Loyalty In Death 9:

ESV Expository Commentary (Volume 12) Crossway, 2020-10-28 Designed to strengthen the global church with a widely accessible theologically sound and pastorally wise resource for understanding and applying the overarching storyline of the Bible this commentary series features the full text of the ESV Bible passage by passage with crisp and theologically rich exposition and application Editors Iain M Duguid James M Hamilton and Jay A Sklar have gathered a team of experienced pastor theologians to provide a new generation of pastors and other teachers of the Bible around the world with a globally minded commentary series rich in biblical theology and broadly Reformed doctrine making the message of redemption found in all of Scripture clear and available to all Six experienced Bible teachers walk through some of the richest but more challenging books of the New Testament helping Bible readers understand what they say about Christians hope for the future Contributors include Dennis E Johnson Robert L Plummer C Samuel Storms Ray Van Neste Matthew S Harmon Thomas R Schreiner

Jonah Amy Erickson, 2021-05-18 The dominant reading of the book of Jonah that the hapless prophet Jonah is a lesson in not trying to run away from God oversimplifies a profoundly literary biblical text argues Amy Erickson Likewise the more recent understanding of Jonah as satire is problematic in its own right laden as it is with anti Jewish undertones and the superimposition of a Christian worldview onto a Jewish text How can we move away from these stale interpretations to recover the richness of meaning that belongs to this short but noteworthy book of the Bible This Illuminations commentary delves into Jonah's reception history in Christian Jewish and Islamic contexts while also exploring its representations in visual arts music literature and pop culture After this thorough contextualization Erickson provides a fresh translation and exegesis paving the way for pastors and scholars to read and utilize the book of Jonah as the provocative richly allusive and theologically robust text that it is

Tragic Heroines in Ancient Greek Drama Hanna M. Roisman, 2021-01-14 The heroines of Greek tragedy presented in the plays by Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides have long captivated audiences and critics In this volume each of the eleven chapters discusses one of the heroines Clytemnestra Hecuba Medea Iphigenia Alcestis Antigone Electra Deianeira Phaedra Creusa and Helen The book focuses on characterisation and the motivations of the women as well as on those of the male playwrights and offers multiple viewpoints and critiques that enable readers to understand the context of each play and form their own views Four core themes bridge the depictions of the heroines the socio political dynamic of ancient Greek expectations of women and their roles in society the conflict of masculinity versus femininity the alternation of defiance and submission and the interplay between deceit and rhetoric Each chapter offers clear descriptions of plot and mythical background and builds on the text of the plays to enable reflections on language and performance All technical terms are explained and key topics or references are pulled out into box features that provide further background information Discussion points at the ends of chapters enable readers to explore various topics more deeply
