by events elsewhere In These Rugged Days Alabama in the Civil War John S Sledge provides a long overdue and riveting narrative of Alabama s wartime saga Focused on the conflict s turning points within the state s borders this book charts residents experiences from secession s heady early days to its tumultuous end when 75 000 blue coated soldiers were on the move statewide Sledge details this eventful history using an impressive array of primary and secondary materials including official records diaries newspapers memoirs correspondence sketches and photographs He also highlights such colorful personalities as Nathan Bedford Forrest the Wizard of the Saddle John Pelham the youthful Jacksonville artilleryman who was shipped home in an iron casket with a glass faceplate Gus Askew a nine year old Barbour County slave who vividly recalled the day the Yankees marched in and Augusta Jane Evans the young novelist who was given a gold pen by a daring blockade runner Sledge offers a refreshing take on Alabama s contributions to the Civil War that will intrigue anyone who is interested in learning more about the state s war efforts His narrative is a dramatic account that will be enjoyed by lay readers as well as students and scholars of Alabama and the Civil War These Rugged Days is an enthralling tale of action courage pride and tragedy making clear the relevance of many of the Civil War s decisive moments for the way Alabamians live today The Storytellers' Journey Joseph Daniel Sobol, 1999 This is the seed of The Storytellers Journey Joseph Daniel Sobol s history of the past thirty years of American storytelling In this compelling examination of the contemporary search for myth Sobol explores the social and psychological roots of the storytelling revival and the ever resurgent power of the storyteller Drawing on interviews with dozens of storytellers around the country Sobol paints the revival as part of a larger process of cultural revitalization He traces the growth of the preeminent revival organization the National Association for the Preservation and Perpetuation of Storytelling NAPPS and details the individual passions the organizational politics and the economic social and mythic forces that have combined to transform a ragtag assemblage of enthusiasts into a national and international network of arts professionals A seemingly chance encounter between a restlessly ambitious high school teacher and a coonhunting tale on the car radio sets off a chain of inspirations that changes the face of a small southern town touches lives across America and revitalizes a homely but treasured art form Alabama, One Big Front Porch Kathryn Tucker Windham, 2007-01-01 Many of Alabama s finest stories used to begin with a reference to the night the stars fell and even now there is an inclination among some residents to divide local history into two segments before the stars fell and after the stars fell That would make November 13 1833 the dividing line Thousands of Alabamians thinking the end of the world was at hand when they saw the heavenly spectacle fell to their knees to plead for mercy and forgiveness Others promised eternal renunciation of sin card playing dancing whiskey drinking cursing and associated vices if they were spared whatever catastrophes were in the offing Still others jumped upon horses and tried to outrace the fearful menace they believed was pursuing them Southern Cooking to Remember Kathryn Tucker Windham, 1994
