

A romantic silhouette of a man and a woman holding hands, standing on a grassy field against a bright sunset sky with scattered clouds. The couple is positioned on the left side of the frame, facing each other.

I am a loved,
forgiven, reconciled
child of God.
Therefore,
I love,
I forgive,
I reconcile.

Loved And Forgiven:

Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020-09-25 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love. It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness, discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment, considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional, showcasing a particular understanding of the latter, and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness. It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard's key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love. Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament, it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice. John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait, suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue, and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope. Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics, before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness. Throughout the book, the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives, including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking, Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness, and Ian McEwan's Atonement.

The Power of Love, Forgiveness, and Surrender Millie Ninowski-Gelb, 2008-08 Do you ever feel frustrated about your relationship with God and wonder what's wrong? God longs to have an intimate relationship with you, so where does the problem lie? If you're serious about wanting a passionate relationship with Him, you must make a choice. Life is all about choices. But none are as important as choosing to have an intimate relationship with your creator. What is involved in such a decision? The answers can be found in The Power of Love, Forgiveness, and Surrender. If your relationship with God is not all it should be, whose fault is it? Choosing an intimate relationship with Him requires much more than half-hearted efforts on your part. It calls for a total commitment to Him, choosing to live according to His plan instead of your own. It may seem like a difficult challenge, but He has provided all the help you need in His Word. Discover the power of love, forgiveness, and surrender—three keys that will deepen your relationship with God and renew the joy of living. These life-changing principles will empower you to be all that God wants you to be. That's the only way to live.

Includes deceptively simple yet profound exercises, meditations, and visualizations to support the exploration of your inner world Explains how these principles and techniques originated in Roberto Assagioli's system of psychosynthesis enriched by the Findhorn experience of living in community Every person is born with the capacity to love Over time however many of us have built barriers within ourselves as a reaction to painful experiences and following these we often develop fears beliefs and behaviors that keep these barriers firmly in place The primary lesson in life is to learn to love and this starts right on our doorstep Often it is self doubt and feelings of unworthiness that hold us back from experiencing all the love around us Only when we start to love and accept ourselves with all that we are can we love others freely and fully Learning to love requires an intention to change and a willingness to take action Once we understand how to work with our doubts and fears and learn how to change our beliefs and behavior our barriers will melt away and we spontaneously open up to connect deeply and harmoniously with the full flow of the river of life In this simple yet insightful guide Eileen Caddy and David Earl Platts detail the down to earth practicalities of exploring feelings attitudes beliefs and past experiences that block us from loving and from receiving love They show how bringing more love into our lives is not a mystery but often a journey back to ourselves and our core values The authors examine the feelings of acceptance trust forgiveness respect opening up and taking risks among others within a framework of compassionate understanding and non judgment Deceptively simple yet profound exercises meditations and visualizations support the reader in examining their inner world and implementing these vital concepts into their lives The teachings in the book are based on popular workshops that Eileen co founder of the Findhorn Foundation Community and David facilitated for years in and outside Findhorn Many of the underlying principles and techniques originate in the system of psychosynthesis devised by Roberto Assagioli Learning to Love invites you to make a free and informed choice to bring more love into your life and then helps you implement this choice step by step with confidence and joy
