Seven Wives and Seven Prisons Or Experiences in the Life of a Matrimonial Monomaniac. a True Story - L. A. Abbott L.A. Abbott, 2010-02-16 A passage from the book From New York I went to Troy and at the hotel where I stopped I became acquainted with a woman who told me that her husband was in the Insane Asylum at Brattleboro

Vt She was going to see him and if he was fit to be removed she proposed to take him home with her I told her of the success I had had in taking care of two men at Newbury and Montgomery and how I had traveled about the country with them and with the most beneficial results to my patients She was much interested inquired into the particulars and finally thought the plan would be a favorable one for her husband She asked me to go with her to see him and said that if he was in condition to travel he should go about with me if he would at any rate if he came out of the Asylum she would put him under my care We went together to Brattleboro and the very day we arrived her husband was taken in an apoplectic fit from which he did not recover She carried home his corpse and I lost my expected patient
