,1760 Mo Zi Mo Zi, Mozi Chinese pinyin M z c 470 c 391 BC original name Mo Di was a Chinese philosopher during the Hundred Schools of Thought period early Warring States period A book named after him the Mozi contains material ascribed to him and his followers Born in what is now Tengzhou Shandong Province he founded the school of Mohism that argued strongly against Confucianism and Taoism His philosophy emphasized self restraint self reflection and authenticity rather than obedience to ritual During the Warring States period Mohism was actively developed and practiced in many states but fell out of favour when the legalist Qin dynasty came to power During that period many Mohist classics are by many believed to have been ruined when the emperor Qin Shi Huang supposedly carried out the burning of books and burying of scholars

The importance of Mohism further declined when Confucianism became the dominant school of thought during the Han Dynasty until mostly disappearing by the middle of the Western Han dynasty. The concept of Ai was developed by the Chinese philosopher Mozi in the 4th century BC in reaction to Confucianism's benevolent love. Mozi tried to replace what he considered to be the long entrenched Chinese over attachment to family and clan structures with the concept of universal love (ji n i). In this he argued directly against Confucians who believed that it was natural and correct for people to care about different people in different degrees. Mozi is also the name of the philosophical text compiled by Mohists from Mozi's thought. This text originally consisted of 71 chapters. Because Mohism disappeared as a living tradition from China its texts were not well maintained and many chapters are missing or in a corrupted state.

John: Loving Jesus and Keeping His Word Paul Y. Lee, 2020-09-30. The passion of Paul Lee for Jesus drove him to write John: Loving Jesus and Keeping His Word. Here is one of the most profound reflections on the Gospel of John in our time. Thoroughly researched and written in Lee's distinct voice, this is a book I wish I had on my shelves fifty years ago and provides the kind of insight that will reach preachers, scholars, students, and anyone who wishes to learn more about the living Christ for years to come. Dr. James B. Mooneyhan, Clergy, Atlanta Area of the UMC. The Gospel of John becomes alive anew with the reading of this book. Dr. Lee has compiled a contextual interpretation of the Gospel in a way that informs casual readers and yet challenges serious scholars and seminary students. This is an invaluable resource in sermon preparation, Bible studies, Sunday school lessons, or daily devotions. This work is so extensive yet very understandable that it should be included in every serious student of the Scriptures. I highly recommend this book. Rev. Dr. Philip D. DeMore, Former District Superintendent of the UMC. This book is the labor of a lifetime as Paul Lee shares the fruit of decades of living with the Gospel of John and for persons committed to serious study of the Bible. The title itself is a challenge as the aim of every Christian. My prayer for potential readers is that they will experience Jesus as Lord and Teacher, love him more dearly, and keep his word more faithfully. Maxie Dunnam, Former President of Asbury Seminary, now Minister at Large, Christ UMC, Memphis, TN. The Gospel of John continues to be an inexhaustible source of Christian faith and theology. Paul Lee has given us a fresh, clear, and faithful reading of John, combining chapter-by-chapter overviews, detailed commentary, and insightful practical reflections on John's implications for Christian life and witness. This book is an excellent resource for pastors, teachers, and anyone who desires a deeper encounter with the Johannine biblical text in relation to the New Testament. Rev. Dr. Don E. Saliers, Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Labour, Love, and Prayer Andrea Ebel Brozyna, 1998-12-14 Brozyna argues that Catholics and Protestants shared very similar views of Christian womanhood Both lauded the influence of the virtuous Christian woman used the same female role models from the Bible and saw the home as the locus of the construction of female piety Yet each group castigated the other for having antifemale values Protestants developed the slovenly drunken Biddy as a stereotype of Catholic women and Catholics portrayed Protestant devotional and family life as cold and arid Observers of present day Northern Ireland will find these historical contrasts of immediate relevance An interesting new look at the Irish problem Love Labour and Prayer makes a valuable contribution to the histories of women Ireland and religion
