Lu Hong Life And Art:

Lu Hong Hong Lu, Wenkuang Chang, Jeffrey Goldberg, 1989 Painting and Private Life in Eleventh-century China
Robert E. Harrist, Gonglin Li, 1998 In the eleventh century the focus of Chinese painting shifted dramatically The subject matter of most earlier works of art was drawn from a broadly shared heritage of political religious and literary themes Late in the century however a group of scholar artists began to make paintings that reflected the private experiences of their own lives Robert Harrist argues here that no work illuminates this development more vividly than Mountain Villa a handscroll by the renowned artist Li Gonglin ca 1041 1106 Through a detailed reading of the painting and an analysis of its place in the visual culture of Li s time the author offers a new explanation for the emergence of autobiographic content in Chinese art Harrist proposes that the subject of Li s painting his garden in the Longmian Mountains was itself a form of self representation since a garden was then considered a reflection of its owner s character and values He demonstrates also that Li s turn toward the imagery of private life was inspired by the conventions of Chinese lyric poetry in which poets recorded and responded to the experiences of their lives The book draws the reader into the artistic scholarly and political world of Li Gonglin and shows the profound influence of Buddhism on Chinese painting and poetry It offers important insights not just into Chinese art but also into Chinese literature and intellectual history Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart, Xin Yang, Nie Chongzheng, James Cahill, Hung Wu, Lang Shaojun, 1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies Modernism in Late-Mao China Ke Song, 2023-04-28 This book investigates the architectural history of China in the Mao era 1949 1976 focusing on the rise of modernism in the last seven years of the Cultural Revolution from 1969 to 1976 It highlights the new architecture of this period exemplified by three clusters of buildings for foreign affairs namely buildings for foreign diplomacy in Beijing buildings for foreign trade in Guangzhou and China s foreign aid projects overseas The emergence of new architecture in the early 1970s is closely associated with China's political and diplomatic shift of the time from a radical emphasis on ideological struggle to a dynamic balance between leftist ideology and pragmatic concerns In this context China's relations with the West quickly improved culminating with American president Richard Nixon's visit to China in 1972 The increasing foreign affairs brought new opportunities to Chinese architects who referenced both Western modernism and Chinese architectural traditions to create a new version of Chinese modernism The book brings dimensions of form politics and knowledge to the analysis of architecture to construct an understanding of architectural design as an aesthetic political and intellectual practice Modernism in Late Mao China will be an enriching and useful reference for students and scholars who are interested in the global architectural history of the twentieth century especially Cold War modernism

Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker, Chunchen Wang, 2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi's success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao's classic description of the authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau-Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E. C. Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far-reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi's practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in-depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting s philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist s rich and profound spiritual world through Jiazi s expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang,2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China s economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China s modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China Socially Engaged Public Art in East Asia Meiqin Wang,2022-04-12 This anthology elucidates the historical global and regional connections as well as current manifestations of socially engaged public art SEPA in East Asia It covers case studies and theoretical inquiries on artistic practices from Hong Kong Japan mainland China South Korea and Taiwan with a focus on the period since the 2000s It examines how public art has been employed by artists curators ordinary citizens and grassroots organizations in the region to raise awareness of prevailing social problems foster collaborations among people of varying backgrounds establish alternative value systems and social relations and stimulate action to advance changes in real life situations It argues that through the endeavors of critically minded art professionals public art has become activism as it ventures into an expanded field of transdisciplinary practices a site of new possibilities where disparate domains such as aesthetics sustainability placemaking social justice and politics interact and where people work together to activate space place and community in a way that impacts the everyday lives of ordinary people As the first book length anthology on the thriving yet disparate scenes of SEPA in East Asia it consists of eight chapters by eight authors who have well grounded knowledge of a specific locality or localities in East Asia In their analyses of ideas and actions emerging from varying geographical sociopolitical and cultural circumstances in the region most authors also engage with concepts and key publications from scholars which examine artistic practices striving for social intervention and public participation in different parts of the world Although grounded in the realities of SEPA from East Asia this book contributes to global conversations and debates concerning the evolving relationship between public art civic politics and society at large Ink Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2013 Featuring 70 works in various media paintings calligraphy photographs woodblock prints video and sculpture that were created during the past three decades Ink Art Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China s ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path. Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression, visitors will recognize thematic, aesthetic, or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China's artistic past. The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing's Book from the Sky (ca. 1988), an installation that will fill an entire gallery; Family Tree (2000), a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face; and Map of China (2006) by Ai Weiwei, which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples.

Socially Engaged Art in Contemporary China Meiqin Wang, 2019-03-04. This book provides an in-depth and thematic analysis of socially engaged art in Mainland China, exploring its critical responses to and creative interventions in China's top-down, pro-urban and profit-oriented socioeconomic transformations. It focuses on the socially conscious practices of eight art professionals who assume the role of artist, critic, curator, educator, cultural entrepreneur, and social activist among others, as they strive to expose the injustice and inequality many Chinese people have suffered, raise public awareness of pressing social and environmental problems, and invent new ways and infrastructures to support various underprivileged social groups.
