G. Jung,2012-01-12 As a young man growing up near Basel Jung was fascinated and disturbed by tales of Nietzsche s brilliance eccentricity and eventual decline into permanent psychosis These volumes the transcript of a previously unpublished private seminar reveal the fruits of his initial curiosity Nietzsche s works which he read as a student at the University of Basel had moved him profoundly and had a lifelong influence on his thought During the sessions the mature Jung spoke informally to members of his inner circle about a thinker whose works had not only overwhelmed him with the depth of their understanding of human nature but also provided the philosophical sources of many of his own psychological and metapsychological ideas Above all he demonstrated how the remarkable book Thus Spake Zarathustra illustrates both Nietzsche s genius and his neurotic and prepsychotic tendencies Since there was at that time no thought of the seminar notes being published Jung felt free to joke to lash out at people and events that irritated or angered him and to comment unreservedly on political economic and other public concerns of the time This seminar and others including the one recorded in Dream Analysis were given in English in Zurich during the 1920s and 1930s Gospel of Matthew David Thomas,2020-11-12 Among homiletical commentaries this one stands supreme for many reasons The author opens doors and challenges the reader to a vigorous investigation His conclusions often startling illuminate the Gospel clearly Instead of verbosity he expresses much in few words Dr Thomas is practical and provides excellent stimulus for sermon preparation His powerful yet restrained imagination presses into its service all nature life science art and history After thoroughly grasping his theme he pours his soul into it develops it in a logical manner and enunciates his 123 discourses with thrilling effect The Genius of the Gospel David Thomas,2023-10-01 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 Méthode ... d'apprendre l'Anglois, ou Grammaire Angloise, etc C.
