Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide

Clement Greenberg: Perceptions and judgments, 1939-1944 Clement Greenberg,1986 Pollock and After Francis Frascina,2000 This revised edition features ten new articles and is fully updated to take account of new critical approaches to post war American art

A Theory of Adaptation Linda Hutcheon,2012-08-21 A Theory of Adaptation explores the continuous development of creative adaptation and argues that the practice of adapting is central to the story telling imagination Linda Hutcheon develops a theory of adaptation through a range of media from film and opera to video games pop music and theme parks analysing the breadth scope and creative possibilities within each This new edition is supplemented by a new preface from the author discussing both new adaptive forms platforms and recent critical developments in the study of adaptation It also features an illuminating new epilogue from Siobhan O Flynn focusing on adaptation in the context of digital media She considers the impact of transmedia practices and properties on the form and practice of adaptation as well as studying the extension of game narrative across media platforms fan based adaptation from Twitter and Facebook to home movies and the adaptation of books to digital formats A Theory of Adaptation is the ideal guide to this ever evolving field of study and is essential reading for anyone interested in adaptation in the context of literary and media studies

Cases of citation Chloë Julius,Michael Green,Matthew Holman,2024-09-24 Cases of citation presents a history of artists who incorporated literary references into their work from the 1960s onwards Through a series of object focused chapters that each take up a singular case of citation the collection considers how literary citation emerged as a viable and urgent strategy for artists during this period It surveys nine artworks by a diverse group of artists including David Wojnarowicz Lis Rhodes Romare Bearden and Silvia Kolbowski whose citations draw on literary works with authors ranging from Gertrude Stein to Jean Genet The book also features an interview with pioneering feminist artist Elaine Reichek that discusses her career long commitment to working with text Together the artworks and cited texts are approached from various critical angles with each author questioning and complicating the ways in which we can read textual citations in art

Bound to Appear Huey Copeland,2013-10-28 At the close of the twentieth century black artists began to figure prominently in the mainstream American art world for the first time Thanks to the social advances of the civil rights movement and the rise of multiculturalism African American artists in the late 1980s and early 90s enjoyed unprecedented access to established institutions of publicity and display Yet in this moment of ostensible freedom black cultural practitioners found themselves turning to the history of slavery Bound to Appear focuses on four of these artists Ren e Green Glenn Ligon Lorna Simpson and Fred Wilson who have dominated and shaped the field of American art over the past two decades through large scale installations that radically departed from prior conventions for representing the enslaved Huey Copeland shows that their projects draw on strategies associated with minimalism conceptualism and institutional critique to position the slave as a vexed figure both subject and object property and person They also engage the visual logic of race in modernity and the challenges negotiated by black subjects in the present As such Copeland argues their work reframes strategies of representation and rethinks how blackness might be imagined and felt long after the end of the peculiar institution The first book to examine in depth these artists engagements with slavery Bound to Appear will leave an indelible mark on modern and contemporary art

Graphic Horizons Luis Hermida González, João Pedro Xavier, Antonio Amado Lorenzo, Ángel J. Fernández-Álvarez, 2024-03-27 This book reports on several advances in architectural graphics with a special emphasis on education training and architectural production It gathers a selection of contributions to the 20th International Congress of Architectural Graphic Expression EGA 2024 held on May 27 29 2024 in Porto Portugal with the motto Graphic Horizons This is the second of a 3 volume set

Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter, 2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture

Video Art Historicized Malin Hedlin Hayden, 2016-03-03 Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art hence art historical practices From the perspective of artists critics and scholars engaged with this new medium art was seen as too limiting a notion Important issues were to re think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations Likewise art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art Yet as this book argues video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts ideologies and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts Video Art Historicized provides a novel insightful and also challenging re interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material examining the conceptual theoretical and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art By engaging art history s most debated concepts canon art and history this study provides an in depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art Scrutinizing various narratives on video art the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices By focusing on the politics of this discourse theoretical issues of gender nationality and particular themes in video art Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history

