Loving Tea:

Knowing by Heart Anthony J. Steinbock, 2021-09-15 Drawing on and developing the phenomenological work of figures such as Edmund Husserl and Max Scheler Knowing by Heart Loving as Participation and Critique provides an account of the various feelings and feeling states that pertain to matters of the heart Anthony J Steinbock's work investigates the special kind of knowing that is revealed most profoundly through love Knowing by Heart describes the movement of loving as a participation that bears on all beings Eschewing the dichotomy of rationalism and sensibility that has dominated discussions of love and emotion Steinbock understands the heart as a vast schema ranging from the deepest loving to affects and felt conditions The book brings into focus the importance of a full bodied relational account of a normative critique based in emotion From a phenomenological description of diverse feelings to the normativity of loving as the discernment of the heart this work evaluates hating's relation to loving At the basis of all this is a phenomenological and philosophical anthropology in response to the basic question In reality who and what are we

Love's Garden Peggy Rowe-Ward, Larry Ward, 2008-05-10 A collection of real life Buddhist love stories with commentary and guided exercises for couples developed by Peggy Rowe Ward and Larry Ward senior students and ordained Dharma teachers in the tradition of Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh These personal stories from couples of a range of different ages and experiences illustrate how Buddhist principles can help couples navigate any stage of their relationship It took the authors some good living and good loving before they realized that the love that they were seeking was already present and available in the depths of their hearts and mind Love does not depend on anything that is happening Out There and is not dependent on anything he or she might do It depends on our own willingness to look within and to act This insight is a result of practicing the teachings of the Buddha on right diligence and right effort The authors have been studying and practicing with Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh and they are happy to report that the practices work In iLove's Garden the authors offer key practices such as The Three Keyes see excerpt for the transformation of suffering and the establishment of happiness These practices have helped them see each other's happiness as their own They share stories and illustrations from their own life and also and those of their friends and students brbrThe practice is not difficult We simply need to get in touch with and nourish the practices that are helping us to experience peace And then we need to stop doing the things that keep us from experiencing peace Larry Ward
