Lovers Last Go Around 13 Poems:

Intratextuality and Latin Literature Stephen J. Harrison, Stavros Frangoulidis, Theodore D. Papanghelis, 2018-10-08

Recent years have witnessed an increased interest in classical studies in the ways meaning is generated through the medium of intertextuality namely how different texts of the same or different authors communicate and interact with each other. Attention although on a lesser scale has also been paid to the manner in which meaning is produced through interaction between various parts of the same text or body of texts within the overall production of a single author namely intratextuality. Taking off from the seminal volume on Intratextuality Greek and Roman Textual Relations edited by A. Sharrock and H. Morales (Oxford 2000) which largely sets the theoretical framework for such internal associations within classical texts, this collective volume brings together twenty-seven contributions written by an international team of experts exploring the evolution of intratextuality from Late Republic to Late Antiquity across a wide range of authors, genres and historical periods. Of particular interest are also the combined instances of intra and intertextual poetics as well as the way in which intratextuality in Latin literature draws on reading practices and critical methods already theorized and operative in Greek antiquity.

The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry Huda Fakhreddine, Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych, 2023-12-22. Comprised of contributions from leading international scholars, The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry incorporates political, cultural and theoretical paradigms that help place poetic projects in their socio-political contexts as well as illuminate connections across the continuum of the Arabic tradition. This volume grounds itself in the present moment and from it examines the transformations of the fifteen-century Arabic poetic tradition through readings, re-readings, translations, reformulations and co-optations. Furthermore, this collection aims to deconstruct the artificial modern/pre-modern divide and to present the Arabic poetic practice as live and urgent, shaped by the experiences and challenges of the twenty-first century and at the same time in constant conversation with its long tradition. The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry actively seeks to destabilize binaries such as that of East/West in contributions that shed light on the interactions of the Arabic tradition with other Middle Eastern traditions such as Persian, Turkish and Hebrew and on South/South ideological and poetic networks of solidarity that have informed poetic currents across the modern Middle East. This volume will be ideal for scholars and students of Arabic, Middle Eastern and comparative literature as well as non-specialists interested in poetry and in the present moment of the study of Arabic poetry.

The lover's encyclopædia. [With] Gems of prose and poetry. A. Goodman, 1897. A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Herrick, Introduction to the Hebrew Bible John Joseph Collins, 2014. Introduction to the Hebrew Bible is one of the most reliable and widely adopted critical textbooks at undergraduate and graduate levels alike. The text is aimed explicitly at motivated students regardless of their previous exposure to the Bible or faith commitments. Collins proceeds through the canon of the Old Testament and the Apocrypha judiciously presenting the current state of historical, archaeological and literary understanding of the biblical text and
