Lucky Break How I Became A Writer:

Lucky Break Howard Junker, 1999 In Lucky Break Howard Junker introduces you to nineteen contemporary authors who describe their struggles and good fortune in transforming themselves into writers For some the idea of being a writer seemed to run in the family For others writing was a way of breaking with their families for still others writing was the only way to find their own voice to preserve what is uniquely theirs Collected from the pages of ZYZZYVA the West Coast literary journal these are very personal essays in which nevertheless other writers will discover something of their own stories and journeys Among the authors featured in Lucky Break are Sheila Ballantyne Opal Palmer Adisa Philip Levine Jewelle Gomez Justin Chin David Rains Wallace and Sallie Tisdale Becoming a writer is a mysterious momentous process The writers in this collection suggest that beyond talent and hard work and a lucky break there is more hard work the task of being a writer They offer accounts not of the craft of writing but of the many strands that must be woven together to create an identity as a writer

Zyzzzyva, 1999 Beware the British Serpent Robert Calder, 2004 During World War II the United States was the target of what Gore Vidal has called the largest most intricate and finally most successful conspiracy directed at it in the twentieth century Great Britain's vast conspiracy to manoeuvre an essentially isolationist country into the war In Beware the British Serpent Robert Calder examines British writers involvement in this propaganda campaign including lecturing and touring in the United States broadcasting on American radio writing screenplays for films such as Mrs Miniver and This Above All and writing articles and books for publication in America Popular Contemporary Writers Michael D. Sharp, 2005-10 Ninety six alphabetically arranged author profiles include biographical information critical commentary and illustrations

Popular Children's Literature in Britain Julia Briggs, Dennis Butts, 2016-12-05 The astonishing success of J K Rowling and other contemporary children's authors has demonstrated how passionately children can commit to the books they love But this kind of devotion is not new This timely volume takes up the challenge of assessing the complex interplay of forces that have created the popularity of children's books both today and in the past The essays collected here ask about the meanings and values that have been ascribed to the term popular They consider whether popularity can be imposed or if it must always emerge from children's preferences And they investigate how the Harry Potter phenomenon fits into a repeated cycle of success and decline within the publishing industry Whether examining eighteenth century chapbooks fairy tales science schoolbooks Victorian adventures waif novels or school stories these essays show how historical and publishing contexts are vital in determining which books will succeed and which will fail which bestsellers will endure and which will fade quickly into obscurity As they considering the fiction of Angela Brazil Enid Blyton Roald Dahl and J K Rowling the contributors carefully analyse how authorial talent and cultural contexts combine in often unpredictable ways to generate and sometimes even sustain literary success Without Covers Lesha Hurliman, Numsiri C. Kunakemakorn, 2002 Without Covers incites conversation debate argument and most pressingly questions regarding the reasons behind and effects of small literary magazines moving to online publishing in North America Questions discussed are Is it possible How When and the most puzzling Why Through the musings of nineteen well known editors poets fiction nonfiction and hypertext writers readers can eavesdrop into a discussion of the purpose and politics of online publishing that has created a new bridge between traditional literary interests and current institutional cultural and financial pressures to focus on technology The nationally distributed books and small magazines represented are Archipelago The Cortland Review The Drunken Boat The Iowa Review The Kenyon Review The Literary Review Leonardo s Horse The Missouri Review Painted Bride Quarterly Poets Writers Postmodern American Fiction Postmodern Culture River Styx and ZZZZYVA The featured writers are R M Berry Heather Shayne Blakeslee Walter Cummins Paula Geyh David Hamilton Steve Heller Henry Hughes Michael Joyce Howard Junker Robert Kendall David Lynn Katherine McNamara Speer Morgan Richard Newman Lucia Perillo Rebecca Seiferle Guy Shahar John Tranter and Marion Wrenn

Forgotten Disney Kathy Merlock Jackson,Carl H. Sederholm,Mark I. West,2023-06-28 This work demonstrates that not everything that Disney touched turned to gold In its first 100 years the company had major successes that transformed filmmaking and culture but it also had its share of unfinished projects unmet expectations and box office misses Some works failed but nevertheless led to other more stunning and lucrative ones others shed light on periods when the Disney Company was struggling to establish or re-establish its brand In addition many Disney properties popular in their time but lost to modern audiences emerge as forgotten gems By exploring the studio's missteps this book provides a more complex portrayal of the history of the company than one would gain from a simple recounting of its many hits With essays by writers from across the globe it also asserts that what endures or is forgotten varies from person to person place to place or generation to generation What one dismisses someone else recalls with deep fondness as a magical Disney memory
