Second International Handbook on the Demography of Sexuality Amanda K. Baumle,Zelma Oyarvide

Tuthill, 2025-06-18 A decade after the publication of the first International Handbook on the Demography of Sexuality there have been fundamental shifts in how we measure sexual and gender identities and the breadth of available population level sexuality data The chapters in this second edition of this handbook provide guidance on methodological approaches involved in studying population sexuality as well as insight into the ways that sexuality shapes key demographic outcomes Chapters examine how we measure sexual identities and behaviors on surveys sexuality changes across the life course international perspectives on sexual behaviors and identities and the ways that sexual identities shape families labor market experiences and health outcomes Despite these developments we still know relatively little about key demographic questions related to fertility and migration for sexual minorities as well as about understudied topics of sexuality that fall outside of risk focused analyses In particular much of our understanding of sexuality has been motivated by controlling the spread of sexually transmitted infections or adolescent pregnancies rather than understanding motivations for sexual interactions such as pleasure Accordingly although the research set forth in this book provides insight into existing knowledge of sexual behavior and of sexual minority populations the chapters also point researchers and policymakers toward needed areas of research and data collection

Beginning from Man and Woman Bernard K. Wong, 2017-04-30 Engaging with contemporary thought on love and the family Bernard Wong argues that our notion of love has been deeply influenced by modern technological culture and political ideologies leading to the detriment of familial relationships Dr Wong demonstrates how Christian doctrines can be used to critique and resist these ideologies Through a careful analysis of Christ's love expressed in his life death and resurrection the author presents a notion of Christ's love bearing the characteristics of fraternal incarnational and unfolding love These aspects of Christ's love are pertinent to the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children and families and their neighbours It is through practicing Christ's love that Christians strengthen their familial relationships and bear witness to Christ in the world
