Lovehate Continuum Poems:

Love-Mate Continuum Mark Terrill, 2001-04-01 Celtic Shakespeare Rory Loughnane, 2016-04-08 Drawing together some of the leading academics in the field of Shakespeare studies this volume examines the commonalities and differences in addressing a notionally Celtic Shakespeare Celtic contexts have been established for many of Shakespeare's plays and there has been interest too in the ways in which Irish Scottish and Welsh critics editors and translators have reimagined Shakespeare claiming connecting with and correcting him This collection fills a major gap in literary criticism by bringing together the best scholarship on the individual nations of Ireland Scotland and Wales in a way that emphasizes cultural crossovers and crucibles of conflict The volume is divided into three chronologically ordered sections Tudor Reflections Stuart Revisions and Celtic Afterlives This division of essays directs attention to Shakespeare's transformed treatment of national identity in plays written respectively in the reigns of Elizabeth and James but also takes account of later regional receptions and the cultural impact of the playwright's dramatic works The first two sections contain fresh readings of a number of the individual plays and pay particular attention to the ways in which Shakespeare attends to contemporary understandings of national identity in the light of recent history Juxtaposing this material with subsequent critical receptions of Shakespeare's works from Milton to Shaw this volume addresses a significant critical lacuna in Shakespearean criticism Rather than reading these plays from a solitary national perspective the essays in this volume cohere in a wide ranging treatment of Shakespeare's direct and oblique references to the archipelago and the problematic issue of national identity

International Poetry Review, 2001 Small Press Review, 2001 The Cumulative Book Index, 1991 A world list of books in the English language The Act and Object of Judgment Brian Ball, Christoph Schuringa, 2019-03-14 This book presents 12 original essays on historical and contemporary philosophical discussions of judgment The central issues explored in this volume can be separated into two groups namely those concerning the act and object of judgment What kind of act is judgment How is it related to a range of other mental acts states and dispositions Where and how does assertive force enter in Is there a distinct category of negative judgments or are these simply judgments whose objects are negative Concerning the object of judgment How many objects are there of a given judgment One as on the dual relation theory of Frege and Moore Or many as in Russell's later multiple relation theory If there is a single object is it a proposition And if so is it a force neutral abstract entity that might equally figure as the object of a range of intentional attitudes Or is it somehow constitutively tied to the act itself These and related questions are approached from a variety of historical and contemporary perspectives This book sheds new light on current controversies by drawing on the details of the distinct intellectual contexts in which previous philosophers positions about the nature of judgment were formulated In turn new directions in present day research promise to raise novel interpretive prospects and challenges in the history of philosophy Sexual Personae Camille Paglia, 1991-08-20 The fiery provocative and unparalleled work of feminist art criticism that launched the exceptional career of one of our most important public intellectuals a remarkable book at once outrageous and compelling fanatical and brilliant One must be awed by Paglia's vast energy erudition and wit The Washington Post Is Emily Dickinson the female Sade Is Donatello's David a bit of pedophile pornography What is the secret kinship between Byron and Elvis Presley between Medusa and Madonna How do liberals and feminists as well as conservatives fatally misread human nature This audacious and omnivorously learned work of guerrilla scholarship offers nothing less than a unified field theory of Western culture high and low since Egyptians invented beauty making a persuasive case for all art as a pagan battleground between male and female form and chaos civilization and daemonic nature With 47 photographs Bread & Fish Mark Terrill, 2002

Prose A native Californian and former merchant seaman Mark Terrill was a participant in Paul Bowles writing workshop in Tangier Morocco and has lived in Germany since 1984 where he has worked as a shipyard welder road manager for bands cook and postal worker His poems prose and translations have appeared widely in the U S and abroad Among his recent books is KID WITH GRAY EYES also available from SPD Checking into the hotel in Fez Morocco I go up to my room sprawl on the bed burned out beat after the long drive down from Tangier as I'm lying there glancing around the room in my post transit daze my eyes gradually fix on a framed picture from Jim The Subtlety of Emotions Aaron Ben-Ze'Ev, 2001-08-24

An informal yet rigorous exploration of human emotions in all their complexity and subtlety Why do we cry at the movies What is the best way to manage destructive feelings such as jealousy Although emotions pervade our lives their nature causes and effects have only recently been studied by social scientists and philosophers Despite growing scientific interest in the subject empirical findings have not yet caught up with our intuitive knowledge In this book Aaron Ben Ze'ev carries out what he calls a careful search for general patterns in the primeval jungle of emotions In an engaging informal style he draws on a variety of theoretical approaches and popular sources to produce a coherent account of emotions in all their subtlety All of the ideas are illustrated with examples drawn from everyday life The book is organized into two parts The first presents an overall conceptual framework for understanding emotions It looks at the typical characteristics and components of emotions distinguishes emotions from other affective phenomena classifies the emotions and covers such related issues as emotional intelligence regulating emotions and emotions and morality The second part discusses individual emotions including envy jealousy pleasure in others misfortune pity compassion anger hate disgust love sexual desire happiness sadness pride regret and shame The text is laced with insightful and often amusing quotations from sources ranging from Mae West to Montesquieu A Concise Companion to Postwar British and Irish Poetry Nigel Alderman, C. D. Blanton, 2014-02-03
