Grace, 2012-03-15 This collection maps the Beat Generation movement exploring American Beat writers alongside parallel movements in other countries that shared a critique of global capitalism Ranging from the immediate post World War II period and continuing into the 1990s the essays illustrate Beat participation in the global circulation of a poetics of dissent

Political Tourism and its Texts Maureen Moynagh, 2008-11-08 The concept of political tourism is new to cultural and postcolonial studies Nonetheless it is a concept with major implications for scholarship Political Tourism and Its Texts looks at the writings of political tourists travellers who seek solidarity with international political struggles With reference to the travel writing of among others Nancy Cunard W H Auden and Christopher Isherwood Ernesto Che Guevara and Salman Rushdie Maureen Moynagh demonstrates the ways in which political tourism can be a means of exploring the formation of transnational affiliations and commitments Moynagh's aims are threefold First she looks at how these tourists create a sense of belonging to political struggles not their own and express their personal and political solidarity despite the complexity of such cross cultural relationships Second Moynagh analyses how these authors position their readers in relation to political movements inviting a sense of responsibility for the struggles for social justice Finally the author situates key twentieth century imperial struggles in relation to contemporary postcolonial and cultural studies theories of new cosmopolitanism Drawing on sociological postcolonial poststructuralist and feminist theories Political Tourism and Its Texts is at once an insightful study of modern writers and the causes that inspired them and a call to address with political urgency contemporary neo imperialism and the politics of global inequality Critical Condition Amy Scholder, 1993-11 Critical

Condition includes Carla Kirkwood's autobiographical performance monologue about a girl sexually abused by the men in her family who becomes a feminist activist in the 70s and an artist in the 90s In impassioned poetry Wanda Coleman takes a look at the embattled lives of African Americans particularly in Los Angeles Sapphire's searing poems about race and self realization expose the fallacy of the nuclear family and the vicious cycle of domestic violence The Theory Girls performance script If You Were like the Heroine in a Country and Western song is both detailed expose and black comedy framing the relationship between Aileen Wuornos and Arlene Pralle the born again Christian who became enamored of Wuornos after her conviction within the context to Hollywood's fascination for women with guns The Tourism Encounter Florence

Babb, 2010-08-30 This book considers the recent growth of tourism in transitional societies in Latin America and the Caribbean Research in Cuba Mexico Nicaragua and Peru reveals that tourism often takes up where social transformation leaves off and may even benefit from the formerly off limits status of nations that have undergone periods of conflict or rebellion

The Diary Batsheva Ben-Amos, Dan Ben-Amos, 2020-03-10 The diary as a genre is found in all literate societies and these autobiographical accounts are written by persons of all ranks and positions The Diary offers an exploration of the form in its social historical and cultural literary contexts with its own distinctive features poetics and rhetoric The contributors to this volume examine theories and interpretations relating to writing and studying diaries the formation of diary canons in the United Kingdom France United States and Brazil and the ways in which handwritten diaries are transformed through processes of publication and digitization The authors also explore different diary formats including the travel diary the private diary conflict diaries written during periods of crisis and the diaries of the digital era such as blogs The Diary offers a comprehensive overview of the genre synthesizing decades of interdisciplinary study to enrich our understanding of research about and engagement with the diary as literary form and historical documentation City

1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement's artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution's attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Bibliographic Guide to North American History, 1985 Sandino's Nation

Stephen Henighan, 2014-04-01 Ernesto Cardenal and Sergio Ramirez are two of the most influential Latin American intellectuals of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Addressing Nicaragua's struggle for self definition from divergent ethnic religious generational political and class backgrounds they constructed distinct yet compatible visions of national history anchored in a reappraisal of the early twentieth century insurgent leader Augusto Cesar Sandino During the

Sandinista Revolution of 1979-90 Cardenal appointed Nicaragua's minister of culture became one of the most provocative and internationally recognized figures of liberation theology while Ram rez a member of the revolutionary junta and later elected vice president of Nicaragua emerged as an authoritative figure for third world nationalism But before all else the two were groundbreaking creative writers Through a close reading of the works by Nicaragua's best known and most prolific modern authors Sandino's Nation studies the construction of Nicaraguan national identity during three distinct periods of the country's recent history before during and after the 1979-90 revolution Stephen Henighan offers rigorous textual analyses of poems memoirs essays and novels interwoven with a sharply narrated history of Nicaragua The only comprehensive study of the careers of Cardenal and Ram rez Sandino's Nation is essential to understanding transformations to both Nicaragua and the role of the writer in Latin America

After Revolution Florence E. Babb, 2010-01-01 Nicaragua's Sandinista revolution 1979-1990 initiated a broad program of social transformation to improve the situation of the working class and poor women and other non elite groups through agrarian reform restructured urban employment and wide access to health care education and social services This book explores how Nicaragua's least powerful citizens have fared in the years since the Sandinista revolution as neoliberal governments have rolled back these state supported reforms and introduced measures to promote the development of a market driven economy Drawing on ethnographic research conducted throughout the 1990s Florence Babb describes the negative consequences that have followed the return to a capitalist path especially for women and low income citizens In addition she charts the growth of women's and other social movements neighborhood lesbian and gay indigenous youth peace and environmental that have taken advantage of new openings for political mobilization Her ethnographic portraits of a low income barrio and of women's craft cooperatives powerfully link local cultural responses to national and global processes
