So far, the only person welcoming her is Deputy Bolten, and at times she feels even he doesn't trust her. The way things are going, she's going to need more than just his kindness. She's going to need his help. But if he doesn't trust her, how can she trust him with the problems that followed her to town? While the past year has been a rough one, Bolt is trying to move forward. When Cherry comes crashing into their town with her sweet and innocent nature, he can't help but be wary and attracted to her. The more he gets to know her, the more he wants to help her. He knows something is going on, but no matter how hard he tries, she won't confide in him. He's failed before; getting shot is proof of that, but he vows not to fail again. He'll protect Cherry at all costs, even if that means being on the opposite side of his friends.
