Loving Rachel:

Nineteenth-century Black Women's Literary Emergence SallyAnn H. Ferguson, 2008 Since her forced migration to the United States the African American woman has consciously developed a literary tradition based on fundamental evolutionary principles of mind and body She has consistently resisted attempts by patriarchs and matriarchs alike to romanticize and redefine that biologically based literary heritage This volume of ten classic texts including such nineteenth century writers as Jarena Lee Harriet Jacobs and Angelina Grimké documents for teachers and general readers how African American female self portraits gradually crystallized over some three centuries of brutality imposed by white men and their surrogates who legally raped and then branded her immoral precisely because she was black and female This anthology also explores how her literary features were further defined during the postbellum era of Jim Crow segregation and civil rights abuses Readers cannot adequately understand this woman's unique story without learning how and more importantly why mental and physical atrocities so gruesome that most people cringe to think of them were inflicted upon her black female self in this land Black Theatre USA Revised and Expanded Edition, Vol. 1 James V. Hatch, Ted Shine, 1996-03 A collection of 51 plays that features previously unpublished works contemporary plays by women and the modern classics

Double-take Venetia K. Patton, Maureen Honey, 2001 Brings together a comprehensive selection of texts from the Harlem Renaissance a key period in the literary and cultural history of the United States Offers a unique balanced collection of writers men and women gay and straight familiar and obscure Arranged by author rather than by genre this anthology includes works from major Harlem Renaissance figures as well as often overlooked essayists poets dramatists and artists Contains works from a wide variety of genres poetry short stories drama and essays as well as biographical sketches of the authors Includes most pieces in their entirety Also includes artwork and illustrations many of which are from original journals and have never before been reprinted and song lyrics to illustrate the interrelation of various art forms Strange Fruit Kathy A. Perkins, Judith L. Stephens, 1998-01-22 These lynching dramas may not present the picture that America wants to see of itself but these visions cannot be ignored because they are grounded not only in the truth of white racism's toxic effect on our national existence but also in the truth that there exists a contesting collective response that is part of an on going and continually building momentum Theatre Journal A unique powerful collection worthy of high school and college classroom assignment and discussion Bookwatch This anthology is the first to address the impact of lynching on U S theater and culture By focusing on women's unique view of lynching this collection of plays reveals a social history of interracial cooperation between black and white women and an artistic tradition that continues to evolve through the work of African American women artists Included are plays spanning the period 1916 to 1994 from playwrights such as Angelina Weld Grimké Georgia Douglas Johnson Lillian Smith and Michon Boston In the Days of Sand and Stars Marlee Pinsker, 2012-01-11 Take out your time telescope wipe the dust and cobwebs from its lens tilt it upwards and find a twinkling speck of light Now look behind it way back to the days of sand and stars Here are the Midrash stories of famous women whose names you may know but whose daily lives and human thoughts have been ignored for far too long From Eve to Emzera from Sarah to Rebecca they are presented here with humor and affection as they face a new and changing world where miracles and customs shape their destiny Midrash tales are what if stories built around the grains of information the Bible offers and author Marlee Pinsker excels as she imbues these legendary women with warmth and spirit A wonderful gift book for anyone but especially meaningful for Bat Mitzvahs and Confirmations In the Days of Sand and Stars is an impressive straightforward collection sparse and clear in its telling Quebec artist Francois Thisdale has produced a marvelous collection of images with his time telescope and digital expertise Through his talents we see all of these very human women in moments of reflection tenderness ingenuity and wonder

Selected Works of Angelina Weld Grimké Angelina Weld Grimké, 1991 Centered around the themes of death women as objects of desire lost love motherhood and children the poems in this selection offer insight into the work of this well known abolitionist and advocate of women's rights Including Grimké's prose and drama which often focus on lynching this volume sheds new light on a perspective characterized by the African American experience of racial pride and the reaction against racist acts

The Songbirds Delight Dr. Michael J. Curran, 2021-11-18 Christian and Jewish communities in a small town come together in joy through the love and energy of a small group of intimate friends The group slowly expands in number wisdom and shared experiences which include drama adventure romance and humor Many difficult challenges unfold that primarily involve psychological and spiritual battles At the center of all this is the light of Scripture

Artistic Ambassadors Brian Russell Roberts, 2013 During the first generation of black participation in U S diplomacy in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a vibrant community of African American writers and cultural figures worked as U S representatives abroad Through the literary and diplomatic dossiers of figures such as Frederick Douglass James Weldon Johnson Archibald and Angelina Grimké W E B Du Bois Ida Gibbs Hunt and Richard Wright Brian Roberts shows how the intersection of black aesthetic trends and U S political culture both Americanized and internationalized the trope of the New Negro This decades long relationship began during the days of Reconstruction and it flourished as U S presidents courted and rewarded their black voting constituencies by appointing black men as consuls and ministers to such locales as Liberia Haiti Madagascar and Venezuela These appointments changed the complexion of U S interactions with nations and colonies of color in turn state sponsored black travel gave rise to literary works that imported international representation into New Negro discourse on aesthetics race and

African American culture Beyond offering a narrative of the formative dialogue between black transnationalism and U S international diplomacy Artistic Ambassadors also illuminates a broader literary culture that reached both black and white America as well as the black diaspora and the wider world of people of color In light of the U S appointments of its first two black secretaries of state and the election of its first black president this complex representational legacy has continued relevance to our understanding of current American internationalism Rachel's Choice Judith French, 2011-11-09 Widowed pregnant and with acres of crops to plant Rachel Irons is determined to save her farm When fate sends her an extra pair of hands in the form of a handsome rebel soldier she s willing to risk the danger of harboring the enemy And William Chancellor is willing to work her fields in return for her silence But it will take every ounce of Rachel s tenacity to remember that this gentlemanly man with the warm honey Virginia drawl is the enemy and her heart loses the battle as soon as it begins Though this man she calls Chance finds himself both moved and aroused by Rachel s strength and simple beauty his honor demands that he uphold a blood vow he made long before he ever set eyes on her But Rachel is a fighter too and giving up Chance is a surrender she vows never to make even as his presence puts her own life in peril From the Paperback edition
