Settling A Dispute Towards A Legal Anthropology Of Late Antique Egypt:

Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University Egypt in the Byzantine World, 300-700 Roger S. Bagnall, 2007-08-16 A comprehensive portrayal of Egypt from the fourth to the seventh centuries The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt's monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late antiquity A Companion to Greco-Roman and Late Antique Egypt Katelijn Vandorpe, 2019-03-19 An authoritative and multidisciplinary Companion to Egypt during the Greco Roman and Late Antique period With contributions from noted authorities in the field A Companion to Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt offers a comprehensive resource that covers almost 1000 years of Egyptian history starting with the liberation of Egypt from Persian rule by Alexander the Great in 332 BC and ending in AD 642 when Arab rule started in the Nile country The Companion takes a largely sociological perspective and includes a section on life portraits at the end of each part The theme of identity in a multicultural environment and a chapter on the quality of life of Egypt's inhabitants clearly illustrate this objective The authors put the emphasis on the changes that occurred in the Greco Roman and Late Antique periods as illustrated by such topics as Traditional religious life challenged Governing a country with a past between tradition and innovation and Creative minds in theory and praxis This important resource Discusses how Egypt became part of a globalizing world in Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine times Explores notable innovations by the Ptolemies and Romans Puts the focus on the longue duree development Offers a thematic and multidisciplinary approach to the subject bringing together scholars of different disciplines Contains life portraits in which various aspects and themes of people's daily life in Egypt are discussed Written for academics and students of the Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt period this Companion offers a guide that is useful for students in the areas of Hellenistic Roman Byzantine and New Testament studies Women and Society in Greek and Roman Egypt Jane Rowlandson, Roger S. Bagnall, 1998-11-26 The period of Egyptian history from its rule by the Macedonian Ptolemaic dynasty to its incorporation into the Roman and Byzantine empires has left a wealth of evidence for the lives of ordinary men and women. Texts often personal letters written on papyrus and other materials, objects of everyday use and funerary portraits have survived from the Graeco-Roman period of Egyptian history. But much of this unparalleled resource has been available only to specialists because of the difficulty of reading and interpreting it. Now eleven leading scholars in this field have collaborated to make available to students and other non-specialists a selection of over three hundred texts translated from Greek and Egyptian as well as more than fifty illustrations documenting the lives of women within this society from queens to priestesses, property owners to slave girls from birth through motherhood to death. Each item is accompanied by full explanatory notes and bibliographical references.

Hellenistic and Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, 2024-12-11 This second collection by Roger Bagnall brings together a further two dozen of his studies, this time covering Hellenistic, Roman and Byzantine Egypt, published over the last thirty years. Many of the articles deal with issues of historical and papyrological method, the restoration of papyrus texts, the direction of archaeological work in Egypt, economic models for Roman Egypt, the usefulness of postcolonial theory and approaches to the defective literary tradition for the Library of Alexandria. Others concentrate on particular bodies of evidence ranging from inscriptions to ascetic literature, from registers to women's letters.

New Frontiers Paul J. du Plessis, 2014-03-17 An interdisciplinary edited collection on social science methodologies for approaching Roman legal sources. Roman law as a field of study is rapidly evolving to reflect new perspectives and approaches in research. Scholars who work on the subject are interested in the following areas:

