Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood Maryann Barone-Chapman, 2019-11-28 Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood explores the topic of delayed motherhood from a Jungian psychoanalytic perspective using both quantitative and qualitative research methods including interview transcripts diaries dreams and Jung's world renowned Word Association Experiment It provides a unique contribution to our understanding of the pressures faced by women today on the topic of delayed motherhood We may consider an affect to be in place when a woman allows her relationship to her body and its procreative capacity to slip away from consciousness only to awaken at a point when redeeming her past choices becomes a hunger This book delves into personal cultural and collective spheres of influence that have been split off waiting for the right moment to reintegrate Working with Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis and Jung's Word Association Experiment the author identifies aspects of the psyche arousing late procreative desire and considers the differing accounts of maternal and paternal parents within affective experience of growing up female beside a male sibling The book examines women's procreative identity in midlife identifies complexes of a personal cultural and collective nature and considers how the role of mother is psychosocially performed taking in feminist psychoanalytical thinking as well as Queer theory to explore new meanings for late motherhood This book will be of great interest to clinicians researchers academics postgraduate students of Jungian psychoanalysis gender theory psychosocial studies and those travelling alongside a woman's journey into later motherhood

Blue Dreams Lauren Slater, 2025-05-01 The explosive story of the discovery and development of psychiatric medications as well as the science and the people behind their invention told by a riveting writer and psychologist who shares her own experience with the highs and lows of psychiatric drugs Although one in five Americans now takes at least one psychotropic drug the fact remains that nearly seventy years after doctors first began prescribing them not even their creators understand exactly how or why these drugs work or don't work on what ails our brains Lauren Slater's revelatory account charts psychiatry's journey from its earliest drugs Thorazine and lithium up through Prozac and other major antidepressants of the present Blue Dreams also chronicles experimental treatments involving Ecstasy magic mushrooms the most cutting edge memory drugs placebos and even neural implants In her thorough analysis of each treatment Slater asks three fundamental questions how was the drug born how does it work or fail to work and what does it reveal about the ailments it is meant to treat Fearlessly weaving her own intimate experiences into comprehensive and wide ranging research Slater narrates a personal history of psychiatry itself In the process her powerful and groundbreaking exploration casts modern psychiatry s ubiquitous wonder drugs in a new light revealing their ability to heal us or hurt us and proving an indispensable resource not only for those with a psychotropic prescription but for anyone who hopes to understand the limits of what we know about the human brain and the possibilities for future treatments Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum s lit popular novel the maternal confessional dads lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres Childhood, Literature and Science Jutta Ahlbeck, Päivi Lappalainen, Kati Launis, Kirsi Tuohela, 2017-11-13 How do we understand imagine and remember childhood In what ways do cultural representations and scientific discourses meet in their ways of portraying children Childhood Literature and Science aims to answer these questions by tracing how images of childhood s and children in Western modernity are entangled with notions of innocence and fragility but also with sin and evilness Indeed this interdisciplinary collection investigates how different child figures emerge or disappear in imaginative and social representations in the memories of adult selves and in expert knowledge Questions about childhood in Western modernity culture and science are also addressed through insightful analysis of a variety of materials from the Enlightenment age to the present day such as fiction life narratives visual images scientific texts and public writings Analysing childhood as a discursive construction Childhood Literature and Science will appeal to scholars as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in fields such as Childhood Studies History Gender Studies Cultural Studies Literature and Sociology of the Family Love Works Like This Lauren Slater, 2003 In this remarkable book the author of Welcome to My Country and Prozac Diary writes about how people discover what love truly is and make the decision to open their life to a child Kiss Tomorrow Hello Kim Barnes, Claire Davis, 2006 A compilation of essays on middle age brings together the reflections and experiences of baby boomer women over the age of forty as they discover a new stage of life with contributions from Lynn Freed Pam Houston and Julia Glass New Statesman ,2003 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 From the Hips Rebecca Odes,Ceridwen Morris,2007-05-22 Drawing on the experiences of hundreds of real parents and the expertise of doctors midwives and other birth and baby pros this indispensable resource is filled with the most accurate and up to date information about having and caring for a baby including Decisions Decisions A judgment free breakdown of every major choice including prenatal testing natural vs medical childbirth circumcision breast or bottle feeding and work life options The Endless No What not to eat take and do when you re pregnant get the real facts behind the prohibitions I Want My Life Back Anxiety regret ambivalence and other rarely discussed postpartum emotions Parents and partners A look beyond the one size fits all approach to family with strategies for minimizing perfect parent pressure and managing your real life relationships through the changes Sorting Through the Voices A user friendly guide to the dueling gurus trendy techniques and conflicting theories that confuse new parents A forward thinking book that includes a wide range of voices and approaches From the Hips reflects the many ways of being pregnant and parenting without suggesting that there is one right way

