The Effective Teaching of Secondary Science John Parkinson, 2014-06-03 The Effective Teaching of Secondary Science encourages the trainee teacher to develop effective skills for teaching science to secondary school pupils The comprehensive coverage of topics and issues provides good foundations for trainee teachers who are encouraged to test and evaluate different techniques Practical advice is offered in areas such as lesson planning the preparation of worksheets planning practical activities and safety in the laboratory The book also discusses the use of information technology as well as multicultural and gender issues and the teaching of pupils with special needs Much of the work covered is underpinned by areas of educational research such as educational theory and psychology and sociology of education Information on the requirements of the national curriculum and on post 16 science courses is given and includes a number of assessment techniques for the problematic area of assessing science attainment target 1

Science Foundations: Physics Bryan Milner, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 The new edition of Science Foundations provides comprehensive coverage of single and double award GCSE science It is fully revised and updated to match the new GCSE specifications for teaching from September 2001 It contains all the material required for the foundation and higher tiers with clear progression and explicit differentiation Higher tier only material is clearly marked in separate spreads The language level is carefully controlled with illustrations and layout specifically designed to make the concepts accessible There are frequent opportunities for students to confirm their understanding of each key idea as it is introduced via short questions and summary passages on each spread The books include guidance for students on how to prepare for and answer their GCSE examinations and a glossary of key words for ease of reference

Physics Martin Roberts, 2002-10-24 The three full colour texts place science in everyday contexts through carefully chosen case studies The series offers practical work including investigations assignments homework discussion points and questions to reinforce and assess students learning It is supported by teacher resource material in paper based format or electronic versions on CD ROMs

Feminising the Masculine? Margaret Whittock, 2018-02-05 This title was first published in 2000 This work aims to provide a comparative and temporal assessment of the position of women in non traditional employment in Europe Britain and Northern Ireland Its second aim is to provide a new perspective on the division of labour in modern Western societies and to critically examine the issues debates and perspectives which have traditionally dominated portrayals of women and paid employment The book assesses the potential which women themselves have for transforming existing gender relations particularly within the structural constraints of the education training and employment systems In so doing it is intended to highlight flaws inherent in much contemporary feminist theorizing and aims to provide a more satisfactory theoretical framework within which to elaborate and develop its arguments While related texts have tended to concentrate on stereotypical notions of women and paid employment this book aims to fill a gap in the literature by scrutinizing the lived experiences of women in non traditional manual occupations and relating these to a possible transformation of the existing gender order in Western societies
