Menner,2007 Louis H Sullivan 1856 1924 was a prominent practitioner in the Chicago school of architecture Recognized as the father of the American skyscraper Sullivan believed that ornamentation should arise naturally or organically as Frank Lloyd Wright who worked for and revered Sullivan would later say from the larger design After creating a number of high profile big city structures Sullivan turned his skills toward small midwestern towns where he designed several jewel box banks so called for their compact size simplicity and use of stained glass windows One of these Merchants National Bank in Grinnell Iowa serves as a shining example of the organic ornamentation characterizing Sullivan s exquisite and functional style The Old Home Joseph R. Tebben,2014-04-01 One hundred years ago a local banker and a world renowned architect came together to build a striking new facility for The Home Building Association Company in Newark Ohio The Old Home celebrates the centennial of this collaboration by exploring the parallel lives of the banker Emmet Baugher and the architect Louis Sullivan and by reviewing the history and legacy of the remarkable building they created in downtown Newark In addition two chapters place The Old Home and its aesthetics in the context of Sullivan s time and his philosophy of form follows function The Old Home is the first comprehensive account of the Newark bank one of eight small town banks built by Louis Sullivan in his twilight years Dismissed by Frank Lloyd Wright as the remnants of Sullivan s genius these banks are now considered to be the magnificent culmination of his career The Old Home examines the built environment that surrounded the bank when it was built in 1914 1915 and again as this book was being written in 2013 2014 and it integrates newly recovered documents including Sullivan s original cost estimates with other historical evidence to tell the story of Newark s architectural jewel box Joseph Tebben is a retired professor of classics He has been a resident of Newark Ohio for more than forty years Book jacket The Public Papers Louis Sullivan,1988-04-14 This volume brings together for the first

Regardless of the subject matter our studies are always searching for a sense of the universal in the specific Drawing etchings and paintings are a way of communicating ideas and emotions The key word here is to communicate Whether the audience sees the work as laborious or poetic depends on the creative genius of the artist Some painters use the play of light passing through a landscape or washing over a figure to create an evocative moment that will be both timeless and transitory The essential role of art remains what it has always been a way of human expression This is the role that our participants concentrate on as they discuss art as the expression of the spirit a creative act through which the artist makes manifest what is within him Spirit suggests the unity of feeling and thought Avoiding broad generalities our participants address specific areas in orchestration with music architecture literature and phenomenology Profs Souiller Scholz Etlin Sweetser Josephs show us at what point art is an intimate profound expression and the magic of a civilization as a whole springing from its evolving thoughts and embodying ideals such as the Renaissance the Baroque Modernism and at what point it reflects the transformation of a particular society and its mode of life The Architectural Review ,1908 American Studies Jack Salzman,1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology The American Midwest Andrew R. Progressivism : Aesthetics : Cities Donald Johnson, 2016-10-14 Frank Lloyd Wright The Early Years Progressivism Aesthetics Cities examines Wright's belief that all aspects of human life must embrace and celebrate an aesthetic experience that would thereby lead to necessary social reforms. Inherent in the theory was a belief that reform of nineteenth century gluttony should include a contemporary interpretation of its material presence, its bulk and space, its architectural landscape. This book analyzes Wright's innovative, profound theory of architecture that drew upon geometry and notions of pure design and the indigenous as put into practice. It outlines the design methodology that he applied to domestic and non-domestic buildings and presents reasons for the recognition of two Wright Styles and a Wright School. The book also studies how his design method was applied to city planning and implications of historical and theoretical contexts of the period that surely influenced all of Wright's community and city planning.
