Setting The Table Women In Theological Conversation

Stephen Sprinkle

Setting The Table Women In Theological Conversation:

Setting the Table Rita Nakashima Brock, Claudia V. Camp, Serene Jones, 1995 Once upon a time woman theologian was something of a contradiction in terms No more This collection of essays offers a dynamic look at the emerging consciousness of feminist theology how it has grown and how it is creating a new vision for the church Chalice Introduction to

Disciples Theology Peter Heltzel, 2008 Feminist and Womanist Essays in Reformed Dogmatics Amy Plantinga

Pauw, Serene Jones, 2006-04-17 This book is a collection of essays by thirteen feminist and womanist authors who locate themselves within the Reformed tradition Topics explored include the Trinity creation election atonement the church fear resistance and vocation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students interested in feminist theology The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place Building a

Protestant Left Mark Hulsether, 1999 He follows the twists and turns of this story from Niebuhr's Christian realist positions of the 1940s through Protestant participation in the complex social movements of the 1950s and 1960s to the emergence of various liberation theologies African American feminist Latin American and others that used C C as a central arena of debate in the 1970s and 1980s The Religious Imagination of American Women Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1999-10-22

Explores five ideas that animate the theological imagination of women in religious communities throughout America ambivalence toward tradition the immanence or indwelling of the divine the sacredness of the ordinary and the ordinariness of the sacred the vision of the universe as a web of relationships and healing as a central function of religion back cover

Disciples and Theology Stephen Sprinkle, 1999 Although the Christian Church Disciples of Christ has consciously avoided formal creeds Disciples have through their history formulated their thought in distinctive theological ways

Ordination: Celebrating the Gift of Min , Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology William James Abraham, 2002 Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology provides an original and important narrative on the significance of canon in the Christian tradition Standard accounts of canon reduce canon to scripture and treat scripture as a criterion of truth Scripture is then related in positive or negative ways to tradition reason and experience Such projects involve a misreading of the meaning and content of canon they locate the canonical heritage of the church within epistemology and Abraham charts the fatal consequences of this move from the Fathers to modern feminist theology In the process he shows that the central epistemological concerns of the Enlightenment have Christian origins and echoes He also shows that the crucial developments of theology from the Reformation onwards involve extraordinary efforts to fix the foundations of faith This trajectory is now exhausted theologically and spiritually Hence the door is opened for a recovery of the full canonical heritage of the early church and for fresh work on the epistemology of theology Setting the Agenda Roberta

Hamilton,2002-01-01 The biography of Jean Royce Registrar of Queen s University for thrity five years provides a close look at the development and politics of a major Canadian university Transforming Exclusion Hannah Bacon,Wayne Morris,2011-06-23 Transforming Exclusion is concerned with the interface between the study of religion theology and issues surrounding exclusion Religious beliefs can be important in shaping attitudes that can lead to the exploitation or marginalization of both humans and non humans At the same time religious beliefs and practices have much to offer in transforming the world creating a more equitable place for all who occupy it At other times the voices of members of religious communities are suppressed and marginalized by other more dominant religious or secular individuals or communities This book addresses all of these aspects of social exclusion and aims to demonstrate that the study of theology and religion in addressing religious communities and society more widely have important contributions to make in creating a more just world The issue of exclusion is engaged with from a range of different perspectives by scholars involved in fieldwork with religious communities systematic contextual and practical theologians and practitioners involved in the preparation of individuals and groups for a range of ministries and professions The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson,Sheila Briggs,2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee,2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world s leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing The Stone-Campbell Movement D. Newell Williams,Douglas Allen Foster,Paul M. Blowers,2013-03-30 The Stone Campbell Movement A Global History tells the story of Christians from around the globe and across time who have sought to witness faithfully to the gospel of reconciliation Transcending theological differences by drawing from all the major streams of the movement this foundational book documents the movement s humble beginnings on the American frontier and growth into international churches of the twenty first century Encounter ,1997 The Pentecostal Gender Paradox Joseph Lee Dutko,2023-11-16 The distinct subjects of eschatology and gender equality have seen an explosion of interest in recent decades particularly within Pentecostal scholarship Pentecostalism is regarded ideally as both an eschatological and egalitarian movement However many Pentecostals have lamented the inconsistency between the early egalitarian impulse of the movement and its current restrictive practices This situation has been described as the so called Pentecostal gender paradox referring to the conflicting freedoms and limitations experienced by Pentecostal women Pentecostals have also recognized the waning eschatological fervor within the movement and its shifting eschatological convictions leading to calls to rediscover the eschatological heart of the movement Despite the renewed interest in both eschatology and women's equality little research has been done to put these two areas into conversation with each other eschatological convictions are often absent in the debate on gender roles in the church For Pentecostals eschatology has often been about urgency in saving souls rather than attending to social issues but could Pentecostal eschatology be the key to re-discovering greater equality for women in the church Is the waning of both eschatology and women's equality within Pentecostalism potentially interrelated For over one hundred years the role of women in Pentecostalism has been debated without a firm consensus By examining gender solely through an eschatological lens in history Scripture and praxis this work provides a valuable and creative contribution to one of the most important theological and global issues of our time women's equality This book is also one of the first comprehensive studies to approach a single social issue solely through an eschatological lens and to provide attention to developing a thorough and methodologically connected eschatological praxis By uncovering the unified eschatological egalitarian narrative thread within both the Pentecostal and biblical story this work suggests that the present end of women's inequality begins with fidelity to the future eschaton of gender equality

Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion

Saved from Silence Mary Donovan Turner, Mary Lin Hudson, 2014-04-30 In this postmodern age women preachers are finding their voice a distinctive way of proclamation This book looks at the metaphor of voice how women are moving to voice from silence and how individuals can make themselves heard by those who don't want to hear

Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women s Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology Christology from the Margins Thomas Bohache,2008 Provides a comprehensive queer discussion of Christology concluding with the view of Christ s person and work from a queer perspective Suitable for undergraduate study Feminist Theologies Rosemary Radford Ruether,2007-01-01 A brief and informed survey of women s studies in religion Highlights the emergence of contextual feminist theologies Contributors are the leading theologians in their field
