McClung, 2009-02-16 When Lady in the Dark opened on January 23 1941 its many firsts immediately distinguished it as a new and unusual work The curious directive to playwright Moss Hart to complete a play about psychoanalysis came from his own Freudian psychiatrist For the first time since his brother George s death Ira Gershwin returned to writing lyrics for the theater And for migr composer Kurt Weill it was a crack at an opulent first class production Together Hart Gershwin and Weill with a little help from the psychiatrist produced one of the most innovative works in Broadway history With a company of 101 and an astronomical budget Lady in the Dark launched the career of a young nightclub performer named Danny Kaye and starred Gertrude Lawrence in the greatest triumph of her career With standees at many performances Lady in the Dark helped establish the practice of advance ticket sales on the Great White Way while Paramount Pictures bid for the film rights broke all records New York Times drama critic Brooks Atkinson hailed the production as splendid anointed Kurt Weill the best writer of theatre music in the country and worshiped Gertrude Lawrence as a goddess Though Lady in the Dark was a smash hit it has never enjoyed a Broadway revival and a certain mystique has grown up around its legendary original production In this ground breaking biography bruce mcclung pieces together the musical s life story from sketches and drafts production scripts correspondence photographs costume and set designs and thousands of clippings from the star s personal scrapbooks He has interviewed eleven members of the original company to provide a one of a kind glimpse into the backstage story The result is a virtual ticket to opening night the saga of how this musical play came to be and the string of events that saved the experimental show at every turn Although America was turned upside down by Pearl Harbor after the production was on the boards Lady in the Dark played an important role for the war effort and rang up 777 performances in 12 cities In what may be the most illuminating study of a single Broadway musical this biography brings Lady in the Dark back to the spotlight and puts readers in the front row contemporary view considering the intersection of race gender ethnicity economic class and sexual orientation In 1964 Edward Albee and his producers Richard Barr and Clinton Wilder produced Funnyhouse of a Negro by Adrienne Kennedy and Dutchman by Amiri Baraka then Leroi Jones and by 1968 had produced the seminal gay drama The Boys in the Band by Mart Crowley No other major American playwright of this period including Thornton Wilder Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams or William Inge produced the plays of their junior colleagues with a specific focus on difference and diversity For most scholars these productions and Albee's involvement in them are a somewhat obscure footnote in theatre history But they remain important for their early support of diverse voices Even as Albee's career was skyrocketing he and his producers had begun a producing project that sowed the seeds of diversity equity and inclusion in a decidedly anti racist decolonizing and progressive move that still resonates powerfully today While this book is not a hagiography and does not intend to paint Albee as without his own critical failings in terms of diversity in his own work and that of others this volume of theatre history dramatic literature and performance essays takes a detailed critical approach to Albee's engagement with other initiating plays productions producers theatre companies theatre artists and performances in the United States that pushed the dial toward difference and diversity in the late 1950s through the late 1970s beginning the formations of new theatres of identity across the United States This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies
