Sandscapes Jo Carruthers,Nour Dakkak,2020-11-03 Sandscapes Writing the British Seaside reflects on the unique topography of sand sandscapes and the seaside in British culture and beyond This book brings together creative and critical writings that explore the ways sand speaks to us of holidays and respite but also of time and mortality of plenitude and eternity Drawing together writers from a range of backgrounds the volume explores the environmental social personal cultural and political significance of sand and the seaside towns that have built up around it The contributions take a variety of forms including fiction and nonfiction and cover topics ranging from sand dunes to sand mining from seaside stories to shoreline architecture from sand grains to global sand movements from narratives of the setting up of bed and breakfasts to stories of seaside decline Often a symbol of aridity sand is revealed in this book to be an astonishingly fertile site for cultural meaning The Builder ,1876 Howard Carter T. G. H. James,2001-04-12 In November 1922 a momentous discovery unlike any other before or since was to change our understanding of the ancient world Until now however the marvellous story of Carter's quest for Tutankhamun and its culmination in his unearthing of the intact treasure filled tomb has been told without a reliable account of the man behind the discovery and the myths that have surrounded it Howard Carter's career was a remarkable one he had arrived in Egypt 30 years earlier as a 17 year old tracer with rudimentary education and progressed to become the first Chief Inspector of Antiquities in Upper Egypt An improbable but auspicious partnership with the 5th Earl of Carnarvon developed in which the young Carter acted as assistant and learned man to the aristocrat's excavations in the Theban necropolis But it was the legendary discovery in the Valley of the Kings and Carter's painstaking clearance of the intact royal burial that was to secure his place in history He became an international celebrity simultaneously honoured and vilified wherever he went but he was also a sad disillusioned man whose success never brought any reward of happiness T G H James definitive biography is both the story of perhaps the most renowned archaeologist of all time and of an essentially tragic human being Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects ,1927
