

SAFETY AND FIRST AID

There are occasions when you and others need help. The help is given to you or other immediately after some injury is called first aid. First aid is given in case of minor injuries. If it is a major one, you will have to see a doctor, or take the injured person to hospital for treatment.

When do you need first aid? When should you give first aid to others? There are occasions in our life when something unwanted happens to us. Something might get into your eyes, you may have a cut or a bruise, you may have a burn, your nose may bleed, some insects may bite you, etc. These are occasions when you need to help other or yourself. In the serious cases, you may call in the doctor, but while waiting for the doctor you can do something to help the patient by yourself.

We all need to know what should be done in such cases.

Have you come across with some accidents in your home or in the street? Have you seen some person badly injured? The same thing can happen to you if you are not careful. Look at the picture below. They show how accidents can happen.

Think how accidents have happened in the pictures. Write a line about each accident. Accidents happen in many ways when we are not careful.

Here are ten golden rules to prevent accidents.

1. Store kerosene or petrol and matches in safe place. Do not play with matches or cigarette lighters.
2. Check electric wirings in home for the leakage regularly. Do not touch bare wires. Do not put off and on switches with wet hands.
3. Wipe off any spilled water on smooth surfaces.
4. Do not throw banana or mango skins around the home or streets.
5. Put cutlery in a safe place in the kitchen.

7. Store medicines in safe place out of reach of small children.
8. Obey street rules while crossing streets.
9. Do not leave stray animals or walk near them.
10. Do not walk barefooted outside your home.

What to do if you see someone in accident?

1. Do not allow too many persons to crowd around the victim.
2. Wash your hands with clean water.
3. Apply clean cloth over the cuts and bruises.
4. Do not move the fractured parts.
5. Inform the concerned persons, parents, teacher, police, health worker and relatives of the victim.
