The Palgrave Handbook of Screen Production Craig Batty, Marsha Berry, Kath Dooley, Bettina Frankham, Susan Kerrigan, 2019-11-15. This handbook is an essential creative, critical, and practical guide for students and educators of screen production internationally. It covers all aspects of screen production from conceptualizing ideas and developing them to realizing and then distributing them across all forms and formats, including fiction and non-fiction for cinema, television, gallery spaces, and the web. With chapters by practitioners, scholars, and educators from around the world, the book provides a comprehensive collection of approaches for those studying and teaching the development and production of screen content. With college and university students in mind, the volume purposely combines theory and practice to offer a critically informed and intellectually rich guide to screen production shaped by the needs of those working in education environments where doing and thinking must co-exist. The Palgrave Handbook of Screen Production fills an important gap in creative, critical knowledge of screen production while also providing practical tools and approaches for future practitioners.
