Unless the Threat of Death is Behind Them John T. Irwin,2006-10-25 The noted literary critic delves into the psychology and significance of American hardboiled crime fiction and film noir of the 1930s and 40s Early in the twentieth century American crime novelists like Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler put forward a new kind of character the hard boiled detective as exemplified by Sam Spade in The Maltese Falcon Unlike the analytical detectives of nineteenth century fiction these new detectives encountered cases not as intricate logical puzzles but as stark challenges of manhood John T Irwin explores how the stories of these characters grapple with ideas of American masculinity Professional codes are pitted against personal desires resulting in either ruinous relationships or solitary integrity In thematic conflicts between independence and subordination all notions of manly independence prove subordinate to the hand of fate Tracing the stylistic development of the genre Irwin demonstrates the particular influence of the novel of manners especially the writing of F Scott Fitzgerald He also shows that as hard boiled fiction began to appear on the screen in film noir it took on themes of female empowerment just as women entered the workforce in large numbers Finally he discusses how these themes persist in contemporary dramatic series on television representing the conflicted lives of Americans into the twenty first century The Greater Good J. Edward Gray,2017-08-07 It s 1962 After his first year of law school AJ O Leary hires on as a summer ranger in Yosemite s High Sierra He has taken a law enforcement job in a patch of wilderness that has witnessed no violent crime in over a century But innocence is swept aside when four wealthy hikers are found dead within weeks of AJ's arrival AJ and Park Naturalist Virginia Alvarez join the FBI in the search for a killer with more targets on his list Before they finish they will come face to face with the man who believes some of the privileged few must die to serve The Greater Good Lawyer and outdoorsman Jim Gray taps his experiences from the legal shark tank and Yosemite's beautiful High Sierra to create a spellbinding murder mystery that will keep you on the edge of your seat The next time you go hiking you may think twice before venturing down the trail alone Gray has written a page turning murder mystery set in the Yosemite he knows so well His love for that beautiful park obviously matches my own Kenn Bennett Secrets to Enjoying Yosemite Valley Winner Best Travel Book 2011 Global eBook Awards The Politics of the Death Penalty in Countries in Transition Madoka Futamura, Nadia Bernaz, 2013-08-15 The increase in the number of countries that have abolished the death penalty since the end of the Second World War shows a steady trend towards worldwide abolition of capital punishment This book focuses on the political and legal issues raised by the death penalty in countries in transition understood as countries that have transitioned or are transitioning from conflict to peace or from authoritarianism to democracy In such countries the politics that surround retaining or abolishing the death penalty are embedded in complex state building processes In this context Madoka Futamura and Nadia Bernaz bring together the work of leading researchers of international law human rights transitional justice and international politics in order to explore the social political and legal factors that shape decisions on the death penalty whether this leads to its abolition reinstatement or perpetuation Covering a diverse range of transitional processes in Asia Africa Latin America Europe and the Middle East The Politics of the Death Penalty in Countries in Transition offers a broad evaluation of countries whose death penalty policies have rarely been studied The book would be useful to human rights researchers and international lawyers in demonstrating how transition and transformation provide the catalyst for several of interrelated developments of which one is the reduction and elimination of capital punishment The Elusive Auteur Barrett Hodsdon, 2017-05-21 The director's authorial role in filmmaking the extent to which a film reflects his or her individual style and creative vision has been much debated among film critics and scholars for decades Drawing on generations of criticism this study describes how the designation auteur has gone from stylistic criterion to product label in what has always been an essentially collaborative industry Examining the controversy in regard to Hollywood directors the author compares directors and would be auteurs of the classic studio system with those of contemporary Hollywood and its new climate of cultural entrepreneurship Hollywood Death and Scandal Sites E.J. Fleming, 2015-09-18 For more than a century people have been drawn to sites of tragedy involving the rich beautiful and notorious of Hollywood Tourists at the center of the movie universe flock to Rudolph Valentino's grave the house where Marilyn Monroe died the O.J. murders condo the hotel where John Belushi overdosed a myriad of haunted mansions In its extensively researched and enlarged second edition this book tells the stories of these locations and makes finding them simple Seventeen driving tours include more than 650 sites Each tour covers a specific area from Hollywood and the Sunset Strip to Brentwood and Malibu covering the entire Los Angeles basin Concise easy to follow directions are given to each location with 145 photos and the fascinating story behind each stop Film Noir William Luhr,2012-01-04 Film Noir offers new perspectives on this highly popular and influential film genre providing a useful overview of its historical evolution and the many critical debates over its stylistic elements Brings together a range of perspectives on a topic that has been much discussed but remains notoriously ill defined Traces the historical development of the genre usefully exploring the relations between the films of the 1940s and 1950s that established the noir universe and the more recent films in which it has been frequently revived Employs a clear and intelligent writing style that makes this the perfect introduction to the genre Offers a thorough and engaging analysis of this popular area of film studies for students and scholars Presents an in depth analysis of six key films each exemplifying important trends of film noir Murder My Sweet Out of the Past Kiss Me Deadly The Long Goodbye Chinatown and Seven
