Outdoors in the Southwest Andrew Gulliford, 2014-04-18 More college students than ever are majoring in Outdoor Recreation Outdoor Education or Adventure Education but fewer and fewer Americans spend any time in thoughtful respectful engagement with wilderness While many young people may think of adrenaline laced extreme sports as prime outdoor activities with Outdoors in the Southwest Andrew Gulliford seeks to promote appreciation for and discussion of the wild landscapes where those sports are played Advocating an outdoor ethic based on curiosity cooperation humility and ecological literacy this essay collection features selections by renowned southwestern writers including Terry Tempest Williams Edward Abbey Craig Childs and Barbara Kingsolver as well as scholars experienced guides and river rats Essays explain the necessity of nature in the digital age recount rafting adventures and reflect on the psychological effects of expeditions True life cautionary tales tell of encounters with nearly disastrous flash floods 900 foot falls and lightning strikes The final chapter describes the work of

Great Old Broads for Wilderness the Colorado Fourteeners Initiative and other exemplars of wilderness tithing giving back to public lands through volunteering stewardship and eco advocacy Addressing the evolution of public land policy the meaning of wilderness and the importance of environmental protection this collection serves as an intellectual guidebook not just for students but for travelers and anyone curious about the changing landscape of the West

Rapture River Robert Edward Smith, 2024-11-08 Rapture River Robert Edward Smith's first novel tracks the relationship of two lovers who are as unpredictable as Michigan's weather Josh a Catholic priest and Joyce a Native American meet at St Peter The Fisherman Catholic Church on the banks of the Black River a premier brook trout stream for fly fishing Each embraces their own spiritual heritage but struggles with an inner sensual demon They must prove strong enough to bridge that spiritual gap and assuage his guilt and her anguish over their coupling Their relationship is facilitated by Josh's 89 year old fly fishing mentor Ted and his Labrador Retriever Molly The Black River is the mainstream in their story but the novel is not mainstream The River and wilderness are presented as seen through the eyes of Joyce and Josh whose emotional attachment to their environs pulls the reader into their quest The author describes the wrenching action they encounter with captivating prose as this example when they are in the middle of the river in their waders For a long time they were alone until startled by a swish and loud flapping A hawk angled down directly above and dove with its wings held tight piercing the water like an arrow and disappearing under the surface then bursting up in a gush of spray with a large trout hooked in its talons The trout thrashed about fiercely slapping the river with its tail splashing a shower of water The hawk twisting to shake off the droplets let out a shrill scream and hovered momentarily just above water pounding its drenched wings and rising the trout clamped in its black claws The novel slips into fantasy fable and the enchantment of nature A murder a gambling casino a mission church of serpent handlers and accidental oil spills steal into the story seamlessly The author deftly manipulates these genres He inserts the thoughts of his characters through italicized stream of consciousness paragraphs and introduces each by a black silhouette image of an animal which represents that character as a butterfly or a hawk rendering the novel more reader friendly The novel fits into the little publicized genre of slipstream probably exemplified best by the writings of Jorge Luis Borges But there is no slipstream section at our current bookstores Even the main character the River is unpredictable sometimes harsh yet comforting even obedient Through a Kangaroo Court a medium of last resort the author deftly convinces his readers that this is the only fair trial available for the guilty party His readers will be intrigued and drawn into the story as if it were true Rapture River is a Romance a Murder Mystery an escapist Fable but above all a magical quest for fulfillment in our strange times

Disaster Falls Stéphane Gerson, 2017-01-24 A haunting chronicle of what endures when the world we know is swept away On a day like any other on a rafting trip down Utah's Green River Stéphane Gerson's eight year old son Owen drowned in a spot known as Disaster Falls That night as darkness fell Stéphane huddled in a tent with his wife Alison and their older son Julian trying to understand what seemed inconceivable It's just the three of us now Alison said over the sounds of a light rain and nearby the rushing river We cannot do it alone We have to stick together Disaster Falls chronicles the aftermath of that day and their shared determination to stay true to Alison's resolution At the heart of the book is an unflinching portrait of a marriage tested Husband and wife grieve in radically different ways that threaten to isolate each of them in their post-Owen worlds He feels so far St. Phane says when Alison shows him a selfie Owen had taken He feels so close she says With beautiful specificity St. Phane shows how they resist that isolation and reconfigure their marriage from within As St. Phane navigates his grief the memoir expands to explore how society reacts to the death of a child He depicts the good death of his father which reveals an altogether different perspective on mortality He excavates the history of the Green River rife with hazards not mentioned in the rafting company's brochures He explores how stories can both memorialize and obscure a person's life and how they can rescue us Disaster Falls is a powerful account of a life cleaved in two raw truthful and unexpectedly consoling
