Advocacy Leadership Gary L. Anderson,2009-05-01 In this timely and important new book Gary Anderson provides a devastating critique of why a managerial role for educational leaders is counterproductive especially for improving opportunities for low income students and students of color and instead proposes ways of re theorizing educational leadership to emphasize its advocacy role Advocacy Leadership lays out a post reform agenda that moves beyond the neo liberal competition framework to define a new accountability a new pedagogy and a new leadership role definition Drawing on personal narrative discourse analysis and interdisciplinary scholarship Anderson delivers a compelling argument for the need to move away from current inauthentic and inequitable approaches to school reform in order to jump start a conversation about an alternative vision of education today

Nitta, 2008-01-07 Education policymaking is traditionally seen as a domestic political process The job of deciding where students will be educated what they will be taught who will teach them and how it will be paid for clearly rests with some mix of district state and national policymakers This book seeks to show how global trends have produced similar changes to very different educational systems in the United States and Japan Despite different historical development social norms and institutional structures the U S and Japanese education systems have been restructured over the past dozen years not just incrementally but in ways that have transformed traditional power arrangements Based on 124 interviews this book examines two restructuring episodes in U S education and two restructuring episodes in Japanese education The four episodes reveal a similar politics of structural education reform that is driven by symbolic action and bureaucratic turf wars which has ultimately hindered educational improvement in both countries How to Be Heard Celine Coggins, 2017-07-10 THE BOOK FOR EVERY TEACHER WHO HAS EVER BEEN FRUSTRATED BY THE DECISIONS MADE OUTSIDE THEIR SCHOOL THAT AFFECT THE STUDENTS INSIDE THEIR SCHOOL How to Be Heard offers every teacher 10 ways to successfully amplify his or her voice and demonstrates that when teachers voices are heard they will be rightfully recognized and supported as change leaders in their schools Celine Coggins a renowned teacher advocate offers nuts and bolts strategies that are recognized as the price of admission to becoming a credible and welcomed participant in important policy conversations and decisions The author clearly demonstrates that it is not only possible for teachers to initiate change but to also effectively participate on the policy playing field In ten clear chapters the author demonstrates how teachers can and must advocate for their students and their profession Throughout this book Coggins proves that If you re not at the table you re on the menu This how to guide is filled with concrete ideas for engaging in productive decision making using real world examples from teachers who have successfully used these strategies 2014 International Conference on Advanced Education and Management (ICAEM2014) , 2014-02-13 The ICAEM2014 aims to bring together researchers educators and students from around the world in both industry and academia for sharing the state of art research results and applications for exploring new areas of research and development and for discussing emerging issues on education and management fields We received a total of 312 submissions from various parts of the world The Technical Program Committee worked very hard to have all papers reviewed before the review deadline The final technical program consists of 92 papers There are one keynote speech and 2 invited sessions The proceedings were published by DEStech Publications Inc and will be submitted to Ei Compendex databases for indexing We would like to mention that due to the limitation of the conference venue capacity we are not able to include many fine papers in the technical program Our apology goes to those authors Planning Education Reforms in Developing Countries Dennis A.
