Regeneration Eye In The Door Ghost Road:

The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma Meera Atkinson, 2017-07-27 The first decades of the twenty first century have been beset by troubling social realities coalition warfare global terrorism and financial crisis climate change epidemics of family violence violence toward women addiction neo colonialism continuing racial and religious conflict While traumas involving large scale or historical violence are widely represented in trauma theory familial trauma is still largely considered a private matter associated with personal failure This book contributes to the emerging field of feminist trauma theory by bringing focus to works that contest this tendency offering new understandings of the significance of the literary testimony and its relationship to broader society The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma adopts an interdisciplinary approach in examining how the literary testimony of familial transgenerational trauma with its affective and relational contagion illuminates transmissive cycles of trauma that have consequences across cultures and generations It offers bold and insightful readings of works that explore those consequences in story Alison Bechdel's Fun Home A Family Tragicomic 2006 Hélène Cixous's Hyperdream 2009 Marguerite Duras's The Lover 1992 Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy 1999 and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria 2006 and The Swan Book 2013 concluding that such testimony constitutes a fundamentally feminist experiment and encounter The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma challenges the casting of familial trauma in ahistorical terms and affirms both trauma and writing as social forces of political import

The Dictator's Dictation Robert Boyers, 2005-10-26 In these elegant essays many of them originally written for The New Republic and Harper's Robert Boyers examines the role of the political imagination in shaping the works of such important contemporary writers as W G Sebald and Philip Roth Nadine Gordimer and Mario Vargas Llosa Natalia Ginzburg and Pat Barker J M Coetzee and John Updike V S Naipaul and Anita Desai Occasionally he finds that politics actually figures very little in works that only pretend to be interested in politics Elsewhere he discovers that certain writers are not equal to the political issues they take on or that their work is fatally compromised by complacency or wishful thinking In the main though Boyers writes as a lover of great literature who wishes to understand how the best writers do justice to their own political obsessions without suggesting that everything is reducible to politics Resisting the notion that novels can be effectively translated into ideas or positions he resists as well the notion that art and politics must be held apart lest works of fiction somehow be contaminated by their association with real life or public issues The essays offer a combination of close reading argument and assessment What Boyers asks is the relationship between form and substance in a work whose formal properties are particularly striking Is it reasonable to think of a particular writer as reactionary merely because he presents an unflattering portrait of revolutionary activists or because he is less than optimistic about the future of newly independent societies What is the status of private life in works set in politically tumultuous times Can the novelist be responsible if he consistently refuses to engage the conditions that affect even the intimate lives of his characters Such questions inform these essays which strive to be true to the essential spirit of the works they discuss and to interrogate as sympathetically as possible the imagination of writers who negotiate the unstable relationships between society and the individual art and ideas

Traumatic Affect Meera Atkinson, Michael Richardson, 2013-08-19 Traumatic Affect examines the intersection of trauma theory and affect theory two areas of crucial relevance to contemporary thought While both fields continue to offer insights into individual and collective experience exploring their nexus offers timely and necessary critiques of film literature art culture and politics This collection of essays by established and emerging thinkers considers the dynamic relations within and between affect and trauma Varied in style and approach this volume asks how the relational subject conceived by affect theory might bring into question certain presuppositions common to trauma theory and how the ethical imperatives of trauma might require a rethinking of aspects of affect theory Thus the contributors reimagine the unrepresentability of trauma reveal its affective economies and chart innovative understandings of experiences embodiments and events From the silence into which Walter Benjamin fell after the suicide of his closest friend to the trauma of becoming the emblematic media figure of the London bombings Traumatic Affect traverses diverse terrain gesture and the everyday cinema and torture art and writing civility and specters media representation and Indigenous Australian film Featuring essays by Shoshana Felman Karyn Ball Jennifer L Biddle Anna Gibbs Ben O Loughlin Anne Rutherford Magdalena Zolkos Aaron Kerner Ricardo Mbarkho Jonathan L Knapp Michael Richardson and Meera Atkinson Traumatic Affect ventures into bold new territories at the juncture between trauma and affect illuminating pressing realities that demand engagement Critical Perspectives on Pat Barker Sharon Monteith, 2005 These essays cover the work and career of Pat Barker providing insight into her novels from Union Street 1982 through the Regeneration trilogy 1991-95 to Double Vision 2003 The essays are organized into Writing Working Class Women Dialogue under Pressure Men at War The Talking Cure and Regenerating the Wasteland The Indian Clerk David Leavitt, 2009-08-17 The extraordinary true story of the discovery of one of history's greatest mathematicians in rural India His life is the subject of the major film The Man Who Knew Infinity Excellent His Hardy is a superb creation Sunday Telegraph A loving exploration of one of the greatest collaborations of the past century The Indian Clerk is a novel that brilliantly orchestrates questions of colonialism sexual identity and the nature of genius Manil Suri January 1913 Cambridge G H Hardy eccentric charismatic and considered the greatest British mathematician of
