Lowji Discovers America:

Lowji Discovers America Candace Fleming, 2008-06-23 Dear Jamshed America is not so different from what we thought I told you I wouldn't see a single cowboy riding across the plain and I haven't I have not even seen a plain Still there are some silver linings They are Trapper and King the cat and dog who live in the apartment building They are cuddly and waggy I am not allowed to play with them though because they are supposed to catch mice and keep burglars away Ironman He owns a pig and talks to me a lot But he is a grown up Kids I can hear them playing outside Too bad they do not want to play with me I wish you were here Do you wish I was in India Write back soon Your friend Lowji

Heart of Conferring

Jennifer Wessberg, Tanya M. Pfeiffer, 2013-07-23 Weve all read or heard somewhere that our students are supposed to be reading for a large part of our readers workshop But what do we do when they are reading How do we do conferring in a way that is manageable and effective for our students How do we know if Sarah chose an appropriate book How do we know if the little boy who loves non fiction isnt just staring at the cool pictures What should a child do after the conference The Heart Of Conferring delivers a commonsense approach to all these questions and more This book provides a structure and a roadmap to the fourth part of our readers workshop read aloud shared reading guided reading independent reading conferring the part that is most often overlooked Conferring The Heart of Conferring written by two everyday teachers takes the reader on a journey through the essential steps of the conferring process in the readers workshop This book provides the everyday working teacher with dialogue from real reading conferences the benefits of why we do this and the ever allusive how to confer effectively and keep it going all year long This book will be enlightening to any teacher who confers wants to confer or has tried and stopped It will be an effective tool for the seasoned veteran or the first year teacher Join us on our journey through the Heart of Conferring

Many Texts, Many Voices

Penny Silvers, Mary C. Shorey, 2012 On any given day a visitor to Mary Shorey s classroom will find elementary students using a variety of learning tools from books to wikis and blogs to pose critical questions about the world and take action to make a difference in the lives of others Whether sponsoring a book drive for victims of Hurricane Katrina using a multimedia presentation to persuade the principal to adopt their recycling plan or challenging a senior citizen s eviction it s all in a day s work for Mary s students Her young learners are becoming conscious consumers creative thinkers and effective communicators even while fulfilling the mandated curriculum and Common Core Standards As Shorey and coauthor Penny Silvers write in Many Texts Many Voices Critical literacy requires that the reader consumer examine multiple perspectives and ask Whose interests are being served and Whose voice is heard or silenced Rather than an addition to a lesson or curriculum critical literacy is a way of thinking communicating analyzing and living a literate life Critical literacy also implies the possibility of taking some kind of social action in order to support a belief make a difference or simply help during a time of need Always mindful of what is appropriate for young children Shorey and Silvers continually search for opportunities to embed critical literacy and inquiry in the everyday lives of primary students Through a rich array of rubrics sample lessons text sets unit designs and professional resources Silvers and Shorey share their reflective practices so that all teachers can use print visual and digital tools to transform student learning