International Commercial Arbitration Gary B. Born, 2014-10-01 The second edition of Gary Born's International Commercial Arbitration is an authoritative 4,408-page treatise in three volumes providing the most comprehensive commentary and analysis on all aspects of the international commercial arbitration process that is available. The first edition of International Commercial Arbitration is widely acknowledged as the preeminent commentary in the field. It was awarded the 2011 Certificate of Merit by the American Society of International Law and was voted the International Dispute Resolution Book of the Year by the Oil, Gas, Mining and Infrastructure Dispute Management listserve in 2010. The first edition has been extensively cited in national court decisions and arbitral awards around the world. The treatise comprehensively examines the law and practice of contemporary international commercial arbitration, thoroughly explicating all relevant international conventions, national arbitration statutes and institutional arbitration rules. It focuses on both international instruments, particularly the New York Convention and national law provisions in all leading jurisdictions, including the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration. Practitioners, academics, clients, institutions and other users of international commercial arbitration will find clear and authoritative guidance in this work. The second edition of International Commercial Arbitration has been extensively revised, expanded and updated to include all material legislative, judicial and arbitral authorities in the field of international arbitration prior to January 2014 It also includes expanded treatment of annulment recognition of awards counsel ethics arbitrator independence and impartiality and applicable law Overview of volumes Volume I covering International Arbitration Agreements provides a comprehensive discussion of international commercial arbitration agreements It includes chapters dealing with the legal framework for enforcing international arbitration agreements the separability presumption choice of law formation and validity nonarbitrability competence competence and the allocation of jurisdictional competence the effects of arbitration agreements interpretation and non signatory issues Volume II covering International Arbitration Procedures provides a detailed discussion of international arbitral procedures It includes chapters dealing with the legal framework for international arbitral proceedings the selection challenge and replacement of arbitrators the rights and duties of international arbitrators selection of the arbitral seat arbitration procedures disclosure and discovery provisional measures consolidation joinder and intervention choice of substantive law confidentiality and legal representation and standards of professional conduct Volume III dealing with International Arbitral Awards provides a detailed discussion of the issues arising from international arbitration awards It includes chapters covering the form and contents of awards the correction interpretation and supplementation of awards the annulment and confirmation of awards the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and issues of preclusion lis pendens and stare decisis      Petitions, Litigation, and Social Control in Roman Egypt Benjamin Kelly, 2011-10-13 This book examines the contribution that petitioning and litigation made to the maintenance of the social order in Roman Egypt between 30 BC and AD 284 Through the analysis of the many hundreds of documents surviving on papyrus especially petitions reports of court proceedings and letters Kelly focuses on how the legal system achieved its formal goals that is the resolution of disputes through judgments and discusses in detail the contribution made by the litigation process to informal methods of social control With particular emphasis on the roles that this process played in the transmission of political ideologies in the maintenance of family solidarity and in the fostering of private mechanisms of dispute resolution the book argues that although the legal system was less than successful when judged by its formal aims it did have a real social impact by contributing indirectly to some of the informal mechanisms that ensured order in this province of the Roman Empire However arguing that on occasion one can also see petitioning and litigation being abused for the pursuit of feud and vengeance Kelly also recognizes that the social impacts of petitioning and litigation were multifaceted and in some senses even contradictory      From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt Maged S. A. Mikhail, 2014-08-25 The conquest of Egypt by Islamic armies under the command of Amr ibn al As in the seventh century transformed medieval Egyptian society Seeking to uncover the broader cultural changes of the period by drawing on a wide array of literary and documentary sources Maged Mikhail stresses the cultural and institutional developments that punctuated the histories of Christians and Muslims in the province under early Islamic rule From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt traces how the largely agrarian Egyptian society responded to the influx of Arabic and Islam the means by which the Coptic Church constructed its sectarian identity the Islamisation of the administrative classes and how these factors converged to create a new medieval society The result is a fascinating and essential study for scholars of Byzantine and early Islamic Egypt A State of Mixture Richard E. Payne, 2015-09-01 Christian communities flourished during late antiquity in a Zoroastrian political system known as the Iranian Empire that integrated culturally and geographically disparate territories from Arabia to Afghanistan into its institutions and networks Whereas previous studies have regarded Christians as marginal insular and often persecuted participants in this empire Richard Payne demonstrates their integration into elite networks adoption of Iranian political practices and imaginaries and participation in imperial institutions The rise of Christianity in Iran depended on the Zoroastrian theory and practice of hierarchical differentiated inclusion according to which Christians Jews and others occupied legitimate places in Iranian political culture in positions subordinate to the imperial religion Christians for their part positioned themselves in a political culture not of their own making with recourse to their own ideological and institutional resources ranging from the writing of saints lives to the judicial arbitration of bishops In placing the social history of East Syrian Christians at the center of the Iranian imperial story A State of Mixture helps explain the endurance of a culturally diverse empire across four centuries Coptic Studies on the Threshold of a New Millennium Mat Immerzeel, Jacques van der Vliet, 2004 Life in an Egyptian Village in Late Antiquity Giovanni Ruffini, 2018-10-11 The most detailed glimpse to date of daily life in a small town at the end of the Roman Empire Documentary Culture and the Laity in the Early Middle Ages Warren Brown, Marios Costambeys, Matthew Innes, Adam Kosto, 2013 This revealing study explores how people at all social levels whether laity or clergy needed used and kept documents The Social History of Byzantium John Haldon, 2016-07-29 With original essays by leading scholars this book explores the social history of the medieval eastern Roman Empire and offers illuminating new insights into our knowledge of Byzantine society Provides interconnected essays of original scholarship relating to the social history of the Byzantine empire Offers groundbreaking theoretical and empirical research in the study of Byzantine society Includes helpful glossaries of sociological theoretical terms and Byzantine medieval terms Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, 2021-09-09 Egypt played a crucial role in the Roman Empire for seven centuries It was wealthy and occupied a strategic position between the Mediterranean and Indian Ocean worlds while its uniquely fertile lands helped to feed the imperial capitals at Rome and then Constantinople The cultural and religious landscape of Egypt today owes much to developments during the Roman period including in particular the forms taken by Egyptian Christianity Moreover we have an abundance of sources for its history during this time especially because of the recovery of vast numbers of written texts giving an almost uniquely detailed picture of its society economy government and culture This book the work of six historians and archaeologists from Egypt the US and the UK provides students and a general audience with a readable new history of the period and includes many illustrations of art archaeological sites and documents and quotations from primary sources New Literary Papyri from the Michigan

