New Homes for Old Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge, 2022-09-15 Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge's New Homes for Old is a comprehensive exploration of the early 20th century immigration experience in the United States delving into the government and private efforts towards Americanization of new arrivals Breckinridge's text is a meticulous blend of sociological analysis and historical narrative skillfully contextualizing the issues of immigration within the broader national framework of identity and the melting pot ideal Her examination of the methods and effectiveness of the agencies involved provides a critical insight into the success and challenges of policies and practices at the time of the book's conception while also serving as a point of comparison for the evolving discourse on immigration and integration today The book adopts a discursive and analytical literary style that reflects the progressive academic pursuits of its era and stands as a relevant document in the context of early social work and immigration policy studies The author Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge was an accomplished social scientist suffragist and advocate for women's and children's rights in the early 20th century Her own extensive experience in academia social reform and law undoubtedly informed her empathetic yet critical perspective on the challenges faced by immigrants and the Americanization process New Homes for Old is not only a testament to Breckinridge's dedication to social issues but also echoes her life's work of advocating for a fairer and more equitable society Ultimately the book serves as a seminal work to those interested in the early processes of immigrant assimilation in the US the origins of social work and the development of policies concerning new Americans Breckinridge's insightful observations and precise language make this volume an essential read for historians sociologists and policymakers alike The book is recommended for those who seek to understand the past to address present and future challenges in the delicate dance of cultural integration and national identity formation

A Journey of Faith: Moving from the Middle East to the West Dr. Safwat Bishara, 2011-06-20 First it describes the life of a mainstream Christian family living in Egypt The agony involved for the head of the family the author to make the decision of taking his wife and three young daughters from the safety of living among family and friends that provided a hedge against the unknown and uncertainty of moving to another country and a new culture It describes how Divine intervention tilted the balance in favor going ahead with the decision to move to America The book entails several circumstances that clearly manifested God's desire for us to leave the country in which we had lived most of our lives Second the book describes how the basically Islamic Arabic culture of the Middle East compares with the essentially Christian culture of the United States It deals with the subtle underlying teachings of Islam that affect social and spiritual lives of people living in Muslim majority societies The book describes how deeply ingrained ideas can enhance or prohibit advancement of society

Rural Development; 1971--a Year of Listening and Watching the Development of the Growing Consensus that Something Must be Done for the People of the American Countryside, 1972 Killing Beauty in North America Constance Mills Atkins Buck PhD, 2022-11-07 My great grandfather Brigadier General Anson Mills engaged in battle with the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians in South Dakota in the 1800s He led the battle against the Native people at the Battle of Slim Buttes in Montana War trophies considered sacred objects by the Indians included a beautiful beaded clothing a war bonnet with buffalo horns and a blanket strip They were only a few of the pieces I grew up with They hung on the walls of my parents home I remember as a child that I would physically cringe and contract around them I did not know why but I felt pain and heard them speak I am in pain I want to go home In the early 1970s I met the sacred Hat Carrier and other Cheyenne native people I returned the beautiful articles which were placed in the Jim Gatchell Museum in Buffalo Wyoming There are many stories told about European experiences when they landed Most stories idealize the experience of white males There are many other stories to be told This is one of them      The Return of Nephilim Alan Dean Paul, 2017-02-21

Economic turmoil rising crime and unrest thrive in the news When it comes to surviving disaster remember the parable of ten virgins Matthew 25 1 13 Five virgins were prepared and five were not There are people behind problems the world is facing today Problems just do not arise Elites use orchestrated problems to justify legislation that pushes their agenda An influential cabal of elite wants you to believe in a business cycle nations rise and fall naturally and a strong central government is essential for society to function People accept the world as being helpless without their elites keeping the wheels of progress moving Ask yourself Who really has kept the wheels of progress moving Who were the people that benefitted humanity Then ask yourself What institution has been responsible for the slaughter of millions or perhaps billions in history When you do it becomes clear that our elites control history and manipulate the masses They want you to think government the institution they work to influence most is necessary There is a way out The people who hold the secrets of the kingdom Luke 8 10 are still alive and flourishing However they need to wake up from their slumber and push back against the forces seeking their genocide Freeing themselves from the genocide of multiculturalism will free themselves from invaders and traitors who seek to ruin them and rule God s kingdom the kingdom from which they hold the secrets      The Dominant Animal Paul R. Ehrlich, Anne H. Ehrlich, 2008-06-30 In humanity s more than 100 000 year history we have evolved from vulnerable creatures clawing sustenance from Earth to a sophisticated global society manipulating every inch of it In short we have become the dominant animal Why then are we creating a world that threatens our own species What can we do to change the current trajectory toward more climate change increased famine and epidemic disease Renowned Stanford scientists Paul R Ehrlich and Anne H Ehrlich believe that intelligently addressing those questions depends on a clear understanding of how we evolved and how and why we re changing the planet in ways that darken our descendants future The Dominant Animal arms readers with that knowledge tracing the interplay between environmental change and genetic and cultural evolution since the dawn of humanity In lucid and engaging prose they describe how Homo sapiens adapted to their surroundings eventually developing the vibrant cultures vast scientific knowledge and technological wizardry we know today But the Ehrlichs also explore the flip side of this triumphant story of innovation and conquest As we clear forests to raise crops and build cities lace the continents with highways and create chemicals never before seen in nature we may be undermining our own supremacy The threats of environmental damage are clear from the daily headlines but the outcome is far from destined Humanity can again adapt if we learn from our evolutionary past Those lessons are crystallized in The Dominant Animal Tackling the fundamental challenge of the human predicament Paul and Anne Ehrlich offer a vivid and unique exploration of our origins our evolution and our future     Nickelodeon ,1911     The Mentor ,1916

Black-Arab Encounters in Literature and Film Touria Khannous,2021-08-26 This book investigates how representations of Black Africans have been negotiated over time in Arabic literature and film The book offers direct readings of a representative selection of primary texts shedding light on the divergent ways these authors understood race across different genres including pre Islamic classical poetry polemical essays travel narratives novels and films Starting with the first recognized Black Arab poet Antara Ibn Shaddad 580 C E and extending right up to the present day the works examined illuminate the changes in consciousness that attended Black Africans as they negotiated their position in Arab society In a twist to Edward Said s Orientalism the book argues that scholars in the Middle East and North Africa generated a hierarchical representational discourse themselves one equally predicated on the Self Other binary However it also demonstrates that Arab racial discourse is not a linear rhetoric but changes according to history political circumstances and ideologies such as tribal politics the Shu ubiyya movement nationalism and imperialism Blacks and Arabs have had tangled relationships that are based not only on race but also on kinship and solidarity due to trade and other types of connections Challenging fundamental assumptions of Black Diaspora studies and postcolonial studies this book will be of interest to scholars of the African diaspora Arabic literature Middle East studies and critical race studies     The Roaring 2000s Investor Harry S.