Time Present and Time Past Paul Barlow, 2017-07-05 John Everett Millais 1829 1896 is undoubtedly among the most important of Victorian artists In his day and our own he remains also the most controversial While during his lifetime controversy centred around his early Pre Raphaelite paintings in particular Christ in the house of his Parents 1850 during the twentieth century the most intense criticism has been directed towards Millais s later works such as Bubbles 1886 which has been widely condemned as sentimental kitsch These later paintings have been held up as the epitome of the degradation of art against which avant garde and Modernist pioneers struggled None of the existing literature on Millais addresses the fundamental problem that this double identity reveals While there is extensive material on the Pre Raphaelite movement in general Millais s own work after the 1850s is rarely discussed in detail despite the fact that he lived and worked for another 30 years after his abandonment of the Pre Raphaelite style Time Present and Time Past The Art of John Everett Millais presents the first comprehensive account of Millais s artistic career from beginning to end The book considers the question of high and low cultural status in debates during Millais s own day and in subsequent critical thinking situating Millais s art as a whole within this cultural framework

Dialectic of the Ladder Ben Ware, 2015-08-27 Ludwig

Wittgenstein s Tractatus Logico Philosophicus 1922 remains one of the most enigmatic works of twentieth century thought In this bold and original new study Ben Ware argues that Wittgenstein s early masterpiece is neither an analytic treatise on language and logic nor a quasi mystical work seeking to communicate ineffable truths Instead we come to understand the Tractatus by grasping it in a twofold sense first as a dialectical work which invites the reader to overcome certain illusions of thought and second as a modernist work whose anti philosophical ambition is intimately tied to its radical aesthetic character By placing the Tractatus in the force field of modernism Dialectic of the Ladder clears the ground for a new and challenging exploration of the work s ethical dimension It also casts new light upon the cultural aesthetic and political significances of Wittgenstein s writing revealing hitherto unacknowledged affinities with a host of philosophical and literary authors including Hegel Kierkegaard Marx Nietzsche Adorno Benjamin and Kafka

Three Dialogues Revisited Marius Buning, 2003

The Challenge of the Avant-garde Paul Wood, 1999-01-01 The Challenge of the Avant Garde is the fourth of six books in the series Art and its Histories which form the main texts of an Open University course The course has been designed for students who are new to the discipline but will also appeal to those who have undertaken some study in this area This volume traces the challenge posed to the academic canon by the emergent avant garde of the early and mid nineteenth century It looks at significant shifts in the development of the concept both in moves away from the sense of social leadership to a desire for artistic autonomy in the later nineteenth century and then a reverse movement to bridge the gap between art and life in the revolutionary avant gardes of the early twentieth century The book closes with an examination of the eventual incorporation of the avant garde as a form of modern canon by the eve of World War II Throughout it seeks to relate the discourse of artistic avant gardism in all its forms to contemporary social and political histories The Materiality of Exhibition Photography in the Modernist Era Laurie Taylor, 2020-12-30 This book challenges the status quo of the materiality of exhibited photographs by considering examples from the early to mid twentieth century when photography's place in the museum was not only continually questioned but also continually redefined By taking this historical approach Laurie Taylor demonstrates the ways in which materiality as opposed to image was used to privilege the exhibited photograph as either an artwork or as non art information Consequently the exhibited photograph is revealed like its vernacular cousins to be a social object whose material form far from being supplemental is instead integral and essential to the generation of meaning The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography theory of photography curatorial studies and museum studies Rattling Spears Ian McLean, 2016-06-15 Large bold and colorful indigenous Australian art sometimes known as Aboriginal art has made an indelible impression on the contemporary art scene But it is controversial dividing the artists purveyors and collectors from those who smell a scam Whether the artists are victims or victors there is no denying the impact of their work in the media on art collectors and the art world at large and on our global imagination How did Australian art become the most successful indigenous form in the world How did its artists escape the ethnographic and souvenir markets to become players in an art market to which they had historically been denied access Beautifully illustrated this full stunning account not only offers a comprehensive introduction to this rich artistic tradition but also makes us question everything we have been taught about contemporary art