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences The Psychologist ,2003 Excursions into Modernism Joyce Kelley,2017-05-15 Positioned at a crossroads between feminist geographies and modernist studies Excursions into Modernism considers transnational modernist fiction in tandem with more rarely explored travel narratives by women of the period who felt increasingly free to journey abroad and redefine themselves through travel In an era when Western artists writers and musicians sought primitive ideas for artistic renewal Joyce E Kelley locates a key similarity between fiction and travel writing in the way women authors use foreign experiences to inspire innovations with written expression and self articulation She focuses on the pairing of outward journeys with more inward introspective ones made possible through reconceptualizing and mobilizing elements of women s traditional corporeal and domestic geographies the skin the ill body the womb and the piano In texts ranging from Jean Rhys s Voyage in the Dark to Virginia Woolf s The Voyage Out and from Evelyn Scott s Escapade to Dorothy Richardson s Pilgrimage Kelley explores how interactions between geographic movement identity formation and imaginative excursions produce modernist experimentation Drawing on fascinating supplementary and archival materials such as letters diaries newspaper articles photographs and unpublished drafts Kelley s book cuts across national and geographic borders to offer rich and often revisionary interpretations of both canonical and lesser known works

The Europeans Orlando Figes,2019-10-08 From the master of historical narrative Financial Times a dazzling richly detailed panoramic work the first to document the genesis of a continent wide European culture The nineteenth century in Europe was a time of unprecedented artistic achievement It was also the first age of cultural globalization an epoch when mass communications and high speed rail travel brought Europe together overcoming the barriers of nationalism and facilitating the development of a truly European canon of artistic musical and literary works By 1900 the same books were being read across the continent the same paintings reproduced the same music played in homes and heard in concert halls the same operas performed in all the major theatres Drawing from a wealth of documents letters and other archival materials acclaimed historian Orlando Figes examines the interplay of money and art that made this unification possible At the center of the book is a poignant love triangle the Russian writer Ivan Turgenev the Spanish prima donna Pauline Viardot with whom Turgenev had a long and intimate relationship and her husband Louis Viardot an art critic theater manager and republican activist Together Turgenev and the Viardots acted as a kind of European cultural exchange they either knew or crossed paths with Delacroix Berlioz Chopin Brahms Liszt the Schumanns Hugo Flaubert Dickens and Dostoyevsky among many other towering figures As Figes observes nearly all of civilization s great advances have come during periods of heightened cosmopolitanism when people ideas and artistic creations circulate freely between nations Vivid and insightful The Europeans shows how such cosmopolitan ferment shaped artistic traditions that came to dominate world culture The Long Journey Home Andrew J. Schmutzer,2011-10-01 Maybe the only thing new about sexual abuse is quality discussion from several professions psychology theology and pastoral care Here are the insights of over two dozen psychologists theologians and those in pastoral care all targeting the issue of sexual abuse Designed as a resource for Christian educators therapists pastors social workers group leaders and survivors The Long Journey Home combines current research in mental health with rich theological reflection global concern with fervent pastoral wisdom for the local faith community Whether you are a counselor professor pastor or spouse of a survivor you hold in your hand a fresh resource of information and advocacy for those suffering from the devastating effects of sexual abuse and rape The breadth of material biblical insight discussion questions and helpful resources gathered here just may be the tool of a generation Power Moves Sarah Jakes Roberts,2024-04-30 Unleash the superpower of being yourself Sarah Jakes Roberts bestselling author of Woman Evolve and newly appointed pastor of The Potter s House Church in Dallas will help you craft a language toward your challenges with intentionality and develop an authentic lifestyle Stripping our minds of the expectations that inundate our world has never been more difficult One quick scroll of our phones and we re consumed by other people s projections of how we should be feeling or responding The ability to determine your truth without judgment is the beginning of harnessing authentic power in Christ When we do the work of embracing where we are we create space for God s love to meet us in our most raw form and then polish us to shine like never before Power does not lie in success achievement or performance Power rests in humility honesty and the commitment to continuous growth Power Moves will help you to qualify whether you re living life authentically or if you ve found a way to maintain status quo It will reveal the principles required to tap into the most powerful version of who you are then lead you in how to introduce your authentic self to the world around you Sarah will help you give language to your changing needs acknowledge and applaud your growth refuse to bear the weight all at once or all alone and release your power Open your eyes to the way that God sees you and awaken your boldness to effect change in the world by living out the truth of who God says you are with confidence The Athenaeum ,1889