Collection Cassandra Borges, C. Michael Sampson, 2012-10-04 Three new fragments from amongst the oldest Greek papyri

Localized Law Kimberley Czajkowski, 2017 Localized Law examines the legal archives of Babatha and Salome Komaise which offer a window onto the practice of law in Maoza as it came under the control of the Roman Empire A series of case studies of the various agents involved in the legal transactions illuminates the legal culture of this community and its practice of law and justice

Unending Variety, 2024-03-11 This is a Festschrift offered by friends and colleagues to papyrologist and ancient historian Peter van Minnen The volume contains the edition or re edition of 52 papyri and ostraca dating from between the third century BCE and the eighth century CE Their subjects vary from Demosthenes to the delivery of camels in early Islamic Egypt and their provenances stretch from the Eastern to the Western Desert and from the Egyptian Nile valley to Qasr Ibrim in northern Nubia All texts are published with transcription translation commentary and colour photographs In addition there are five studies reflecting the honoree's wide ranging interests

Holy Bishops in Late Antiquity Claudia Rapp, 2005 Between 300 and 600 Christianity experienced a momentous change from persecuted cult to state religion One of the consequences of this shift was the evolution of the role of the bishop as the highest Church official in his city from model Christian to model citizen Claudia Rapp's exceptionally learned innovative and groundbreaking work traces this transition with a twofold aim to deemphasize the reign of the emperor Constantine which has traditionally been regarded as a watershed in the development of the Church as an institution and to bring to the fore the continued importance of the religious underpinnings of the bishop's role as civic leader Rapp rejects Max Weber's categories of charismatic versus institutional authority that have traditionally been used to distinguish the nature of episcopal authority from that of the ascetic and holy man Instead she proposes a model of spiritual authority ascetic authority and pragmatic authority in which a bishop's visible asceticism is taken as evidence of his spiritual powers and at the same time provides the justification for his public role In clear and graceful prose Rapp provides a wholly fresh analysis of the changing dynamics of social mobility as played out in episcopal appointments
