Murder's a Swine Nap Lombard, 2021-12-07 I should imagine this was murder too because it would be very difficult to build yourself into a heap of sandbags and then die In the blackout conditions of a wintry London night amateur sleuth Agnes Kinghof and a young air raid warden have stumbled upon a corpse stowed in the walls of their street's bomb shelter As the police begin their investigation the night is interrupted once again when Agnes upstairs neighbour Mrs Sibley is terrorised by the sight of a grisly pig's head at her fourth floor window With the discovery of more sinister threats mysteriously signed Pig sticker Agnes and her husband Andrew unable to resist a good mystery begin their investigation to deduce the identity of a villain living amongst them in their block of flats A witty and light hearted mystery full of intriguing period detail this rare gem of Golden Age crime returns to print for the first time since its publication in 1943 This edition includes an Introduction by award winning author Martin Edwards

Unsolved Murders in and Around Derbyshire S. C. Lomax, 2009-10-01 There is no such thing as the perfect crime Yet within these pages are 13 20th century murders whose perpetrators have so far escaped justice Some may still be alive cold cases awaiting new forensic leads but others have taken their chilling secrets to the grave

The Longdon Murders Julius Falconer, 2009-09-09 On the night of a blizzard in January 1963 an elderly couple who live in a tiny Worcestershire village are summoned to their daughter's cottage two and a half miles away at Longdon on urgent but unspecified business When eventually they reach their daughter's cottage exhausted and worried they find it warm but empty Unable to face the journey back home that night they prepare a simple meal for themselves preparatory to retiring to bed in their daughter's cottage The following morning the concerned neighbours find the couple still sitting at table poisoned by a bottle of contaminated wine A student is found to have been killed by the same rare poison in his London bed sit within days of the Longdon murders Coincidence Surely not Inspector Wickfield is appointed to find out His inquiry is hampered by the repeated appearance of the deceased couple s son who is a senior officer in the Canadian force Weaving his way round red herrings and dead ends Wickfield requires all his ingenuity prompted by a random crossword clue to uncover a devious and intricate plot instigated by a determined criminal Julius Falconer can be relied on to provide stimulating and thought provoking entertainment for a cosy night by the fire but sharpen your wits first Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website A Dictionary of True Crime Stephen Wade,2025-02-13 A comprehensive A Z guide to notorious and lesser known extreme crimes criminals and legal cases from the 17th century to today A Dictionary of True Crime is a guide to the most compelling cases of extreme and violent crime in the writing files from the 17th century to present day Amongst notorious criminals like Jack the Ripper and the Moors Murderers lesser known but provoking cases which have occupied the writer s mind for some time are also discussed with questions and theories posed such as those of Walter Rowland who was twice sentenced to die and Louie Calvert who Wade argues was innocent of the crime for which she was hanged As well as murder other crimes including baby farming arson and treason are also discussed along with criminals such as gangsters pirates and highwaymen and punishments including hanging flogging and being burnt at the stake Professions within crime for example detectives hangmen and the unexpected Kings Messengers who were given powers of arrest in their duties feature along with cases that have formed points of law which impact the courts even today and oddities like the cutlery eater a burglar with a strange calling card Arranged in an A Z format this well researched dictionary from crime writer Stephen Wade is the perfect read for fans of true crime

Killing Time John Hollway,Ronald M. Gauthier,2013-06-01 In 1984 John Thompson was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of a white man in New Orleans Louisiana He was sent to Angola prison and confined to his cell twenty three hours a day However Thompson adamantly proclaimed his innocence and just needed lawyers who believed that his trial had been mishandled and who would step up to the plate against the powerful DA s office But who would fight for Thompson s innocence when he didn t have an alibi for the night of the murder and there were two key witnesses to confirm his guilt Killing Time is about the eighteen year quest for John Thompson s freedom from a wrongful murder conviction After Philadelphia lawyers Michael Banks and Gordon Cooney take on his case they struggle to find areas of misconduct in his previous trials while grappling with their questions about Thompson s innocence John Hollway and Ronald M Gauthier have interviewed Thompson and the lawyers regarding the case and paint a realistic and compelling portrait of life on death row and the corruption in the Louisiana police and DA s office When it is found that evidence was mishandled in a previous trial that led to his death sentence in the murder case Thompson is finally on his road to freedom a journey that continues to this day Complete with an updated afterword describing Thompson s 2011 civil suit against Harry Connick Sr and the New Orleans DA s office and the Supreme Court s shocking verdict THE CHRONICLES OF NEWGATE ARTHUR
