The River of Life Bernard Seeman, 1962 The Cultural Politics of Blood, 1500-1900 Kimberly Anne Coles, Ralph Bauer, Zita Nunes, Carla L. Peterson, 2015-01-26 The essays of this collection explore how ideas about blood in science and literature have supported at various points in history and in various places in the circum Atlantic world fantasies of human embodiment and human difference that serve to naturalize existing hierarchies Drawing Blood Keith Wailoo, 2002-10-15 How physicians in this century wielded medical technology to define disease carve out medical specialties and shape political agendas Winner of the American Public Health Association Arthur Viseltear Prize In Drawing Blood medical historian Keith Wailoo uses the story of blood diseases to explain how physicians in this century wielded medical technology to define disease carve out medical specialties and shape political agendas As Wailoo s account makes clear the seemingly straightforward process of identifying disease is invariably influenced by personal professional and social factors and as a result produces not only clarity and precision but also bias and outright error Drawing Blood reveals the ways in which physicians and patients as well as the diseases themselves are simultaneously shaping and being shaped by technology medical professionalization and society at large This thought provoking cultural history of disease medicine and technology offers an important perspective for current discussions of HIV and AIDS genetic blood testing prostate specific antigen and other important issues in an age of technological medicine Makes clear that the high stakes involved in medical technology are not just financial but moral and far reaching They have been harnessed to describe clinical phenomena and to reflect social and cultural realities that influence not only medical treatment but self identity power and authority Susan E Lederer H Net Humanities Social Sciences On Line Wailoo s masterful study of hematology and its disease discourse is a model of interdisciplinarity combining cultural analysis social history and the history of medical ideas and technology to produce a complex narrative of disease definition diagnosis and treatment He reminds us that medical technology is a neutral artifact of history It can be and has been used to clarify and to cloud the understanding of disease and it has the potential both to constrain and to emancipate its subjects Regina Morantz Sanchez Journal of Interdisciplinary History "Bula" Man-River Kiang P Lee, 2013-03-06 The parable of the Bula man river is the story of the miraculous life God promises man from the beginning By creating man in His own likeness He forever placed man on a path of living the miraculous life He is divine and we are mortal and whenever the two intersect miracles happen As humans it s impossible for man to experience the glory of God s divine Being so he experiences miracles the divine spark Miracles are foretastes of man s future in the glorious presence of God It s a life of unimaginable awe inspiring wonder both now and future From the beginning Adam and Eve experienced this miraculous life firsthand God lovingly and miraculously planted them a garden home which had all the resources for their survival and happiness God did not point to a jungle and charged Adam with planting a garden himself No God planted it with His own hands This miraculous life was man s destiny from the start and continues to this day The whole earth hanging in the blackness of space is the larger Edenic home we all share as co inhabitants of it But man fails to respond with gratitude to dress and keep it Lost in the jungle of his own narcissistic self man seeks for life s answers which only the BULA man river can supply For those who change into the likeness of God s love God leads them to a new Eden This is where the miraculous life is lived as naturally as breathing This is what this book is about miracles It begins with the life of the BULA man river He is the product of God s love It begins with love gifts from the Father which form the substance of the three dimensional life of the BULA man river the Miracle Man Read about the two wonderful love gifts of the Father
