a wide array of subjects from Christology and the doctrine of God to human rights and Christian spirituality. Coming from within the liberal tradition of theology, these essays were written and delivered in a variety of contexts from colleges to churches on both sides of the Atlantic. In Spirit of Liberality, Newlands displays his own brand of theology marked by its kindness and erudition in his approach to the vastness of human experience.

Simpler Living, Compassionate Life Michael Schut, 2009-07. On its ten-year anniversary of publication, we are pleased to re-issue this popular title. Editor Michael Schut presents a rare collection of voices: Henri Nouwen, Cecile Andrews, Richard Foster, and others, as they explore our use of money, the practice of simplicity, listening to our lives, widening our circle of community, and other topics at the core of how we live out our faith in our homes and workplaces. A study guide is included.

Christian Economic Ethics Daniel K. Finn, 2013-08-01. What does the history of Christian views of economic life mean for economic life in the twenty-first century? Here Daniel Finn reviews the insights provided by a large number of texts from the Bible and the early church to the Middle Ages and the Protestant Reformation to treatments of the subject in the last century. Relying on both social science and theology, Finn then turns to the implications of this history for economic life today. Throughout the book, he invites the reader to engage the sources and to develop an answer to the volume's basic question.

Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters, 2011-07-01. A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings. Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula, but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive. Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry, but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting. Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love, justice, community, and reconciliation, among others, engage the issues of economics, education, family life, public health, ethnic relations, and religious life in the urban environment. Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God's activity, Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same God at Work David W. Miller,2007 In the 1980s Miller shows a complex set of independent developments gave rise to what is known as the Faith At Work movement He analyses the history of the movement examines membership profiles and modes of expression and constructs and proposes a new framework for discussing the movement The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone,2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president s followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr s writing on politics and in Barack Obama s use of the theologian s thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich s critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author s critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead s philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy
